DEMOS BELIEVE SOUTH IS LOST TO EISENHOWER

Sparkman Stands As Lure To Dixie Political Units

CHICAGO, July 26 (AP) —Democratic leaders made it clear today they believe they have blocked Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower off from the South by their choice of the Stevenson-Sparkman ticket.

Eisenhower's reputed popularity below the Mason-Dixon Line had a great deal to do with the selection of Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama as vice presidential running mate for Gov. Adlai E. Sttvenson of Illinois.

Sparkman's nomination gave the Deep South representation on a ticket that probably can't be attacked successfully by Dixie Democrats, even though it runs on a platform hardly less strong in its civil rights provisions than that of 1948.

The 1948 revolt took 39 electoral votes from President Truman and through all of the North-South poker game bluffing that enlivened the 31st Democratic Convention ran the belief the party can't afford to lose a single Southern state this year.

There have been confident Republican predictions that Eisenhower will break into the South in November, picking off states like Texas, Virginia, North Carolina and Florida.

If President Truman had been the nominee again, that prediction might have had more weight.

But Stevenson, with close family ties in the South, is a different breed of political cat. Most Southerners feel he won't give them the kind of treatment Truman dished out on civil rights bills, although he supports the party platform firmly.

With Sparkman on the ticket as spokesman for what might be called the "New South," party leaders think Stevenson has little to fear.

Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina and Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia may be going home dissatisfied with the convention's action, but the betting here is that they will not lead any party-splitting revolt in November.

The reaction of most of Dixie may have been keynoted by Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia, who told the convention he would "fall into the ranks" and work for the nominee in November.

Russell, a practical and sensible politician, apparently never had any real belief that he could win the nomination. But friends said he had accomplished some important objectives by his campaign.

They listed these as (1) a clear notification by his candidacy that the South would not take Truman again, (2) approval by the convention of a compromise (of sorts) on the civil rights plank and (3) forcing recognition for Dixie on the ticket.

The Republicans have said they are going to campaign in the South, neglected for years by candidates of both parties. That may force Stevenson, as well as Sparkman, to

Let's Look At The Record

Next Tuesday Democrats of the Fifth district will be called upon to select their next Congressman. There are five Democrats in the race and one Republican.

In our opinion, based strictly on the record, Congressman Otto Passman is by far the best qualified for this post and we urge his re-election. And in the opinion of a large majority of those who have followed closely his activities in Congress, it is conceded that he has made the best Congressman the Fifth district has had in Washington in more than thirty years.

Mr. Passman has brought millions of dollars into this district for flood control—dollars that were needed for protection of our people and not pork barrel spending. He has likewise aided the campaign to prevent soil erosion immeasurably. He has aided the cotton farmers in his votes in the House of Representatives and otherwise has conducted his activities for many other interests of his district.

Our Congressman has been one of the leaders for economy in government. He has exposed himself to the ire of President Truman and other administration spenders on a number of occasions.

Mr. Passman is a member of a number of important committees of Congress, posts which a new member would be impossible to achieve. He was singularly honored several years ago when the entire Louisiana delegation yielded their seniority and placed him on the powerful Appropriations committee, a post which no new member could even aspire to within a period of years.

Judging from reports from several parishes in this district, Mr. Passman has a wide lead over his opponents. We believe these reports are correct.

We all remember Al Smith's now-famous remark: "Let's look at the record." We firmly believe if the voters of the Fifth district will look at Mr. Passman's record he will be elected in the first primary.

Monroyan Wins Fame As Composer

The real composer of "Kentucky Waltz," a Monroe man, this week won recognition for originating the folk song which he said he wrote as an expression of his love for the girl who is now his wife.

The composer, Tomie Thompson, was awarded recognition for the song in a decision handed down last week by a federal court judge in Nashville, Tenn.

Bill Monroe, the high tenor singer of folk music fame, had said that he bought the lyrics from Thompson for a "valuable consideration."

Thompson filed suit April 15 asking half the royalties from the folk tune, which was copyrighted Aug. 12, 1942, by Monroe.

Thompson said that he wrote the lyrics while he was singing with the Grand Ole Opera during a road tour. According to Thompson the words were written in 20 minutes before show time and later sung during the show.

Jes' Ramblin'

The following letter was received here by Mrs. Sue Donivan and Pauline Hendrixson from Alex Donivan following the recent earthquake in California. Donivan was a former resident in Monroe, employed at the post office here. He recently moved to Los Angeles to accept a position there with an airplane factory. The letter states as follows:

Los Angeles, Calif.
July 21, 1952.

Dear Polly and Mother:

Just a few lines tonight to let you know I am fine and none the worse after the earthquake we had here this morning. Believe me that was quite an experience, one that is hard to explain. I'll try to give you an idea of what happened.

You know how hard it is to awake me as many times as you tried when I was home, well the earthquake did a good job and quick. When I awoke I thought someone had hold of my bed at both ends and was rocking and rolling it, but when I looked around my bedroom I saw the light fixtures swinging, the pictures began ash trays hit the floor, about that falling off the walls and a couple

Man Is Injured In Cafe Melee

A brawl in a Negro cafe yesterday ended with one Negro being hospitalized and the other one jailed.

Injured was Willie Mack who was treated at Charity Hospital for head bruises, West Monroe police said. After he is released from the hospital he will be transferred to the West Monroe jail and charged with being drunk and disorderly, fighting and disturbing the peace.

John Willie Lewis, the participant in the fight, was arrested after the incident at North Fifth and Coleman by West Monroe police. He is booked for drawing and displaying a dangerous weapon, fighting and disturbing the peace. His bond is set at $150.

ALL JOKES ARE OVER

MEMPHIS, July 26 (AP)— Richard Miller told police he killed James Caldwell today because the fellow exasperated him beyond endurance by shouting "Open the door, Richard" whenever they met.

Deputy Inspector W. W. Wilkinson said Caldwell was shot in the head with a .22 bullet at the climax of the quarrel between the two Negroes. He charged Miller with murder.

$5,681,443 Loaned Farmers By Association At Tallulah

D. M. Kell, secretary - treasurer of the Tallulah Production Credit Association, told approximately 400 persons, 175 of them stockholders, that the association had loaned out during the past year $5,681,443.32. This he said was the biggest year for the organization and he pointed out the vast improvements and expansions being made by farmers in the area served by the organization.

The joint meeting of the Production Credit Association and the Northeast National Farm Loan Association, was held in the Tallulah High School auditorium Friday morning at which time outstanding speakers of the various phases of agricultural and production credit systems addressed the group. Among the speakers were Dave L. Pearce, Louisiana commissioner of agriculture; Steve Voelker, vice - president of the Production Credit Corporation of New Orleans; Fred L. Hurst, information agent of the Farm Credit Administration, New Orleans; and R. C. Gaines, director of the Tallulah station, bureau of entomology.

The meeting was called together at 9:30 a.m. followed by an invocation by the Rev. J. Arthur Strickland and a business session of the Northeast National Farm Loan Association. At 10 a.m. the business session of the Production

SEN. SPARKMAN TO RUN WITH GOV. STEVENSON

Alabaman Accepts Vice-Presidential Nomination

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, July 26 (AP)— The Democratic party placed Sen. John J. Sparkman of Alabama by the side of presidential nominee Adlai Stvenson today for the great political wars against the Republicans.

Then it adjourned its 31st national convention in a glow of outward harmony.

Sparkman accepted the vice presidential nomination with a pledge to "take the message of democracy to the people of this country."

"I believe, I earnestly believe," he said, "that we will go out of this convention with greater solidarity, greater unity in all sections of the country and in all segments of our party than we have been able to achieve in a long, long time."

Sparkman was the Stevenson choice for a running mate. And the convention whooped it through by acclamation.

The North-South hook-up of the Illinois governor and Alabama senator represented a new found — and incomplete — unity in the party.

The Democratic clans had battled furiously, spectacularly, all week long over candidates, the civil rights issue and a party loyalty oath repulsive to parts of the South.

Even as they turned to Stevenson early this morning to lead them into the 1952 campaign there were cries of "deals" and "payoffs" from opposition camps.

Die-hard backers of Sen. Estes Kefauver, who ran second in the presidential derby, considered entering him for the vice presidential spot, even after it became known that Sparkman was the man Stevenson wanted. Kefauver himself called them off. Usually its just a matter of routine for a convention to take unquestioningly the person the head of the ticket prefers.

By and large, party leaders were saying Sparkman was entirely acceptable. Here and there on the fringes there was a noticeable lack of warmth toward the Alabama senator.

Executive Secretary Walter White of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said of Sparkman that:

"It will be difficult, if not impossible, for the Democratic party to sell to Negro voters and other civil rights advocates a nominee whose voting record has been one of consistent opposition to the civil rights objectives of the Democratic party.

A Negro congressman, Adam Clayton Powell of New York, called Sparkman "sheer political death to the Democrats.

Gov. John S. Battle of Virginia said he doesnt think Sparkman "is well enough known to be of any help to the Democratic party in his state.

But Sen. Hubert Humphrey,

Man Beaten, Robbed Here

The second violent robbery at Bernstein park within a week allegedly occurred early yesterday morning, Monroe police officers reported said after A. L. Lofton, 30, Monroe told them that he had been beaten and robbed of his clothes and money.

Police said that Lofton told them he had been picked up by two men while working at a local drive-in cafe and taken to the park. One of the men, said Lofton, struck him with a Coca-Cola bottle, robbed him and took his clothes, leaving him naked in the park.

After Lofton regained consciousness he borrowed some clothes from a Negro living in the vicinity and reported the incident to police. He identified one of the men who allegedly struck him, but after the man was arrested he changed his mind, according to police, and the man was released.

Lofton was treated at the Charity hospital for lacerations of the face, but was later released. Officers said that Lofton was intoxicated when he made the report early yesterday, but they were still continuing the investigation last night.

Last Issue Settled In Steel Strike

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP) — President Philip Murray of the CIO steelworkers union finally ordered his 680,000 men back to work in the mills and mines today with an announcement that the last issue in the steel strike had been settled.

Murray said "complete agreement" had been reached between the union and the steel industry. Union spokesmen added that this means some blast furnaces will be fired almost immediately.

Basic terms for settling the 55-day-old strike were agreed on at the White House Thursday and ratified by the steelworkers' Policy Committee here yesterday.

But a last-minute dispute involving 23,000 iron ore workers, mostly in Minnesota, unexpectedly delayed the march back to work across the nation.

HENRY B. CLAY SEEN AS WINNER OF LEGION VOTE

Henry B. Clay, general manager of Shreveport's radio station KWKH, appears to be a cinch at the closing session of the 34th annual state convention to be elected state commander of the American Legion here tomorrow.

Clay is unopposed for the top Legion post in the state.

Early this afternoon seven of the eight state Legion districts unanimously endorsed Clay's candidacy. Shortly before 6 p.m. the seventh district endorsed Clay, but with the reservation that it could withdraw its endorsement if another candidate is announced before election time tomorrow.

There has been a definite movement here since Wednesday to Federal Agent Slain In N. Y. Gun Battle

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)—One of the nation's top criminals walked into an FBI trap today, but killed an FBI agent before being shot and captured in a blazing gun battle at a Manhattan hotel.

The man, Gerhard A. Puff, 38, was listed among the top 10 criminals wanted by the FBI. He was sought in a series of Western bank robberies.

He battled it out with a dozen FBI agents inside and outside the Congress Hotel, just off Central Park on West 69th Street, before he was wounded in the leg and captured.

One of the agents, Joseph Brock, 38, died of bullet wounds 40 minutes after the fight.

Police said Puff pumped several bullets into Brock's back.

Thousands Attend Parade Of State Legionnaires

By YVONNE BRETT

Legionnaires from throughout the state of Louisiana joined hands here Saturday to stage a colorful parade in honor of their 34th annual convention now in session in Monroe.

The parade, which started at 5 p. m., extended down the length of DeSiard Street and attracted thousands of Monroe citizens.

The Monroe police department's Safety Crusader lead the Legion parade followed by the advancing of the colors and by the band of the Crescent City post No. 125 of New Orleans. The third spot in the parade of Legionners was taken by retired Major General Claire Chennault, Department Commander Gray A. Mann and national vice commander Oley Ward of South Carolina.

Two department commanders cars, bearing department executives, were next in line followed by jeeps and the Lafayette post band. Morgan City and Shreveport were next in line advancing before the excellent drum and bugle corp of Post No. 15 of Crowley.

Gun Duel Staged Here

A squabble between neighbors over domestic troubles yesterday ended with gunfire.

Two Negroes, Bell Curry, 30, 402 South Ninth Street and Crate Bester, 39, 400 South Ninth Street, were discussing a problem when the argument became so heated the men departed for weapons.

Each Negro returned to his home, picked up his gun and stood facing each other a gravel street apart and fired.

Bester shooting with a 12 gauge double barrel shotgun missed Curry entirely. Curry did not repay the courtesy. He sprinkled Bester with squirrel shot.

Both men were charged by the West Monroe police with aggravated assault.

Bester was carried to Charity Hospital where he will remain overnight for treatment and then be transferred to the West Monroe jail.

DEATH HASTENED BY FAILURE OF OPERATION

Argentina Mourns Passing Of Colorful First Lady

BUENOS AIRES, July 26 (AP)—Mrs. Eva Peron, Argentina's blonde first lady and non - official political power in the regime of President Juan D. Peron, died tonight after a lingering illness. Her age was listed officially as 30.

She never recovered fully from an operation performed here last November with a New York cancer specialist in attendance.

The cause of death was not confirmed as cancer, however, during her long illness.

The Argentina national radio announced in a nation-wide broadcast that she died at 8:25 p.m.

The dynamic wife of president Peron who worked hard both at being glamorous and at swaying the nation's "descamisados" (shirtless ones), was perhaps the most powerful woman in Western Hemisphere domestic politics.

Argentina's first lady challenged Argentine tradition that the woman's place was in the home, but was woman-like enough to conceal her age. Argentina's Who's Who listed her birth date as May 7, 1922, but she was believed to be three years older than that.

A poor, untutored provincial girl whose romance blossomed into political power, she was a real-life Cinderella for millions of workers, nursing mothers and hovel - dwellers whose adulation propelled her calculating star.

Her soaring rise was cut short last fall by an illness described by her doctors as acute anemia On Nov. 6 she underwent a major operation after an examination by an eminent cancer and tumor specialist, Dr. George Pack of New York.

The specific condition that made the operaion necessary was never announced and the same mystery surrounded it that attached to many phases of her career.

Mrs. Peron resumed her public appearances on February, but her heavy program of activities never was fully resumed.

Since June 20 the public had been prepared for bad news concerning her. Then the Ministry of Education requested all teachers and pupils to pray for her recovery.

On July 9, a government spokesman announced that her condition was unsatisfactory and disclosed she had been ordered to take a complete rest.

The Peronista-dominated House of Representatives on June 26 voted unanimously to erect a costly monument to her in downtown Buenos Aires. In three weeks of discussions, 59 deputies eulogized the wife of the President.

Evita (Little Eva), as the people called her, was the daughter of a poor Basque mother and Argentine father, Juan Duarte. Her father died when she was a child, and she left her three sisters and brother in her home village in Buenos Aires Province when she was in her teens to seek fame as an actress in the nation's capital.

She won several small bit parts in movies and finally landed a job as a radio actress at about $45 a month.

At one of the studio parties she met Peron in the fall of 1943 when he was minister of labor and the rising "strong man" in the military government. They were married secretly in October, 1945, when Peron became an avowed candi-

King Farouk Abdicates Throne; Plans Trip To U. S.

CAIRO, Egypt, July 26 (AP)—King Farouk I abdicated his ancient throne in favor of his 7-month-old son, Crown Prince Ahmed Fuad, under the pressures of an Army cleanup campaign today and sailed without his family into exile aboard his royal yacht.

The troops of Lt. Gen. Mohammed Naguib Bey, Egypt's new strong man as the Army's self-proclaimed commander in chief, surrounded the royal estates and arrested a number of Royal Guard officers in the showdown at the Rasel Tin Palace in Alexandria, Egypt's summer capital.

Street crowds applauded the outcome. Groups formed everywhere, clapping their hands happily, as the news spread.

The Army said Farouk, a fabulously wealthy ex-playboy, sailed into the Mediterranean alone aboard his yacht Mahroussa. He is going to Italy, perhaps eventually to the United States. His 18-year-old Queen Narriman, and the Crown Prince stayed behind.

Queen Narriman said she wished to follow Farouk into exile, but was prevented from doing so because "she must take care of the baby crown prince and help bring him up."

The monarch had advance no-

Price Daniel Leads Race For Senate

DALLAS, July 26 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Price Daniel took an early lead in a three-man race for the U. S. Senate seat of retiring Tom Connally tonight.

Returns to the Texas election bureau at 8 p.m. EST showed: Daniel 3,490: Rep. Lindley Beckworth 2,405; and E. W. Napier, Wichita Falls lawyer, 189.

Martin Dies was leading a field of seven for Texas' new and 22nd seat in Congress with 3,369 votes to 924 for John Lee Smith, former lieutenant governor. The other five candidates had a total of 1,360.

Gov. Allan Shivers, seeking re-election, was leading 3,695 for Mrs. Allene Traylor, San Antonio housewife.

NATL. GUARD TO GO TO CAMP POLK

Groups From 40 Louisiana Towns To Be Included In Delegations

Louisiana's 5,500 National Guardsmen were today stepping up their activities during regular armory drill periods in 40 cities and towns throughout the state in anticipation of their annual movement to Camp Polk for 15 days of real soldiering under field conditions.

All this week and most of next week the Guardsmen will be rolling field packs, putting their weapons in good firing condition, servicing their powerful new personnel and cargo trucks and trailers, scouring field kitchen equipment, and reviewing detailed supply and training plans.

The entire 39th infantry division, consisting of both Louisiana and Arkansas troops; the 204th AAA group of the Louisiana Guard; all non-divisional separate units, and the Louisiana and Arkansas headquarters and headquarters detachments will join in the training August 3-17 at North Camp Polk.

The 39th infantry division is commanded by Maj. Gen. Joseph A. Redding of Shreveport. The 204th AAA group is commanded by Col. Francis C. Grevemberg of New Orleans.

Col. Frank G. Spiess, assistant Louisiana adjutant general, said the adjutant general's office at New Orleans will also move to Camp Polk for the annual field training encampment.

Colonel Spiess said that 144 enlisted men and three officers will move into Camp Polk early next week to attend a pre - camp cook school conducted by the fourth army July 30 to August 2 to insure Louisiana's Guardsmen that they'll have plenty of wholesome, well - cooked meals during the rugged field training period.

The troop movements from every part of Louisiana to Camp Polk will commence around dawn on Sunday morning, August 3rd, by hundreds of guard trucks, jeeps and trailers, by rail, and by scores of commercial passenger busses. Before dark that day the thousands of Guardsmen will have moved into their barracks, unloaded their supplies, established communications systems, set up orderly rooms, put their mess halls in operation and by the next morning be ready to take to the firing ranges and maneuver areas for real soldering.

This year, training will be largely on a small unit basis at platoon and company level and will stress individual and unit tactical readiness in the light of recent experience.

Combat veterans of the Korean fighting will add their know-how to the training this year.

PHOTOGENIC IN FOURTH WEEK

Winner Will Get Trip And Will Be Showered With Gifts

The fourth week of the Miss Photogenic contest began today with the number of contestants well over a 100.

Larry Robinson, owner of Larry Robinson's studio, fifth floor of the Bernhardt building, urged all young ladies between the ages of 18 and 30, married or single, who were interested in entering the contest to do so at once in order to avoid the last minute rush.

The young woman from the Twin Cities or northeast Louisiana who is named Miss Photogenic will be showered with prizes and a pleasant trip to New Orleans via Delta Airlines. While in New Orleans Miss Photogenic will be the guest of the St. Charles hotel and many excursions have been planned in her honor.

MATTIE MAE FISHER

The Miss Photogenic contest is open to every young lady. All she has to do is go to Larry Robinson's studio and have her picture made. The contestant will not receive a print of the picture since it will be given to the Monroe News-Star — World for publication. Not all pictures will be published because of the large number of contestants.

Many Monroe merchants have also donated gifts to be presented to Miss Photogenic. The merchants and the gifts which they will give are as follows: Leon's Beauty Salon, shampoo, set and manicure; Silverstein's, nylon slip; Peacock's exquisite pearl necklace; Tem Theater, two weeks of free passes; Mary's Flower Shop, corsage; Virginia Pharmacy, box of candy; Cannon's Drug, a Max Factor set; Mangel's, pair of nylon hose; Monroe airport, free sightseeing tour over Monroe; Hollywood restaurant, a free dinner; Larry Robinson's studio, life size oil portrait.

The Monroe Morning World is an independent newspaper. It prints the news impartially. It supports what it believes to be right. It opposes what it believes to be wrong, without regard to party politics.

Barbarous Communism

Intelligence Digest, a British publication which specializes in information from agents behind the iron curtain, prints this dispatch from Hungary:

"One of the most tragic aspects of last year's mass deportations has now become known. Children were not allowed to accompany their parents. They were put under state guardianship. Some of them are now being sent to Russia, where all trace of them is lost; some are being put into state educational institutions. There they receive a wholly Communist education. Religion and conventional morality are banned and ridiculed. Any show of religion leads to severe punishment.

"The names of the younger children are changed. Any documentary evidence of identity is destroyed.

"This policy of creating party children, without homes tradition or religion, is now to be extended. Under a recent decree 160,000 farmers with their wives are to be drafted into industry—mostly outside Hungary. These deported persons will not be allowed to take their children with them. The state will assume responsibility for them.

"Now that this has become known, parents are desperate. Many children are being tattooed in the hope that they can thus be reidentified when the Communist regime collapses."

This is as cruel a practice as the human race has ever witnessed. The only hopeful phase is that such callousness to human decency will win the hatred of the victims it degrades.

Killing For Publicity

It seems like a waste of time and effort of moralize on the case of the Boston man who shot to death a young woman clerk at Columbia University he had never seen before because he "just wanted to kill someone."

The man, previously designated a crackpot by authorities, carefully armed himself and went out to murder. He had a fancied wrong against the educational institution because it had refused to pay attention to a thesis he had written on "How to Live Forever." His victim was the first person he met when he entered the building.

Frustration may have entered into his actions, but what he was seeking was publicity. He wanted his picture on the front pages of the newspapers. And he was pictured there, smirking as though he was proud of his achievement. He declared in his confession that he first intended to kill a newspaper editor.

The world has many similar characters. Most of them are harmless, but many are obsessed by a desire to kill. Unfortunately, nothing can be done about them until they actually commit a crime. The desired publicity is attained, then they take the last 13 steps and are forgotten by a society which has paid another installment on its failure to care for the mentally ill.

Interesting Ads

Figures by Editor and Publisher, newspaper trade magazine, show that advertising volume in the daily newspapers of the country is holding at the record mark set a year ago. It is more than double the figure of 15 years ago, when some dire predictions were made that other advertising mediums would cut into the newspapers' share of the advertising dollar.

Not only is the amount of space devoted to advertisements in the average newspaper equal to that of a year ago, but the ads are mighty interesting reading. There is less scarcity of merchandise than was the case in 1951, and prices have not advanced in the meantime. This is a good time to read the ads and to make needed purchases, merchandise men say.

In fact, one department store executive in New York City expresses the opinion that today may be the best opportunity the buyer will have for years. He does not look for lower prices than those prevailing today, but on the contrary expects prices to increase in the next year or two.

This is a viewpoint that seems to be based on practical considerations. With manufacturing costs increasing as wages mount higher and higher, price declines could come only in the event of a general economic depression. No business analyst today forecasts such an occurrence in the foreseeable future.

Thus not only are today's advertisements interesting, the chance is strong that—compared to the future price level—they offer genuine bargains.

Coal Is Tailored

An officer of the American Mining Congress recently forecast a bright future for the coal industry. He pointed out that new developments in mining equipment and techniques are doing much to hold down production costs. Research is constantly enlarging the uses and values of coal by-products. It is also improving combustion methods—which means more efficient and economical use of coal at the consuming end.

Most of think that coal is just coal, and that that's the end of the matter. Quite the reverse is true nowadays. Coal is tailored to fit many kinds of varying needs. As an example, in the past four years the number of coal preparation plants in this country has greatly increased. These plants wash, size, grade and treat coal to meet each consumer's specifications. Last year 42 per cent of all coal produced was mechanically cleaned— an impressive figure when it is realized that coal from many mines needs no cleaning whatsoever. Today industry can get from 10 to 40 per cent more power from each ton of coal than was possible only a few years back.

Coal is one of the most ancient of industries — but in its work it is as modern as this morning. It has kept up with the march of progress and it has served us magnificently. Every consumer gets not only the quantity of coal he wants, but the quality and particular kind he wants. In the future, as in the past and present, coal's role in our national life will be a great one.

George E. Sokolsky:

THESE DAYS

THE NEW INFLUENCES

In both the Republican and Democratic conventions a phenomenon appeared which is far-reaching and may alter the nature of the parties.

In the Rpublican Party the Dewey power was employed to establish authority within the party. Every effort was and is being made by the Dewey forces to read out of the party most of the leadership that has held the Republicans together since 1932. Herbert Hoover, General Douglas MacArthur, Colonel Robert R. McCormick, Senators Taft, Dirksen, McCarthy and most of the senators who would chair important committees in the Congress if Eisenhower swept the country are to be subordinated to the judgment of outsiders like Paul Hoffman, General Lucius Clay, who is a Democrat, and Winthrop Aldrich.

Of course this will not happen. The Republicans will have to find a basis for mechanical unity or the Democrats will be elected, no matter how divided they are. The reason is that actually the Democrats are now most effective in what used to be Republican states. The Republicans will not detract the CIO-PAC from the Democrats.

On the other hand, the Dewey position is that the old guard is an incubus and that the Republican Party would be better off without it. Dewey is particularly antagonistic to Herbert Hoover, who aided Dewey in every national campaign. In 1948, had it not been for Hoover's influence, Dewey might not have been nominated at all; a deadlock would have ensued and someone else, Vandenberg or Stassen, might have been nominated.

The desire to rid the Republican Party of its older leadership is paralleled in the Democratic Party by the desire of the ADA Fabian Socialists to rid the Democratic Party of its traditional Democrats. Senators Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, Blair Moody of Michigan, Herbert Lehman of New York, William Benton of Connecticut, who demanded and put over the purging loyalty resolution, would rid their party of such leaders as the Vice President, Alben Barkley, Governor James Byrnes, Jim Farley, Speaker Rayburn, Senator Harry Byrd, Governor Shivers of Texas, Governor Herman Talmadge of Georgia, and practically speaking, the entire Southern delegation to Congress.

They were on the verge of success on Tuesday night, but wiser counsel required that their purging resolution be toned down. It is interesting to note that when Senator Benton of Connecticut made his speech, he was hardly applauded at any time and it looked as though he left the rostrum with his tail between his legs. Benton, who used to be an advertising man for big business, has suddenly turned himself into a left-wing Democrat.

The quickie slogan makers have been speculating upon whether these two conventions do not spell the end of an era. This is, it seems to me, a premature historic judgment. Eras end on events, not because younger and ambitious men seek to move into line. In both conventions, junior politicians wearied of biding their time project themselves into power.

The ADA has sought power since Franklin D. Roosevelt formed his alliance with organized labor in his first term. Jack Kroll, who could not be elected a full delegate from Ohio but came to the convention as an alternate, is the political genius of their group, in spite of the fact that he failed to keep Robert A. Taft out of the Senate. In the Republican Party, however, Herbert Brownell and Tom Stephens, the men who did Dewey's work, are not idealists. They are political technicians. Had Dewey supported Taft instead of Eisenhower, they would have tried to do for Taft what they did for Eisenhower.

No one can ignore the vast dissatisfactions in both parties. The so-called new Republicans and the ADA among the Democrats are of a generation that has evidently wearied of the restraints of American tradition. They are closer to each other than they are to those who have prevailed in either party during the past 30 years. They need a party of their own and should have it. They represent in the United States the same concepts as the Labor Party in England.

And the conservatives in both parties, for instance Taft and Byrd, need a party of their own, but no third party is likely to come into existence this year, although the demand for it is increasing. (Copyright, 1952, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Social Students Meet To Be Well Attended

BATON ROUGE, July 26.—(Special)— About 250 teachers and school administrators are expected to attend the social studies conference at Louisiana State University this week.

The two-day conference begins Thursday, July 31. It is being sponsored by the L. S. U. College of Education and the Louisiana division of the National Ass'n. of Social Studies.

Two phases of the conference will seek to improve pupil-teacher planning and social study skills among the social study personnel attending.

Dr. William H. Cartwright, the chairman of the department of education at Duke University, is the featured conference speaker. On the first day of the conference he will give a demonstration of teacher - pupil planning.

IN HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, July 26. — I like to make action pictures and I like them to have plenty of action. As a result, I guess I've got as many scars as any man in Hollywood, because it's up to the star of an action film to do as many of his own stunts as he can. This doesn't mean I'd look forward to parachuting out of a plane for the cameras or taking on any really hazardous stunt that might leave me in a plaster cast for a long time. But when it comes to fist fights, sword fights, leaps and plunges and all the various types of muscular activity that go into a good bang-up action picture, I like to do the job myself.

This does not stem from vanity. There are a lot of stunts that I either can't do or the studio won't let me do. They won't let me take a fall from a fast - moving horse because the chances that I'd break my neck, which would do neither the picture, the studio nor me any good. But I'm an actor and if the script calls for me to fight, duel, jump or climb, then I want to do it if I possibly can. The primary reason is that when you do your own stunts you're going to give a better performance. You can change, you can improvise, you can improve during the course of the action itself, both in rehearsal and before the camera. When I do a stunt myself it has a real value to me. If someone else should do it, it would seem a synthetic thing as far as my own ability and desire to act are concerned. In other words, I'm more of an actor when I do the acting myself, even though my back's to the camera.

Of course, you pay a price for this sort of artistic integrity — and I hope that doesn't sound pompous because I don't mean it to be. Every once in a while you'll take a sock in the jaw or a bump on the head or some sort of injury from a sprained ankle to a concussion. I got more than my usual share of cuts, scratches, bumps, bruises and contusions on "The Iron Mistress" at Warner Bros. In this picture I play Jim Bowie, the famous knife fighter, pioneer, adventurer and all - around tough cookie who invented the Bowie knife. I was involved in more than a dozen fights of one kind of another in this picture and I was right in the middle of all of them.

"The Iron Mistress" is chock-full of action and we might use it as an example of what an actor in an action picture goes through.

About the second day of the picture I dueled with Ned Young. It took place in a dark room, illuminated only by a skylight, and I fought with a knife while Ned used a sword. The hazards of this kind of jousting with cold steel are bad enough on a well - lighted set. In a pretty dark room, it is wise to be mighty careful. Well, I was, but not careful enough. I got knicked on the ear and the right arm. I progressed through a few fist fights and then came a brawl with Richard Carlyle and Dick Paxton. They play my brothers in the picture but the scene had us playing a little rough back on the old farm. Before we got through, I banged my knee on a tree and had to be taken to a doctor's office for X-rays. It wasn't broken but I limped for a few days, during which time they shot around me.

Out on location at the Warner ranch, we had to do a scene which involved my leaping from a river bank onto the backs of two heavies who are looking for me with murderous intent. Now I could have scrambled down that bank, but Jim Bowie wouldn't have done it that way. I flew out into the air and down on the villains. I guess I was about the last of the three to get my breath back, but I was proud of that stunt.

By the time the last day of the picture arrived, I was in pretty bad shape. I was cut and bruised, my knee hurt, my back hurt and so did my side. That last injury was received during what I thought would be a pretty simple stunt, which just goes to show. All I did was fall down when someone shot me. Somehow, in trying to break my fall, I put my hand under me. Only I had it doubled up into a fist and my ribs were the first to make contact with it. Off to the doctor's another X-ray, but again, fortunately, nothing broken.

Anyway, the last day of the picture arrived and I thought I'd get by without any further damage. It was a scene in which I stick a knife into a tree. The knife caromed off the tree and I whacked it with my fist. Back to the doctor's again and more X-rays. This time I wasn't so lucky. My hand was really broken and required a cast for several weeks. So I can truthfully say "The Iron Mistress" was a three X-ray picture for me.

Naturally, I don't like to get banged around and hurt any more than the next fellow. But it's all part of the business. It probably isn't any more dangerous than taking a jaunt by car through Los Angeles traffic.

THOUGHTS

Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.—Deut. 4:6.

A people that studies its own past, and rejoices in the nation's proud memories, is likely to be a patriotic people, the bulwark of law, and the courageous champion of right in the hour of need. - Joseph Anderson.

Mrs. Jaffe Attends Rosicrucian Meeting

Mrs. Ruth Jaffe has returned from San Jose, Calif., where she was a delegate at the Rosicrucian convention, held in San Jose at the International Supreme Temple, in Rosicrucian Park.

Mrs. Jaffe stated this was her first meeting with this inspiring organization and was most enthusiastic in relating her impressions.

HAVE VALIDITY

ST. LOUIS (AP)— Take it from Arthur A. Rausch, assistant weatherman here, "the oldtime sailors and farmers who made up those weather rhymes knew what they were talking about in a surprising number of cases."

This one, for example: "If clouds be bright it wil clear tonight, if clouds be dark 'twill rain, do you har?" This rhyme worked out perfectly, Rausch says, in two early July forecasts here by substituting cumulus clouds for "bright" and strato cumulus for "dark."

"The ancients might not have known these scientific terms, but Rausch explains that such forecasting methods were based often an accurate observation than on superstition.

Here's another: "Rainbows at night, sailor's delight, rainbow in morning, sailor take warning." This one is generally true, Rausch says, since rainbows indicate which way bad weather is moving.

Rausch says even the one about hurting corns meaning rain has validity. Atmospheric pressure changes cause some person's corns to act up.

What Others Say

EDITORS' ROUNDTABLE

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARIES

The large majority of editors, while favoring some system of nationwide, presidential primaries, feels that such primaries cannot replace national party conventions, and that primary candidate preferences should be binding on convention delegates for only so long as a delegate's state may provide. ...A rather large minority, fearing federal control through federal aid, argues that the separate states can provide a satisfactory system of primaries without federal legislation. But the majority view is that at least some form of federal coordination is required to achieve the uniformity necessary for effective primaries.

St. Louis (Mo.) Post Dispatch (Ind.-Dem.): "Most of the proponents of this major reform apparently favor the plan submitted to Congress by Senator Douglas and Representative Bennett. This would have Washington help each state to meet the expenses of a popular pre - convention vote. Such a test would not be binding on the party conventions, but it is hard to imagine the delegates going against the expressed preference of a majority of all the Republicans or all the Democrats in the country. ... Senator Smathers wants to go even farther and submit a constitutional amendment calling for binding, direct presidential primaries."

Fort Worth (Texas) Star - Telegram (Ind.-Dem.): "Both these proposed methods have their advantages, although the constitutional amendment procedure would offer the greater certainty of uniformity in the primaries of the various states. Uniformity is one of the prime needs of such a system, provided it is uniformity that makes sure the choice expressed by the voters prevails. It matters not so much whether a national nominating convention is held by the various parties as that the choice of the voters be binding upon the delegates to such conventions."

Washington (D. C.) News (Ind.): "Primary elections in all of the states, for the selection of delegations to the national conventions, such as have been proposed in many quarters, would be a vast improvement over the prevailing arrangement. ... Primaries probably could not be made a complete substitute for the national conventions. Preferential voting by states probably would not indicate a clear majority for any candidate in many cases. Conventions would be necessary, too, to adopt the party platforms and to maintain the party identity."

Wichita (Kans.) Eagle (Ind.): "Senator Douglas backs a bill to permit the attorney general to make financial agreements under certain conditions with states willing to hold presidential primaries. ... Under the Douglas plan the primary would be financed by the federal government up to 20 cents for each voter. An objection to that would be that the federal government would then want to make all the rules, cutting the states out. ... There are plenty of problems to be ironed out in connection with such a primary."

Pensacola (Fla.) Journal (Ind.-Dem.): "A step to encourage presidential primaries was taken by a senate committee when it reported favorably a bill making federal funds available for presidential primaries in states which adopt them. ... The bill calls for the attorney general to certify candidates' names on petition by 500 qualified voters in each of three - fourths of the states. ... The states could settle other details, such as how long a favorable vote for a candidate should be considered binding on the delegates."

Cleveland (Ohio) Plain Dealer (Ind. - Dem.): "The Constitution leaves to the individual states the power to determine how the elections in each shall be conducted. ... We believe direct participation of voters of every state in selecting presidential candidates can be achieved without constitutional amendment or federal legislation, if both major parties will openly and squarely declare themselves in favor of presidential primaries and call upon legislators in the states that are deficient in this respect to pass the necessary legislation."

Charlotte (N. C.) News (Ind. - Dem.): "The convention system lends itself to abuse by party bosses. Yet Abraham Lincoln, Grover Cleveland, Teddy Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson and Franklin Roosevelt were products of the convention system, just as were William McKinley, Warren Harding, and Harry Truman. . .Nationwide primaries will not be a major improvement unless (1) all states hold them at the same time and under the same rules, (2) all candidates are entered in all primaries, and (3) a larger cross-section of the voting population participates."

IN HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD —(NEA)— Exclusively Yours: Shelve those rumors about a big feud between Donald O'Connor and Gene Kelly over Donald's scissored scenes in "Singin' in the Rain." Donald, who isn't wailin' in the California sun, told me:

"How can I be angry at a guy for giving me the best break of my career?"

Now it can be told: Hollywood studio heads killed the pre-nomination campaign razzle-dazzle for Eisenhower. Reason: Fear of incurring the displeasure of Gov. Earl Warren, who has been a good friend to the movie industry. But watch for the I-Like-Ike ballyhoo, with the town's Hedys and Lanas as pom-pom girls.

U-I's sexy, blonde Mari Blanchard is due for a Marilyn Monroe build-up. But she's also warming up as a threat to Shelley Winters —if Shelley gets difficult again. . . . Is MGM's "Lili" the true life story of Fran Allison and Burr Tilstrom of TV fame?. . . Hollywood lensers got the "No pictures, please" order from Hedy Lamarr when they tried to flashbulb her with wealthy Howard Lee. . . Steve Crane, Lana Turner's ex, will be receiving his freedom within two months as the result of a civil divorce suit filed in France by Martine Carol.

Dye Vats Churn

It's type-changing time for Hollywood's glamor babes to put new zip into the box-office, and the dye vats are churning to the tune of "I'm gonna wash that color right out of my hair."

Yesterday's brunets are today's blondes and yesterday's blondest star of them all, classic-faced Vera Ralston, now has tresses of midnight blue.

But that's only part of Vera's transformation for Republic's "Fair Wind to Java." It's a sexy, half-caste role for the star with a wardrobe of sarongs, exotic jewelry, dark make-up, a slinky walk and the character name of "Kim-Kim."

"I'll never be a blonde again," says Vera, who is beaming:

"People I've worked with for 10 years look at me and say, 'Gosh, you have blue eyes.' You know something—I was born with blue eyes."

Hattie MacDaniel, ailing for almost a year is telling friends she expects to be up and about this fall and well enough to resume her radio role of "Beulah." No TV, though . . . The word is out that David Niven, Diana Lynn and Scott Brady, who head the cast of "The Moon Is Blue" at La Jolla, will also be the stars of the movie version. . .Current gag: Warner Bros.' new slogan will be: "Combining good fires with good picture making."

Low Chimp On Totem Pole

Tamba, the chimp, has been signed for three more "Jungle Jim" films with Johnny Weissmuller. Like other temperamental stars, the chimp's contract specifies third billing after Johnny and his feminine co-star.

There's no mistaking Spike Jones' new Cad in traffic. It's equipped with a fog horn, coach bell, diesel horn, .45 caliber pistol that fires blanks and a CO2 tank that gives him a simulated jet takeoff.

There have been no further reconciliation talks between Mona Freeman and Pat Nerney since she abruptly withdrew her divorce suit a few days ago. But there's a chance they'll try it again. Working in "The Murder" at RKO, Mona told me:

"Pat's going to Europe this summer. Time may solve our differences. I think we both believe our child is more important than a lousy divorce."

Paula Stone and Mike Sloan are still snubbing movie offers for their Broadway hit, "Top Banana." They may film the show independently when it reaches the west coast next summer. Phil Silvers has been set for the national company.

Jim Backus says his wife Henny is so extravagant she goes to drive-in theaters in taxicabs.

IN WASHINGTON

Peter Edson

CHICAGO — (NEA) — Among the highlights of the Democratic National Convention was a revolt of young and heady Northen liberals, determined to end the domination of the old-time Southern conservatives.

The young Yankee leaders of this revolt were Sen. Blair Moody of Michigan, Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., of New York, ex-Price Administrator Mike DiSalle of Ohio, Rep. Chet Holafield of California, and ex-Assistant Secretary of the Army Archibald Alexander of New Jersey.

They were ably backed by a couple of young Southerners, Gov. Gordon Browning of Tennessee and State Sen. A. L. Patterson of Alabama, both supporters of the candidacy of Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

As the two-hour drama of the long night session unfolded in the Chicago Stockyards Amphitheater, the ruthlessness of the Northern group, supporting Moody's resolution requiring a loyalty pledge for all convention delegates, was apparent at all times. They had the votes and they had the power and they used them without mercy.

Jonathan Daniels of North Carolina, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer and one of the great liberals of the new South, made a desperate plea for moderation with his substitute motion. It would have merely cited an honorable course for convention delegates in supporting the party's nominees, without requiring the sterner Moody loyalty pledge. But the Yankee horsemen rode Daniels down. And a majority of the delegates supported their action.

There is no question but that the Moody-Roosevelt forces had the support of President Harry S. Truman for their course of action. National Committee Chairman Frank A. McKinney would have stopped their drive if it had not had White House blessing. Gov. Paul A. Dever of Massachusetts, presiding as temporary chairman after delivering his keynote speech, joined in the proceedings to bang his gavel and make rulings that facilitated passage of the Moody resolution.

It was a night of revenge for Harry S. Truman. In this one action he paid back the Southern conservatives for the hundreds of times they have blocked his Fair Deal and filibustered his civil rights program.

This was the break with the past. States' rights were trampled under foot in the convention stampede. The inference was clear that if the Southerners didn't like what was going on, they could lump it.

There was little apparent regard for the consequences. If this action split the Democratic party wide open. And if it lost the November elections to Eisenhower and the Republicans, that was all right, too. In a way, the young liberals seemed to be daring the old Southerners to get out of their party.

If this bull-headedness of Moody, dealing with the Southern minority seemed ruthless, that is only one side of the story. Any fair appraisal of this touchy situation must recognize that some of the Southern state delegations were all prepared to take a walk from the Chicago convention if its proceedings were not to their liking.

This was the threat and the bluff which Southerners have been holding over the heads of the Northern Democratic states and chieftains for years. The Moody resolution simply called this bluff and forced the issue to a showdown.

Realizing that they were in the minority, the Southern leaders at Chicago this year showed signs of wanting to compromise on nearly every facet of the civil rights and state's rights issue.

All the Southerners asked this year was a program that they could get the people in their states to accept for the gradual elimination of racial discrimination. But the Northern liberals would have none of that gradualism. They wanted everything—now.

If this action does not mark the birth of a newer, much more liberal Democratic party, it at least marks the death of the old one as it was. And it paves the way for a complete political realignment in the United States.

PTA WORKSHOP SET ON CAMPUS

BATON ROUGE, July 26.—(Special)—The fourth annual Parent Education Workshop for school administrators, teachers and parents will be held Aug. 6-8 at Louisiana State University.

The conference is being sponsored by the L. S. U. general extension division and college of education in cooperation with the Louisiana Parent - Teacher Association. It is designed for those interested in studying the needs, purposes, activities, and leadership practices in parent and teacher education.

Director of the conference is Dr. Mildred I. Morgan of the department of home and family life at Florida State University. She is consultant of parent education of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers and is nationally known for her work as director of parent - education workshops.

William J. McGlothlin, specialist in leadership training from Atlanta, Ga., will serve as workshop leader. He and his wife were leaders at the 1951 workshop.

About 75 are expected to attend the meetings which will be held in Hatcher Hall

OUTLOOK GOOD FOR TELEVISION

Monroe Is In A-2 Priority Classification, Rotarians Told

The outlook for television in Monroe is encouraging, Paul Goldman, general manager and vice president of KNOE, told Rotarians at their weekly luncheon meeting at the Virginia Hotel.

Construction permits for 18 television stations have been issued by the federal communications commission since July 1, the deadline for processing applications.

Monroe is in the A2 priority classification which includes cities and towns with a specified minimum population and which have no television service, he explained.

Application for television construction in Monroe has been filed by KNOE and Delta, comprising Howard Griffin, J. O. "Red" Willett and Maurice Glazer.

Construction grants from the FCC should be received by September, Goldman said. Denver, Colo., has received three permits, Spokane, Wash., two, Portland, Ore., one, and New England states several. The freeze on station construction was lifted in April. No southern states have been given permits.

If television construction is granted to the two Monroe applicants, KNOE will be on channel 8, VHF and Delta, the other station, will be on channel 43, UHF. A channel on television is comparable to a wave length on radio, Goldman explained during a general discussion following his talk.

The radio station, KNOE, will remain the same even if the construction permit is given. In that event, it will mean the addition of KNOE-TV.

If only one permit is granted to Monroe, the television station will have access to four major broadcasting networks. Should both applicants receive rights for construction, each station may have programs from two major networks.

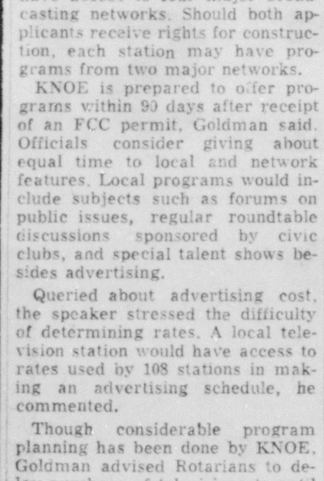
KNOE is prepared to offer programs within 90 days after receipt of an FCC permit, Goldman said. Officials consider giving about equal time to local and network features. Local programs would include subjects such as forums on public issues, regular roundtable discussions sponsored by civic clubs, and special talent shows besides advertising.

Queried about advertising cost, the speaker stressed the difficulty of determining rates. A local television station would have access to rates used by 108 stations in making an advertising schedule, he commented.

Though considerable program planning has been done by KNOE, Goldman advised Rotarians to delay purchase of televisionsets until the FCC grants permission for construction of a local station. There is no shortage of sets, he commented. Some of these offer a combination of radio and television.

Goldman was presented by Robert Butz, chairman of Rotary's public information committee.

TO GO TO GERMANY



Pfc. James R. Mayo, son of Mrs. T. E. Mayo, 609 North Fifth street, West Monroe, will leave for duty with the 39th Signal Support Battalion, in Germany on August 2. He returned to Camp Gordon, Ga., recently after spending a ten-day furlough with his family in West Monroe. Mayo has been in the service since March of 1950.

POLIO OUTBREAKS RISING IN LA.

NEW ORLEANS, July 26 (AP) — Polio cases in Louisiana and Mississippi have already reached highs for this time of the year and threaten to set new records, according to National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis chapters in Jackson and New Orleans.

Hardest hit areas are the south Louisiana parishes and a 10-county in west central Mississippi.

There were 255 cases reported in Mississippi on July 18, compared with only 103 on the same date in 1951. Louisiana had 353 cases up until July 21 and 275 had been reported in the same period last year.

The 10-county area in Mississippi most affected has 145 out of the 255-total. So far 57 counties in Mississippi have reported polio cases.

In Louisiana, 295 of the 353 cases reported have been in the south Louisiana parishes.

The record for the nation shows 5,406 cases for the period from April 5—the start of the "disease year"—to July 19. This is ahead of the 5,313 reported in the record year of 1949 and 3,251 in the same period last year.

Louisiana was second in the nation for new cases for the week of July 19 with 83 reported. Texas led with 243, but that figure was a drop from the 296 of the previous week.

The National Foundation considers July, August and September the heaviest months for infantile paralysis.

In the eight parish area served by the Lafayette,La., polio center there have been nearly as many cases reported thus far as the parishes had all last year, 36, compared with a 1951 total of 37.

This is typical of the south Louisiana parishes.

The north Louisiana parishes — hit hard by polio in 1951—show fewer cases than last year.

Caddo Parish, where the Shreveport polio center is located, has only about a third as many cases reported as in 1951.

Other areas in the two states reported fewer cases than last year, but the overall picture shows a large increase.

Hinds County, Miss., with 48 cases up until July 25, was far ahead of the rest of the state. Nearby Washington County had 21, Warren and Tallahatchie each had 18 and Yazoo 15.

The only county out of the west central Mississippi area showing more than six cases was Harrison on the Gulf Coast with 10.

The Mississippi polio centers are located at Vicksburg, two hospitals have facilities there, and some patients are in Memphis, Tenn.

V. T. Anthony, Mississippi state representative for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said that the county chapters of the National Foundation are underwriting the cost of the care at the rate of $1,500 a day. A total of $119,100 in March of Dimes epidemic aid money was sent to the 26 hardest hit counties.

Louisiana has received a large amount of aid from the National Foundation's emergency equipment pools said F. Owen Grace, Louisiana representative.

Grace listed 32 respirators, nine hot pack machines, eight rocking beds, 24 cribs and mattresses and five suction machines to supplement equipment on hand at the four Louisiana polio centers. The Louisiana centers are in Shreveport, Alexandria, Baton Rouge and New Orleans.

Grace said 28 parishes received advances of $117,525 from national headquarters to assure continued treatment of the patients when their own funds were exhausted.

Nine nurses and three physical therapists have been recruited to handle the emergency, he said.

date for president.

Snubbed by many of Argentina's aristocrats when she went to the Casa Rosada (Pink House), the President's palace, in 1946, Eva Peron in turn scorned "society" and set out on a glittering path of power.

Outwardly, she was the faithful helpmate. Peron, she said, was "the great condor of the Andes; I am only one of a huge flock of sparrows."

Actually, she controlled many newspapers, all of which faithfully extolled the President.

She maintained offices in the Ministry of Labor where she kept a careful eye on policies.

She headed the multi-million Social Aid Foundation which dispensed the voluntary and involuntary contributions of millions of Argentine workers and businessmen for hospitals, nursing homes, low-cost housing, disaster relief and clothing, and Christmas gifts to the needy.

She caled herself the lady bountiful, the lady of hope.

She helped engineer Peron social reforms, wage increases, workers' benefits.

She campaigned successfully to give Argentine women the vote, then organized the Peronista Woman's party whose chief offices she took for herself.

Riding roughshod over Argentine tradition, in which women only shortly before had been allowed to so much as vote, she almost became vice-president.

The Peron master labor organization staged an elaborate mass meeting in the capital in the summer of 1951. The General Confederation of Labor (CGT) ordered all work to stop so its five million members could attend. Mrs. Peron's Social Aid Foundation saw to it that the visitors were cared for. The government-owned railways gave them free transportation.

The huge demonstration called upon Peron and his wife to head the nation as president and vice-president — Argentina's government was to be a husband and wife regime.

But several days later, in a tearful broadcast, Mrs. Peron announced an "irrevocable decision to renounce the high honor."

It always was assumed that Argentina's military — alarmed at the idea of a "petticoat" commander - in - chief in event of Peron's death — had put its foot down.

A slim, intense figure with burning eyes and dramatic golden hair, Eva Peron reached the high point of her career with that episode.

In her famous radio speeches, she could shift from shrill invective to the throaty tones of the actress. She once declared:

"There is not an Evita without a Peron. But there is a Peron without an Evita and without everybody. Because Peron is only one. Peron is good for us and we cannot think about heaven without Peron. He is our sun, water and air. Peron is life to our country and people.

time some high tension electric wires touched about a half block away, that is when the fireworks began, flashes and sparks were flying like the 4th of July celebrations. (This happened about one hour before daylight, but believe me one would think it was high noon. All the people began running out of the houses screaming.

I jumped out of bed and reached for my pants, which I had hung on the dresser. (I still haven't learned to hang my clothes in their proper places) to my surprise no dresser; it was at the other end of the room. I bounced off the walls a couple of times and finally found my pants. I went outside as it was dying down. It lasted about three minutes, the longest three minutes I have ever known. It is quite a feeling to have the ground roll, rock and buckle under you.

I laughed at myself after it was all over, I thought at first it was the end of the world with all the lights flashing, the rumblings and screams. Then I heard a woman neighbor yell, "Help, we are having an earthquake, someone bring me a pair of pants.

Believe me, it is something I shall never forget. The news broadcasts predicted a possibility of another one tonight, at least, I will know what is happening next time.

F. M. Gates "the water man," is having a birthday at his home, 510 Clayton, West Monroe today form to 4 to 6 p. m. He declines to tell how many he has had thus far and also he specifies that it is to be an open house and gifts are barred.

The Ark of LeTourneau, a converted Navy craft, left Vicksburg yesterday.

This Ark, loaded with heavy equipment for jungle clearing and making it into rich farmland, will carry 12 missionaries who will teach modern farm methods and Christianity to the natives.

Millionaire Robert LeTourneau, of Longview, Tex., who is daddy of the idea, is interested in down to the minute farming and religion. He is rather eccentric in some ways but he has a big heart and a well directed purpose. He is said to turn back ino religious channels 80 cents of each dollar he makes.

KING

tice Friday of potential trouble in the anti-corruption drive when six high palace aides were forced to resign by the Army - backed government of Premier Aly Maher Pasha.

Naguib staged a lightning military coup Wednesday, pledging himself to root out corruption in the Egyptian government. He installed Maher Pasha as the Premier of his own choice. And today Maher Pasha talked twice to the 32-year-old Farouk. Finally came the official announcement from Army general headquarters that the King was through.

A Regency Council was set up to rule troubled Egypt until the crown prince, born last Jan. 16 to Farouk and the beauteous Narriman, comes of age. She is the daughter of an Egyptian civil servant, whom the King married May 6, 1951, for the avowed purpose of producing a male heir to succeed him.

The King' abdication climaxed a succession of government crises which followed the disastrous rioting and fires which swept Cairo last January at the height of fierce anti-British feeling. The country has had six different governments in this period.

In Cairo as well as Alexandria, tanks faced every entrance to the royal palaces. Field artillery pieces trained their muzzles directly at the main entrance of the Abdin Palace in Cairo. Armed soldiers stood almost shoulder to shoulder. Airplanes flew overhead in both capitals.

Gen. Naguib himself was in Alexandria with Premier Maher Pasha. The first time Maher Pasha entered Ras el Tin Palace to demand Farouk's abdication, he stayed 10 minutes. Then the Premier went into another huddle with his commander in chief. In his second call on Farouk, Maher Pasha remained 20 minutes.

Directly after the second call, U. S. Ambassador Jefferson Caffery drove to the palace and conferred with the King for 10 minutes. As he left, Caffery told newsmen "We discussed the situation." He declined to elaborate.

The French Press Agency said it had learned authoritatively that Farouk intends eventually to go to the United States. He will sail first to Europe, it said, and will proceed to the United States when necessary formalities are completed.

After Maher Pasha's conferences with Gen. Naguib, the Premier summoned Egypt's elder statesmen, who gave him assurances they would back him in whatever course he took.

of former state senator P. G. Kennedy of Oak Grove, seven persons are running. They are:

Dr. W. V. Garnilr, Bastrop; Allen Haley Kilbourne; N. Kelly McKoin, Morehouse parish; O. C. Noland, Bastrop, president of the Morehouse police jury; Vallery E. Rains, Bastrop; Dudley Seaman, Oak Grove; Hubert M. Sims, Mer Rouge.

In Ouachita parish elections will be held for parish school board in Wards four and five. One person will be elected in Ward four, out of the two contenders who are Lewis K. McQuiston and Marvin Shipp. The incumbent for the office, W. A. Calloway qualified but recently withdrew from the race.

Six persons in Ward five have entered the race for two posts, one which will consist of a six year term and the other a four year term. The candidates are Dale Cobb, Joe E. Johnson, Jack L. Joyner, J. G. McKeller, Jr., C. G. Wall, Jr., incumbent, and M. Ever-Warner.

Four wards in Ouachita parish filled their seats on the school board when the candidates for the posts had no opposition. The wards and school board members are as follows: Ward 3, Mrs. A. D. Tisdale, Ward 6, E. M. Finley, Ward 7, Chester P. Holloway, Ward 10, Wayne J. McDonald.

East Carroll parish will elect school board members in two wards. The vacancy in ward 3 which consists of Lake Providence proper, was due to the death of Edward B. Snyder. Candidates for this office are Mrs. Elsie B. Terral, Mrs. Marie Davis, Jack Hagle and John Hester. In Ward 7 of East Carroll there are two candidates for the seat. They are Morris Coleman and Lucy Martin.

Richland parish will fill three vacancies on its school board with the election Tuesday. In Ward two Lasley J. Downes and J. Herbert Sorey are candidates and in Ward 4 Mrs. Virginia Chapman, J. M. McKay and David C. Smith will vie for the seat. W. S. Stamper and Hubert D. Thomason are candidates for the post in Ward 7 of Richland parish.

Only two seats on the Madison parish school board will be filled in Tuesday's election. J. M. Gilfail and W. J. Wilson are candidates in Ward 5 and Larry R. Durr and Homer Pratt King will seek the office in Ward 6.

Credit Association began under the presidency of Andrew L. Sevier of Tallulah.

The secretary - treasurer of the organization, which has grown from the original 727 members in 1934 to 3,888 by June 30 of this year, cited figures to the group to point out the vast increase in both membership and financial backing. The association owns total assets amounting to $6,317,829.97 and has total liabilities of $5,251,026.16. This he said, gave a net worth of the organization of $1,066,803.81.

The net profit during the past year, the secretary - treasurer showed, amounted to $60,564.77.

Total loans made to members during the organization's 18 years of existence has amounted to $52,523,928, he said, with only .049 per cent or $25,788.19, marked off as losses to the organization during the same time.

The association served eleven parishes in northeast Louisiana. These are East Carroll, Madison, Tensas, Concordia, Catahoula, Franklin, Richland, West Carroll, Morehouse, Caldwell and the east half of Ouachita.

Serving as members of the board of directors are A. L. Sevier, A. T. Shields, J. C. Buie, J. H. Michie and N. W. McHenry. Sevier was re-elected to the board at the meeting.

Voelker, speaking on the "Future of the Production Credit System," told the group that production credit groups "definitely set the pattern of grants." He predicted a "continuous and steady growth of the credit associations" and added that he knew "what we have done in the last few years and I know what we can do in the future. I judge the future by the past realizing the fine men you have in charge of the organization and the fine members of the group."

In conclusion, Voelker said he "had no fear of the future" either for the production credit system or the agriculture in the area.

The state commissioner of agriculture, Dave L. Pearce, said the agricultural outlook for the state was "very bright." He said he "looked with confidence in the future" and predicted a conquest of bangs disease among cattle, which he said was comparatively high in the state in comparison with other states. Research, he said, has played a very large part in the elimination of the disease.

The commissioner said farm people will play a greater part in plans of both the state and nation "if the population continues to increase during the next ten years as it has in the past ten."

Pearce reiterated to the group that his department in the state government was organized for their convenience and service and urged them to take advantage of the services offered.

Another speaker, Fred L. Hurst, praised the group for their organization and urged them to work closer in order to insure their solvency in the future. He said the credit associations had aided 157,000 farm families to buy and operate their own land.

R. L. Gaines, director of the Tallulah experiment station, spoke briefly on the present cotton insect condition and present and proposed control methods. He pointed out as the main threat to cotton farmers this season is the early infestation of boll worms. Other insects which are causing some damage are weevils, crickets, and locusts.

Also speaking briefly was Charlie Williams, manager of the Mississippi Chemical Cooperation of Yazoo City, Miss., makers of commercial fertilizers.

pledge that their wage scales would be adjusted by next July 1 to make the increased pay between each class of work equal to the differential received by mill workers.

The terms of this adjustment were not stated, however, and it was this question which caused union leaders to delay the return-to-work order.

The dispute in the ore industry was settled this way:

The spread from each of the 17 job classifications to the next higher will be raised immediately from about 3½ cents, the present figure, to 4½ cents. Next July 1 the spread will be stretched to 5½ cents.

After the CIO Policy Committee approved the White House agreement yesterday there were hopes that steel would be flowing over th week end to replenish the nation's civilian and defense economy. But picket lines were maintained today while negotiators worked on the wage details for the iron workers.

Murray said his men would return to the job as they were called by their employers.

The longest steel strike in the country's history started on June 2, minutes after the Supreme Court ruled illegal President Truman's seizure of the steel industry.

As the grip of the strike tightened on the nation's economy, thousands of workers outside the steel industry were laid off and many plants important to the defense industry were forced to close for lack of steel.

One big plant making artillery shells ceased production. Food canners warned that farmers would lose millions of dollars unless tinplate coud be obtained to can the early harvest.

Full steel production probably will not be restored for 10 days or more, industry spokesmen said.

They added that two to three-million tons of finished steel is available in plants around the country for immediate shipment.

When European and American powers attempted to abolish the slave trade in the early 19th Century, traders often threw Negroes into the sea when capture seemed imminent and it is estimated that two thirds of the Negroes shipped from Africa at this time were murdered at sea.

draft a candidate to oppose Clay. However, after drying out and being revived several times the movement finally was abandoned and proponents of a draft plan announced their unanimous support of Clay.

The election of Mrs. W. K. Jenkins, of Shreveport, as second vice-president of the Legion auxiliary, was equally as certain tonight. She is unopposed for the post.

All of the districts have endorsed candidates for other department officers.

They are:

Willard Y. Cuney, of Gilbert, and Louis "Pappy" Dawson, of New Orleans.

Elmer Tolbert, of Pineville, color sergeant.

Swede Morris, of Baton Rouge, sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. J. R. Angele, of Harahan, is scheduled to be elected state president of the Legion auxiliary to succeed Miss Mae Bertheaud, of New Orleans.

Mrs. Jerry Ashley, of Crowley, is scheduled to be elected first vice-president of the Legion auxiliary at tomorrow's auxiliary meeting.

Today Legionnaires, relaxing after two days of disposing of routine convention business, paraded through downtown Monroe and a barbecue at the Legion home.

Tomorrow the auxiliary is scheduled to hear an address by Mrs. E. A. Campbell, of Homer, national Legion Auxiliary president.

It saves your strength - and it might save your life

CAN you imagine parking a car as easily as you steer it on a straightaway?

You twirl the steering wheel with one hand—turn the front wheels until you get the last inch of advantage from Buick's short "turning radius"—spot the car in a tight spot at the curb—or swing out when the car parked in front of you seems impossibly close.

For this alone a lot of people—especially women—are saying that Buick's Power Steering is the biggest advance since Dynaflow Drive.*

But you're going to find out something more as you pile up the miles.

You're going to feel the same confident and thrilling sense of command you have always felt in a Buick, because Power Steering only goes into action when extra effort is needed to turn the wheels.

You're going to find that your front wheels track just as they always have—that they automatically swing back on course, after you've made a turn, when you ease your grip on the steering wheel.

You're also going to find that Power Steering takes over when your front wheels hit loose dirt or sand—road irregularities and chuckholes—and smooths down their jerk or tug on the wheel in your hands.

All this adds to the ease and pleasure of driving. But it adds to the safety, too, because, in the rare event of a blowout, Power Steering helps you keep control. There's no sudden and violent jerk ever when this helping hand's on the job.

Add to this the level-gaited serenity of Buick's Million Dollar Ride—the "rarin' to go" exuberance of its Fireball 8 Engine—the spread-out room, the luxurious fabrics—the way this great performer can turn up its nose at gas stations—and there's only one smart thing for you to do:

Drop in — or pick up your phone — and arrange to give this marvel a tryout. Even the price says, Better buy Buick now.

GREENWOOD BATTLES MONROE HERE TODAY

SPORTS SEEKING TO REGAIN SPOT IN TOP DIVISION

Three-Game Series Opener Billed For 4 O'clock

The Greenwood Dodgers, seeking to slap the Monroe Sports further down the Cotton States League ladder, invade Legion Memorial Stadium here this afternoon for the opener of a three-game series. Both clubs enjoyed an "off day" for the circuit yesterday and should be primed for the stretch drive in the pennant race.

The Dodgers move into town with a strong hold on third place to find the Sports, who were in second place a month ago, now running as a second division contender in fifth place.

But the Sports are just half a game behind fourth place Pine Bluff, four games behind Greenwood, nine games out of second place, and 14 games off the pace of the leading Meridian Millers.

Monroe has 34 games, including rained out dates, remaining on its schedule. The Sports, with a reasonable streak of wins, should easily claim a playoff berth. It will take the near impossible to overtake Meridian at this stage.

Oddly enough clubs of the same ownership went into reverses about the same time. Bonneau Peters and company's owners of the Shreveports and the Monroe Sports saw little hope for the last-place Sports of the Texas League a month ago, and was looking with pride to the second - place Monroe Cotton States club. While Monroe was going into a tailspin to hit went just the opposite to go to the head of the class in the Texas circuit.

This afternoon's opener with Greenwood is billed to start at 4 o'clock. The series closes Greenwood appearances here this year unless they can get together in the playoffs. Greenville's Bucks follow the Dodgers here Wednesday for three games. The Sports take to the road again Saturday for three games at Meridian and then returning home with Meridian on August 5.

Monroe's Legion Juniors Slaughter Alexandria, 33 To 2, To Even Series

Swanson, Barham Share 4-Hit Pitching Against Visitors

The Monroe American Legion Juniors, smarting from the 2-1 defeat suffered in their playoff opener Thursday night, remounded last night by pulling all the stops as they slaughtered the Alexandria Juniors, 33 to 2, in the most lopsided score ever attained in a district playoff game of Legion caliber in these parts.

The McCain-Richards Motor boys combed five Alexandria pitchers for 15 hits, and Alexandria contributed ten fielding miscues to help boost the scoring.

"Little Red" Swanson and Gene Barham shared the Monroe pitching and put the visitors away with just four hits as they evened the state semi-final playoff and forced the series to go three games. The clincher will be played next week at Alexandria.

The Monroe boys scored in every inning in which they came to bat. Their big frames were the third and fifth in which they scored seven on each occasion.

The third game is billed to begin tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Alexandria, and Coach Woody Boyles said he will pitch Wayne Causey.

Later last night it was anounced the Alexandria's coach was intering a protest from the sixth inning because the "scoring lights" on the center field scoreboard were being "flashed on and off."

In pre-game ceremonies, trophies were presented two of the Fifth District's outstanding players and also to the Monroe club for winning the district championship.

Bob McNeely, West Monroe, district baseball chairman, presented the district championship trophy to R. D. Farr, athletic officers of L. B. Faulk Post No. 13, Monroe, for its winning team; Frank Scalia, batting champion of the district, received the "most valuable player" trophy, and Kenneth Brown, West Monroe, received the best pitcher trophy.

U. S. Strongboys Win Two Firsts

HELSINKI, July 26 (AP)—Tommy Kono, 22-year - old soldier from Sacramento, Calif., and Pete George, 23-year-old student from Akron, Ohio, gave the United States its first 1952 Olympic weightlifting championships today with record - smashing performances.

Kono, a well-built 148 pounder, lifted 362.5 kilograms (about 797.5 pounds) in the finals of the lightweight divisions. The combined lift in the snatch, press and jerk bettered by 15 kilos the record set at London in 1948 by I. Shams of Egypt.

George, who weighs 165 pounds and stands five feet, 8½ inches, easily won over 20 rivals in the middleweight division. He lifted a total of 400 kilos (about 880 pounds) to better the Olympic record set by F. Spellman of the United States at London in 1948 by 10 kilos.

In addition to his over-all record, Kono set an Olympic record in the snatch with a lift of 117.5 kilos. This was one kilo — about 2.2 pounds — better than Sham's record. He lifted 140 kilos in the jerk and 105 in the press.

Russia, which won two gold medals in the lighter weights yesterday, was runner-up as E. Lopatin lifted 350 kilos. But the Soviet was shut out in the middleweight class.

GERMANY FIFTH

HELSINKI, July 26 (AP) — Germany defeated Poland, 4-0, today in a match to determine fifth place in the Olympic field hockey tournament. India won the championship with Holland second, Great Britain third, and Pakistan fourth.

TO MARKET COPS ARLINGTON 'CAP

Kink Ranch Sensation Scores By Easy 10 Lengths

CHICAGO, July 26 (AP)— King Ranch's To Market, a sensation on Chicago race tracks as a juvenile two years ago, returned to the scene of his earlier triumphs today, winning the $152,350 Arlington Handicap by 10 lengths.

Oil Capitol was second, and Ruhe, third, on the slow track.

Owner Robert Kleberg gained $107,050 by To Market's victory.

The winner, ridden by Jockey Willie Boland, covered the distance in 1:52 1-5.

Injuries and track conditions riddled the original overnight field of 15 starters until only 10 answered the call to the post for the one and one-eighth mile event before an Arlington Park closing day crowd of 28,716.

Spartan Valor, the nation's top ranking handicap star, and Blue Man, leading money winning thoroughbred for 1952, with three other horses were declared out of the race.

Blue Man was suffering from a swollen tendon and Spartan Valor was injured slightly when kicked in the left hind leg by his lead pony during the early morning workout.

Going to the post as a favorite with the crowd at odds of 2 to 1, To Market returned a mutuel of $6 $3.40 and $3.20. The place and show prices on Oil Capitol were $3 and $3.20. Oil Capitol, Ruhe and Inseparable ran as an entry for the Hasty House farm, owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Rueben.

Pet Bully, owned by Mrs. Ada L. Weiss of Chicago, and ridden by Jockey Eddie Arcaro, finished fourth with Dr. Ole Nelson fifth. The Greentree stables One Hitter, with Jockey Ted Atkinson up, was sixth.

The balance of the field finished in this order: Inseperable, seventh; Abbe Sting, eighth; the Argentine bred Tio Ciro, ninth, and Royal Mustang, tenth.

U. S. TENNIS ACES ELIMINATE JAPS

Americans Win Way To Second Round Against Cuba

CINCINNATI, July 26. (AP)—The veteran doubles combination of Billy Talbert of New York and Gardnar Mulloy of Miami, Fla., today steered the United States into the second round of 1952 Davis Cup tennis competition.

Tablert and Mulloy, looking like anything but the nation's No. 1 doubles team, knocked Japan out of the running with a 6-2, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2 victory over Jiro Kumamaru and Fumiteru Nakano.

It gave the United States a 3 to 0 lead over the Japanese and the right to meet Cuba next week at Havana in the second round, regardless of what happens in tomorrow's final two singles matches.

Japan's none to robust hopes were crushed early when Kumamaru suffered an ankle injury in the second set. But the time the match was over he could do little or no running or pivoting and his injury left too much of a burden for Nakane to carry even though the Americans were unimpressive.

A physician at the Cincinnati tennis club taped Kumamaru's ankel during the intermission after the third set and said the Japanese star had irritated the Achilles tendon.

Kumamaru was scheduled to meet Vic Seixas of Philadelphia in one of tomorrow's singles but his place will be taken by Nakano. Itsushi Miyagi will tangle with Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif. Seixas and Larson won yesterday's singles affairs.

Until Kumamaru's injury, the Japanese were threatening to make a battle of it with the heavily favored Americans.

Marciano Rules 2-1 Choice To Win 'Elimination' Bout With Matthews

Winner Promised Chance At Jersey Joe's Throne

BY JACK HAND

NEW YORK, July 26. (AP)—Rocky Marciano, unbeaten Brocton, Mass. bullyboy, and Harry Matthews, the slick pride of the great northwest, collide Monday night at Yankee Stadium in a 10-round elimination bout to set up a September challenger for Heavyweight Champion Jersey Joe Walcott.

Marcianos record of 36 knockouts in 41 winning bouts, including a T. K. O. over Joe Louis, made the swarthy New England lad a strong 2 to 1 choice over the 29-year-old "Kid from Seattle who hasn't lost a fight since 1943.

It's the classic match of a slugger and a slickster — two hungry heavyweights gambling all in one daring bid for a title shot.

There will be no radio, television nor theater TV for this International Boxing Club production, scheduled for 8 p. m. (CST). In the event of rain, the show will be pushed back 48 hours to Wednesday.

Marciano, carefully led up the heavyweight ladder, was being groomed for the Walcott bout until Jack Hurley started to holler. Hurley, a smart manager of the old school dating back to the days of Billy Petrole, shouted so long and so loud about his "athlete being shut out of New York, that the match finally was made.

Actually, both are more or less unknown quantities as far as the big time is concerned.

Marciano now 27, barely got past Roland La Starza on a split decision, scored a sensational knockout over favored Rex Layne, stopped Louis and then lost face in winning on a T. K. O. over old Lee Savold.

Matthews made a smash hit on his lone New York appearance, March 2, 1951, when he gave Irish Bob Murphy a sound whipping. Murphy was red hot then and Matthews cooled him off with a solid body thumping.

With the exception of one Cleveland TV shot when Danny Nardico gave him trouble, Matthews has kept close to home, where he is a terrific attraction. A 10-round decision over Rex Layne at Portland May 19 was his last start. He is a standup boxer of the classic style, primarily a counter puncher with his quick hands. Decidedly a real pro.

For his entire career, Matthews record shows 96 wins, three losses and six draws. He was stopped once by one Eddie Booker, Aug. 9, 1943, his last loss.

An overstuffed middleweight when he hooked up with Hurley, Matthews was built into an 180 - pounder by Hurley. Although Matthews has been working indoors at the C. Y. O. Gym in Manhattan in the hottest summer New York has known for many years, Hurley says he will come in "about 182."

Marciano, drilling in the mountains at Greenwood Lake, N. Y., probably will weigh 185 or 186. He has done much more boxing in camp than Matthews, who did not arrive from Seattle until two weeks ago.

In this day of so many fights that mean nothing — except to entertain TV audiences — this bout is a novelty. The winner gets Walcott and a piece of a million dollar gate. Both can be expected to shoot the works.

The enthusiastic I. B. C. publicity department calls it the "greatest heavyweight fight since Dempsey - Firpo or "another Dempsey-Tunney bout." It hardly figures to be that. But it whould be a blood-and-thunder scrap as long as it lasts.

JIM CLARK STILL SIOUX CITY TOPS

Freddie Haas Skids From Second Place To Eleventh

SIOUX CITY, Ia., July 26 (AP)—Jimmy Clark, the stocky ex-marine, shot a three-under-par 69 today to hold his lead at the end of 54 holes in the Sioux City Open Golf Tournament with a 199 total.

The curly haired blond from-Huntington Beach, Calif., boasting a four - stroke advantage at the 36-hole mark, slipped off his hot pace with an even par 36 for his first nine today but met a stiff challenge by coming home in 33.

Clark's 199 total, assembled on a 68, an Elmwood course record 62 and today's 69, was three strokes in front of the 202 figure posted by Al Besselink, Escondido, Calif., the first round leader who added a 67 to his 65-70.

Additional pressure came from Jim Turnesa, the National P. G. A. champion from Briar Cliff Manor, N. Y., and little Jerry Barber, Pasadena, Calif.

Turnesa, a 38-year-old veteran, fired his second straight 66 for a 203 total as he picked up three strokes on Clark. Barber broke away from a 136 figure for a 67 to tie Turnesa for third place.

Clark was coasting along at a two-under-par pace until he racked up a big 7 on the par 5 seventh hole after pushing his second shot out of bounds. Jimmy parred the next two holes for his 36 and then rallied for three straight birdies before he slipped two over par with a 5 on the 162-yard 13th hole where he missed the green with his tee shot and three putted.

Dick Mayer, St. Petersburg, Fla., who shot the best round of the day with a 64, took over the fifth position with a 204 total. A stroke behind him were Roberto DeVicenzo of Argentina; Doug Ford of Harrison, N. Y., and Shelley Mayfield, Cedarhurst, Long Island.

Fred Haas, New Orleans, only four strokes behind Clark at 36 holes, faltered at a 73 and eleventh place tie.

DUNLAP, MARTIN SHARE BAT LEAD

Kellert Hits Skids In Texas League Hitting Race

DALLAS, July 26. (AP)—A nip - and - tuck fight down the stretch for the Texas League batting championship has been projected by Grant Dunlap, the Shreveport clouter, and Babe Martin, the San Antonio blaster.

They are tied for the lead with .340 in latest official averages and are well ahead of anybody else. Frank Kellert of Oklahoma City, threatening last week, has dropped 18 points off the pace.

A mild slump for Dunlap created the tie. The Shreveport first baseman fell from .347 while Martin, who had 341 last week, lost only one point.

Oklahoma City has the most leaders in other batting divisions. The Indians' Kellert tops in home runs with 20, Russ Burns in runs batted in with 80 and Joe Frazier in doubles with 33.

Joe Koppe, Shreveport shortstop, has scored the most runs with 75 while Harry Elliott of Shreveport leads in hits with 134.

Bill Hunter, Fort Worth shortstop has stolen the most bases. He shows 17.

Joe Budny of Shreveport has the best pitching record, winning 12 while losing only four, but Hal Erickson, the giant Dallas right - hander, is the heaviest winner. Erickson has won 16 while losing eight.

Elroy Face of Fort Worth tops in strike-outs with 97.

Shreveport and Oklahoma City are tied for the lead in club batting. Each has done .265.

Douglas Claims Western Junior

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., July 26 (AP)—Jackie Douglas, Santa Monica, Calif., continuing in an upset role, defeated fellow townsman Jim Read today for the championship of the Western Junior singles tennis meet.

Stocky 15-year-old Jackie beat his tall 18 - year - old opponent 7-5, 6-4, 6-3. Though virtual neighbors they never before had met in competition.

Young Douglas was seeded fifth in the tourney, Reed first. Yesterday Jackie conquered second-seeded Bill Cranston, San Marino, Calif., 3-6, 6-2, 7-5 to advance to the finals.

Another upset took place in the finals of the boys' singles with underdog Tom Freiberg, Beverly Hills, Calif., defeating Mike Green, Miami, Fla., 7-5, 8-6. Green was seeded No. 2 and Freiberg No. 5.

Freiberg's march to the boy's crown was much like Douglas' in the junior section. Yesterday the Beverly Hills youngster conquered topseeded Dale Junta, San Leandro, Calif., 4-6, 6-1, 6-0 in a semi-final match.

Bastrop, Monroe All-Stars Opening Little League Playoffs Tomorrow

First Game Of District Series Is Scheduled Here

The cream of Little League baseball in Monroe and Bastrop launch the 1952 campaign for a measure of national glory here tomorrow when All-Star teams of the two cities meet in the first of a three-game series to determine the district champion and the area's entry in the state tournament.

The All-Star teams meet at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Little League Park here. The second game is scheduled for Bastrop Wednesday, and if a third game is necessary it will be played at Bastrop. The series winner goes to Alexandria for the state tournament August 4 and 5. The interstate tournament, prelude to national regionals, will be held at Natchez, Miss., August 11 and 12.

Bob Harmon, manager of the league-leading Palace club of Monroe, is all primed to skipper the Monroe All-Stars who include four aces of his Palace team.

The Monroe All-Stars and clubs they represent are Ronald Gallien and Shelby Aulds of United Gas; Freddie Southerland, Rudy Murphy, Eddie McGowan and Larry Tilley of The Palace; Jim Altick and Robert Perkins of Walter Reed Refrigeration; Francis Genusa, Rex Carter and Joe Ford of Lennon Motors; Jerry Stovall of Olcott-Stone Motors; and Lanny Johnson and "Sonny" Harper of KNOE. Alternates are Ronnie McNabb and Tipton Snipes of The Palace Glen Fleming of Lennon Motors, and Freddie Dollar of Olcott-Stone.

The Bastrop aces and clubs from which they were selected are Charles Dupree, Sam Seals, Jerry Moore, Walter Moore, and Bobby Watson of the News Boys; D. Aimsworth of the Rams; Dowd Rodgers, James Cooper and "Buddy" Rawls of Seligman; Junior Simmons, Leon Martin, and Junior Hughes of M. C. S.; Charles H. Hayman of Louisiana Power and Light; and Rickey Mulhearn of Snyder's. Alternates are Raymond Westbrooks of M. C. S., Raymond Stringer of Seligman's, and John Tiner and Willie Musgrove of Louisiana Power and Light.

TIGERS BLAST YANKEES; CARDS SMASH BUMS

SOUCHOCK SLAM BLAST CIRCUIT LEADERS, 10 TO 6

Senators Climb Into 3rd Place; Browns Sock Bosox

DETROIT, July 26. (AP)—Steve Souchock, part - time Detroit Tiger outfielder, crushed the New York Yankees today with his last-minute, home - run bat for the second time in 18 hours. Pinchhitter Souchock powered a bases - loaded homer in the last of the 11th with one out to give the Tigers a 10-6 victory.

Last night he boomed a ninth inning homer to beat the Yankees 2-1. Today's blow handed the Yankees their fourth straight defeat, first time this season the league leaders have slumped that far.

Lefthander Ted Gray gave up 13 hits, including Mickey Mantle's bases - loaded homer in the first, as he pitched his ninth victory against 10 defeats.

The Tigers, who for the first time this season came up with a three - game winning streak, had to come from behind twice to do it.

Souchock's homer came on a two ball, one - strike count with reliefer Bob Hogue hurling. Johnny Groth walked, Joe Ginsberg doubled inside first base and pinchhitter Don Kolloway got an intentional pass that filled the bases. It was Souchock's seventh home run.

IN STRETCH DRIVE

RUSTON, La., July 26 — (Special) — With only six games apiece remaining to be played by the contending clubs of the Big Eight Baseball League, the battle is on in jockeying for positions in the Shaughnessy playoffs beginning August 15.

It looks like a down the stretch drive for the No. 1 position between the Minden Red Birds and the Ruston Ramblers, while Bernice, Homer and Farmerville are dueling for the No. 3 and No. 4 positions.

Reverses by clubs now having the advantage could make it possible for Bastrop and Dubach, the latter fortified with the addition of Buck Bradberry, ace pitcher from Auburn university to crowd into the playoff picture.

BAYOU GOLFERS INVADE BASTROP

Interclub Matches Are Scheduled For This Afternoon

Bayou DeSiard Country Club golfers invade Bastrop this afternoon for an interclub meeting with Morehouse Country Club linksmen, beginning at 1 oclock.

Bayou's club pro, Winnie Cole, last night said 22 members of the Monroe club have registered for the Bastrop invasion and any others desiring to join forces with Bayou DeSiard should register at the Golf Shop before 11 a. m. today.

Monroe golfers already primed to match strokes with the Morehouse crowd are Speed Bancroft, T. O. Bancroft, Jr., Ed Shaver, P. B. Snodgrass, E. S. "Shep" Girault, Ned Leigh, Curtis Nichols, W. A. Jones, Fred Fudickar, George Miller, Stanton Schuler, Jimmy Rivers, Curtis Cook, C. T. Munholland, W. O. Webb, O. L. McCleary, Dr. James Schonlau, C. C. Minard, Edel Blanks Jr., Roy Nash, Jack Rivers, and Winnie Cole.

Savitt Moves To Finals In Mid-Atlantic Tourney

BALTIMORE, July 26 (AP)—Top seeded Dick Savitt outlasted Fred Kovaleski in a bitterly contested match today to move into the finals of the Middle Atlantic Grass Courts Tennis Championships. The scores were 6-2, 12-10, 6-2.

Savitt, second-ranked player in the nation, tomorrow will meet Straight Clark to determine who will succeed Tony Trabert as the Mid - Atlantic titleholder. Clark won his semi-final match from Don Candy, the promising Australian still weary from his 107 - game quarter - final victory yesterday. Clark beat Candy 6-2, 7-5, 6-2.

Charley Carr Joins Kelly For Tag Team Match With Curtis Brothers

Relay Tussle Again Feature At Kallio's Tuesday

"Irish" Jack Kelly and Charley Carr, a newcomer to Monroe, are scheduled to take on Jack and George Curtis in a tag team wrestling match at Gus Kallio's Arena here Tuesday night.

The Curtis brothers and Kelly met here last Tuesday in a tag team match in which "Mighty" Scott was Kelly's partner. Kelly came off the loser in the match and both he and Scott wanted revenge on the other pair.

Kelly did not want Scott for a partner, however, and after much haggling they decided to toss a coin for the dubious honor of meeting the Curtis boys again. Kelly won, and picked Carr for his partner.

Charley Carr, originally a Sheveport product, has never wrestled in Monroe although he is known to Kallio. Kallio described him as being of stocky build, somewhat on the order of "Stinger" Steele and a good wrestler.

Carr has been wrestling for the past several years in Honolulu, but before that time had wrestled over most of the United States. Kelly evidently considers Carr a good boy, since he turned down Scott who holds the title of world's light heavyweight champion.

Carr will have to be a good wrestler too, if he intends to do anything with the Curtis brothers. Jack and George took Scott and Kelly last week without too much trouble and that pair has been considered a formidable one since they first appeared here.

The Curtis' style of wrestling, which goes something on the order of "an eye for an eye" is a hard one to beat. Generally clean wrestlers they don't hesitate to begin punching whenever their opponent starts it, and add to that some of the best wrestling tricks that are seen on this circuit.

As a team, the Curtis brothers must win at least 90 per cent of their bouts and Jack, especially, seldom loses one when he wrestles man to man. The brothers are built differently, George a tall, rangy type and Jack shorter but more heavily built, but as a team they have about everything that the local fans like to see.

Kelly and Carr, if Carr wrestles the same style as Kelly, depend mainly on sheer strength and determination rather than on fast moving wrestling holds.

The tag team match will have a 90-minute time limit with two falls to win. There will also be two 10-minute time limit bouts prior to the main event. The doors open at Kallio's at 7 o'clock and the first bout gets underway at 8:15 o'clock. o'clock.

Phils Release Possehl To Baltimore Farm Club

PHILADELPHIA, July 26 (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies today released pitcher Lou Possehl outright to their Baltimore farm club of the International League.

Possehl had been with the club all season, starting one game against Pittsburgh in which he was the losing hurler. He pitched a total of 12 2-3 innings this season.

GIANTS IMPROVE NO. 2 SPOT WITH DEFEAT OF REDS

Johnson, Brazle Come Through In Clutch For 5-3 Win

BROOKLYN, July 26 (AP)— Veterans Billy Johnson and Al Brazle came through in the clutch today as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5-3.

The victory was the Cards' second straight over the Dodgers and it reduced Brooklyn's National League lead over the New York Giants to 4½ games. The Giants gained ground by defeating Cincinnati.

Johnson clouted a two-out, two-run single in the eighth inning to break a 3-3 tie. Rookie relief ace Joe Black was the victim of Johnson's game-winning blow.

Brazle bailed out rookie Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell. Old Boots and Saddles took over in the eighth with two on and none out. He fanned Bobby Morgan, got Pee Wee Reese to ground out and induced Carl Furillo to pop out.

Andy Pafko opened the Dodger ninth with a single but died on first as Brazle struck out Gil Hodges and got Dick Williams to bounce into a game-ending double play.

GIANTS TRIM REDS

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)— Larry Jansen extended his winning streak over Cincinnati to 12 games today as he pitched the New York Giants to a 7-2 victory over the Reds.

Hank Thompson decided the issue in the fifth inning when he hammered a grand-slam home run. It was Thompson's 14th homer of the season and his second jackpot wallop.

Jansen, unbeaten by Cincinnati since Aug. 29, 1948, scattered nine hits in posting his 11th victory of the season.

PHILS DROP CUBS

PHILADELPHIA, July 26 (AP)— Robin Roberts became the first National League pitcher to win 15 games this season when he hurled the Philadelphia Phillies to a 7 to 2 victory over the Chicago Cubs and to within half a game of the fourth place losers.

Roberts, the strong armed right hander, allowed eight hits and missed a shutout when the Cubs rapped him for their only runs in the ninth inning. The Phillies pounded Johnny Klippstein, Dick Manville, Bob Schultz and Bob Kelly for 12 hits, including home runs by Johnny Wyrostek and Granny Hamner.

Mrs. Germain Wins Third Iowa Golf Crown

DES MOINES, July 25 ——Mrs. John Germain, 27-year-old mother of three children, made a successful comeback to competitive golf today by winning her third Iowa Womens Golf Championship.

Mrs. Germain, the former Phyllis Otto of Atlantic, Ia., defeated 17-year-old Patty Westfall of West Des Moines, 5 and 4 in the scheduled 36-hole final.

Northeast Indians Take Inventory Of Possibilities For '52 Campaign

Tribe Prepares To Launch 2nd Season As Senior School

The 1952 season will be the second as a four-year college for the Northeast Louisiana State grid squads and is an unpredictable, but promising one.

At least 14 lettermen from the 1951 squad have left with the biggest brunt of losses being suffered in the end positions, where only one of the nine ends from last year is due to return. He is Ronald Gunter who did a good job on both offense and defense.

A much felt pre-season loss, was the leaving of first string offensive Right Halfback Bob Carter. Carter, a hometown boy, forsook college life for pro baseball. He averaged eight yards per try last season, chalking up a total of 735 yards gained rushing. His agile sprinting accounted for 54 of Northeasts 253 points and his educated toe split the bars for nine extra points.

However, not everything looks dismal on the Northeast front here in Monroe. Quarterback Lloyd Ray, who did such an outstanding job of piloting last fall will be back in the base slot of the "T. Ray, who comes from Haynesville, and who is cool and collected practically all the time, completed 35 of 95 pass attempts, seven of them going for talleys. He is also a pile driver on the quarterback sneak. He will share the slot with Mark Boatright of Monroe and Ted Miller of Newton, Tex. Both of these boys show great promise.

MATHIAS IN RECORD-SHATTERING DECATHLON

RUSSIANS LEAD TEAM SCORING; AMERICANS 2ND

Final Contests Of Olympic Games Slated For Today

HELSINKI, July 26 (AP) — Bob Mathias of Tulare, Calif., won the Olympic decathlon tonight, shattering his own world record for this supreme test of all-round athletic prowess, and an unknown Luxembourg chemical engineer won the spotlighted 1,500 meter on this damp, second-last day of the carnivals track program.

Mathias, winner of the 1948 Olympic decathlon laurels as a 17-year old youth, scored 7,887 points in the gruelling two-day, 10-event competition which only the worlds best athletes try.

Milton Campbell, a New Jersey school-boy, was second with 6,975 points while Floyd Simmons of Pasadena, Calif., was third with 6,788. This one - two - three U. S. sweep shunted Vladimir Volko of Russia, to fourth place with 6,674.

The decathlon record, the 24th Olympic mark set in the games whose track phase comes to an end tomorrow, was set by Mathias four years ago. His world record of 7,825 points was set at the recent Olympic trials.

Bob McMillen of Occidental College almost brought the United States another track first in the 1,500 meter, or metric mile, which went to Joseph Barthel of Luxembourg.

McMillen, who caught up with Barthel on the final stride, and the winner were given exactly the same time of 3:45.2, which is the equivalent of running a mile in 4.03 or better.

And so great was the field in this race, which lured 70,000 fans to Helsinki's soggy stadium, that the eight finishers were under the Olympic record of 3:47.8 set by the immortal Jack Lovelock of New Zealand in 1936.

The day's other record was set by big, blonde Galina Zybina of Russia. She threw the shot 15.28 meters (50 feet, 2.58 inches). Other records tumbled in swimming and weightlifting.

Seven world marks in track and field have now been exceeded in these brilliant games and one has been tied.

After the days competition had been completed Russia held the followed by the United States with overall team lead with 392½ points followed by the United States with 284. Hungary had 110, Sweden 100½ and Germany 76.

In the only other track final today. Australia's Majorie Jackson won her second Olympic title but failed to match her world record feat of yesterday. She won the 200 meters dash in 23.7 seconds after taking her semi-final heat in 23.4.

The United States 400 and 1,600 meter relay teams both won their heats to qualify for tomorrow's semi-finals.

The swimmers started their part of the program at the same record-smashing pace the track men and women had set. The first three events produced three new Olympic records.

Clarke Scholes of Michigan State College won his semi-final heat in the 100 meters free style in 57.1 seconds; Jodith Temes of Hungary won a heat in the women's 100 meter free style in 1:05.5 and another Hungarian girl, Eva Novak, set a mark of 2:54 in her heat of the women's 200 meters breast stroke.

The United States basketball team, which would set a record if it lost, had no trouble beating Czechoslovakia, 72 to 47, and thus assured itself of a place in the semi-final round robin.

DECATHLON KING Bob Mathias, pictured above leaping in the broad jump event at the Olympics in Helsinki, yesterday shattered his own world's record as he again won the Olympic decathlon. The Tulare, Calif., athlete, who first won the event as a 17-year-old high school boy in the 1948 London games, picked up a total of 7,887 points to better his former world mark of 7,825 as the best all-around athlete at the gigantic games. JUNIOR GOLFERS SLATE TOURNEY

Y's Men's Club Sponsors Event At Muny Aug. 25-27

A junior golf championship tournament for all boys under 18 years of age wil be held at the Municipal Golf Course August 25 througt 27 under the sponsorship of the Monroe Y's Men's club, according to Herbert Land, Jr., chairman of the tournament committee. The tournament is open to any youngster in northeast Louisiana who will not reach their 18th birthday by midnight of August 27.

All flights will consist of eight players and will play nine holes except in the finals which shall be 18 holes. Qualifying rounds will be 18 holes medal play.

An entrance fee of $1 will be charged and must be paid before the qualifying round is started, Land said.

Land stated yesterday that he had been given assurance by H. A. Brett, pro at the Municipal Golf club that the course will be open for practice rounds for all entrants who have paid the fee beginning Monday, August 18, and continuing through that week.

The winner in each flight will receive a trophy while the runner up of each flight and medalist will receive prizes.

The tentative program of the tournament calls for qualifying rounds on Monday, August 25. The following day at 8 a. m. the first round match golfers will tee off and at 10 a. m. the second round matches will begin. All rounds on this day will be nine holes.

Wednesday, August 27, the finals all flights, will begin at 8 a. m. with the conclusion of the tournament slated for 12 noon, when prizes will be awarded.

John Mullens, president of the Monroe Y's Men's club, commenting on the proposed tournament, said "it is the hope and plans of the club to make this the first of a series of annual tournaments for the younger boys in and around Monroe. We have felt the need for more recreational activities for the boys and believe this can and will be one of the more favored events of the year."

Land, who is in charge of plans for the tournament, expressed the hope that the youngsters "will take advantage of the chance for an annual tournament which is for them only." He said it was gratifying to see how the golf pros in all three Twin City clubs were cooperating with the tournament.

Harrison Writes New Hurling Marks For C. S. L.; Tidwell Holds Bat Edge

Perry Still Crowds Dodger Star For Hitting Lead

By J. P. FRIEND

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark., July 26.—(Special)—Bobby Harrison, Meridian's sensational righthanded pitching ace, who already has established two new mound records this season, wrote another into the Cotton States League annals Tuesday night, July 22.

By beating Pine Bluff, 3-1, the 23-year-old Newton, Miss., product chalked up his 20th win of the season, as against a single loss, the earliest to pull the stunt in a 126-game schedule during the loop's action-filled 52-year old history.

Bobby's lone defeat came on July 1, after more than 3,000 fans and admirers from his home town, Meridian, and surrounding communities showered him with gifts, including a watch with his current 15-0 record, indicative of a new record for consecutive wins without defeat, shattering the old 1912 mark of a fellow - Miller, Jake Hirsch; and the 13 straight skein set up by Art Hamilton for Hot Springs in 1948. El Dorado combined power with pressure for a 9-7 win.

In contrast to the Miller star's hurling romp, Greenwood's John - ny Tidwell is getting more and more pressure from Ray Perry, slugging El Dorado skipper. The Dodger outfielder was held to five hits in 23 trips that dropped his mace mark to .344. The Oiler boss could take advantage of his rival's lull, getting only 21-6, that cost him eight points to .339, but three points closer to the top.

Tidwell is muchly the batting king bee, tied in hits with John Paul Jones, Monroe, 122; has the most doubles, 29; most total bases, 174, and the most runs batted in, 76.

Perry slipped into the home run derby with three circuit smashes for a season total of 12. Danny Lynk, Greenwood and Roxie Humberson, El Dorado, have 10 each.

Jones is deadlocked with George Wegeruk, Pine Bluff, in triples, each with 10. On the basis of total games played the Monroe first sacker is holding down third place in the batting parade with .310, the same as Hillis Layne, Pine Bluff pilot, who has been in four less contests and batted 87 less times. Troy Mitchell, Natchez manager, is but a point behind with .309. Nick Siemasz, Greenwood, boasts .305; Pel Austin, El Dorado, .308, and Nelson Daehn, Monroe, an even .300. Jess Van Winkle, Monroe, has his hand on the door with .299.

Marty Devlin, Greenwood speedster, kept his stolen base lead by getting four more bags for a 37-theft total. Bill Carr, Natchez shortstop, swiped the same number, to stay three behind. Gene Pompelia, Meridian, has scored 82 times.

Several players in too few games for batting leadership considera - tion are doing all right with the willow. Ed Whitney, El Dorado, is blasting at a .380 gait in 19 contests; Al Moore, Greenville, has .336 in 38; Don Allen, Natchez, .331 in 61; Easy Carballeira, Hot Springs, .324 in 10; Bob Churchill, .319 in 43;

Darvin Chrisco's layoff, due to illness of his father in Texas, took some of the edge from his flipper. The Monroe star dropped his third game as compared to 10 wins. Jim Hogan, Hot Springs, suffered his fourth loss, after winning 12. John Miskulin, Natchez, rates next to Harrison in total wins, 16, with seven reverses. John Forizs, of Greenwood, has 15-5, and has but seven more strikeouts than his hill teammate, Danny McDevitt, 179 - 172. Danny has won nine games, six via the shutout route. Pete Bardin, Natchez, has 14-6; George Bielik, El Dorado, 13-6; Ottis Jacobs, Monroe, 15-7; Laverne Schneider, Pine Bluff, 13-7; Dick Thompson, Natchez, 11-6; Joe Kopach, Meridian, 13-8; Bill Jamieson, Pine Bluff, 11-7; Bill Hobbs, Pine Bluff, 10-8, and Hal Graham, Meridian, 11-1, for the other double-figure winners.

Canadian Schoolboy 1st In World Pigeon Shoot

HELSINKI, July 26 (AP)— George George Genereux, 17 - year - old schoolboy from Saskatoon, today won the world clay pigeon trap shooting competition.

He did it as Sweden's Knut Holmquist missed the 24th of his final 25 shots to lose by one bird. Genereux had a point total of 192, Helmquist 191.

Holmquist needed a perfect round of 25 to tie the young Canadian in the final round.

Archie Moore Wins TKO When Clint Bacon Quits

DENVER, July 26 (AP)— Archie Moore of San Diego was awarded a technical knockout last night in a scheduled 10-round light-heavyweight fight after Clint Bacon of Denver retired to his corner in the fourth round.

Bacon said he had no vision in his right eye because a solution used to protect tissue got into the the pupil and was unable to continue the bout.

Moore weighed 181; Bacon 170. The Colorado athletic commission ordered Bacon's $300 purse held pending examination of his eye by a specialist.

SEMI-FINALS FOR AMERICA'S QUINT

U. S. Dumps Czechs, 72-47; Russia Also Advances

HELSINKI, July 26 (AP)— America served up a mixed grill in the Olympic basketball arena today and the result was a tasty victory that sent the United States cagers into the semi-finals of the 16-team tournament.

Coach Warren Womble scrapped the platoon system he had tried yesterday in favor of the conventional substitution-when-necessary method. The team looked better for it in crushing Czechoslovakia, 72-47.

After starting his A. A. U. five, Womble began clearing the bench mid-way in the first half with the U. S. holding an 11-10 lead. mmediately things got better.

With A. A. U. and the University of Kansas players working smoothly, the defending Olympic champions finally hit their stride and raced away from the Czechs like a thoroughbred passing a plug.

Today's win made it two straight for the United States which toppled Bulgaria in the opening game yesterday, 74-46.

Russia also preserved a clean record by chugging past Finland 47-35, in a game that stalled and sputtered for 90 minutes and had the spectators walking out in clusters. The Finns played "possession" ball, waltzing around the rear of the fore court for minutes at a time waiting for a chance at an easy lay-up.

It only served the purpose of holding down the Soviet score as there was never any doubt about the eventual winner.

By their victories both the United States and Russia won places in the semi-finals which begin Monday morning. Both must play again tomorrow, however, as the rules call for a full schedule of three games for each team in the elimination round.

American faces Uruguay in the night cap contest of the eight-game card while Russia meets Mexico earlier in the evening.

VIDALIA VIKINGS PLAN GRID TEAM

W. L. Stampley Named To Coach School's First Eleven

VIDALIA, La., July 26. (Special) —Football, for the first time in the history of the school, appears assured for Vidalia High School this fall, Principal Clyde H. Smith reveals.

The major sport is still in the planning stages for preparation and presentation, Smith said, but enough money has been obtained to get initial outfits of 22 uniforms.

W. L. Stampley, athletic director, will be head coach, the principal stated. He added that no definite schedule had been worked out as yet, but said that the Vikings of Vidalia High School will play second string squads and B teams of schools in the surrounding areas for the first season.

Most of the boys expected to turn out this fall for the sport, he said, will be sophomores and freshmen which will allow the coach time and material to build for the future. Looking ahead, Smith foresaw that the squad expected to turnout would include some five prospects at least who have a rough idea of the game from having played pee wee football for the school.

The five who have played pee wee football were listed as Earl Dawsey, Hulon Walker, Gene Harveston, Clyde Savoy, and Charles Tipton. Among others expected to report are Bobbie Carlock, Arnell Tipton, James Crow, Billie Walker, Max Alton, Ralph Knapp, Glen Thurman, James Williams, Charles Hudnall, Carl Dawsey and others.

Plans are afoot, Smith said, to build a stadium on the Vidalia High School campus, with lights, fences, etc., "but," he added, "this is a long range program."

"The initial thing is simply to get started," the principal declared. "This the school plans to do this fall — get started. It will expand its program, including the possible erection of a stadium, as the school and sport grows," he said.

Coach Stampley is expected to announce his plans and date for the fall practice shortly, Smith said, and possibly a rough draft of schedule plans.

Stampley, a native of Mississippi has been here for several years and he formerly played football at Mississippi Southern College in Hattiesburg, Miss. He has coached basketball and track here and is well qualified to handle the grid-iron activities of the local high school, according to Principal Smith.

AIR CONDITIONING IS 50 YEARS OLD

Five Local Companies Presented With Certificates Of Recognition

The late Dr. Willis H. Carrier, conceived the air conditioning industry fifty years ago on July 17, 1902. This year as the founder of Carrier Corporation is honored in nationwide gatherings marking the Golden Anniversary of air conditioning, stores and firms who pioneered air conditioning in their localities are being issued certifi - cates by Carrier Corporation in recognition of their securing customer goodwill through the installation of modern air conditioning in their store or places of business.

Five local companies and firms were awarded these certificates of recognition. They were made by Cahn Electric Company, local Carrier dealer, representing this pioneer air conditioning and refrigeration manufacturer. Mr. Holland, of Cahn Electric Company presented the certificates to representatives of the following firms: Madison, Madison, Files & Shell, Bastrop; Charles Snyder Store, Bastrop; Monroe Furniture Company, Monroe; The Palace, Monroe; Bella Scherck Davidson, Monroe.

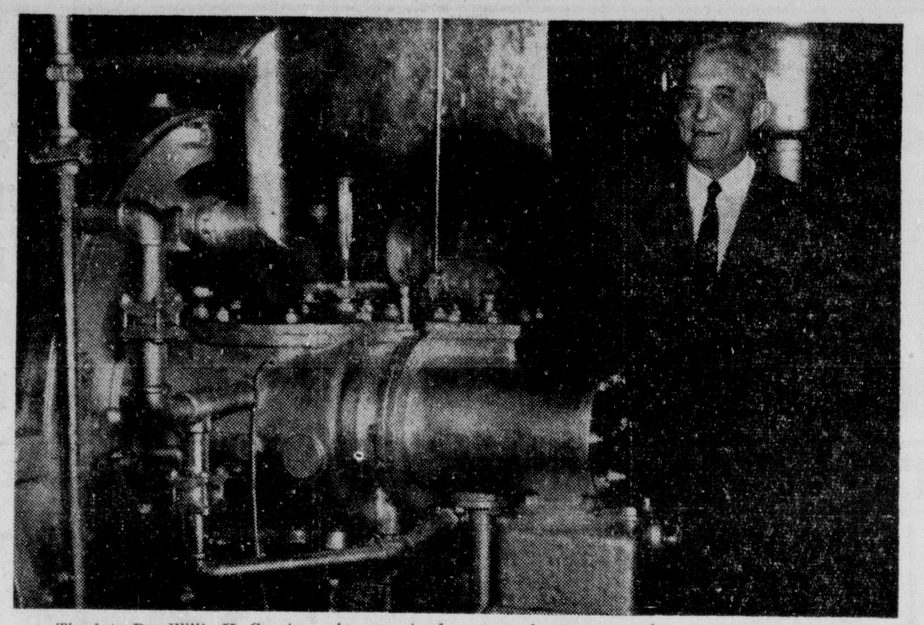
In making the awards Mr. Holland outlined some of the romance in the history of attempts to secure air conditioning and com - mented on its future potential uses. The history of air conditioning goes back to the early Romans, he said. "Wealthy Romans de - vised a crude but temporarily effective means of cooling their homes by importing tons of snow from nearby mountains. A few centuries later the Caliph of Bagdad brought snow in by fast camel trains and packed it down between the double walls of his summer home.

One of the earliest attempts at cooling by evaporation of fluids was in India where mats saturated with water were hung over open windows, so that when the air dried them the water would evaporate and thus bring the temperature down to more comfortable levels." But it was not until 1902, Mr. Holland said, that modern air conditioning, which controls humidity as well as temperature, was developed by the "father" of air conditioning, Dr. Willis H. Carrier. It was from his fruitful brain and subsequent developments that the whole present-day air conditioning industry has developed.

"Today the time is rapidly approaching," Mr. Holland said, "when man will no longer permit his family to suffer from the heat than he now permits them to suffer from the cold. And the next great frontier for air conditioning is in the home. The air conditioning industry has already made its entrance into the American home. And within the next few years industry leaders believe it will cause sweeping changes in residential design and architecture."

It is believed that sleep occurs only among animals with a fairly highly developed central nervous system.

FATHER OF AIR CONDITIONING HONORED



The late Dr. Willis H. Carrier, who conceived the air conditioning industry fifty years ago on July 17, 1902, is shown here in a picture taken shortly before his death with the machine that made large-scale comfort air conditioning possible. This year as the founder of Carrier Corporation is honored in nationwide gatherings marking the Golden Anniversary of air conditioning, the industry has grown to over one billion dollars in annual consumer sales.

The machine in the picture is the initial model of the centrifugal refrigeration machine developed by Dr. Carrier in 1922 to provide safe refrigeration for comfort air conditioning, the second major development in the industry. The machine is still in place and in perfect operating condition at the Onondaga Pottery Company, Syracuse, N. Y. Dr. Carrier died in 1950.

ROAD-E-O WON'T AFFECT DRIVERS' LICENSES HERE

The teen-age road-e-o, which is being sponsored by the Monroe - West Monroe Junior Chamber of Commerce Saturday, will have no effect upon the present drivers' licenses, according to Jim Roberts, Jaycee president. The statement was made Saturday morning after several inquiries had been made to members of the sponsoring organization.

Roberts said some youngsters had asked what effect the tests would have upon driver's licenses, if they should fail, while others said they expressed fear they may lose their licenses. "There is absolutely no truth in anything of this sort," Roberts said.

The single plan for the road-e-o is to promote better driving among the young people of the city, state and nation. The local contest will give drivers a chance to compete for the state contest, which in turn will be preliminaries for the national test. All levels will be judged by members of the Jaycees organizations.

The local contest is slated for Selman Field next Saturday. Serving as chairman of the road-e-o is Wesley Burdine, while the committee is composed of Harry Dixon, J. A. Salisbury, Jack Smith, Hugh Smith and Elmer Slagle.

All teen-age drivers who have drivers licenses will be eligible to enter the road-e-o. An entry blank can be obtained at 325 Walnut street in the offices of Harry Dixon. After the entry blank is filled out, it should be returned to Dixon, who at that time will give each entrant a written examination on safety. After the examination is graded, it will be returned to the entrant for his information. Any teen-ager who has been found guilty of a traffic violation in the past six months will not be eligible.

The road-e-o itself will be an actual driving test for all participants. A driving course will be set up in five stages and each entrant will be graded on his ability to maneuver a car through each of the stages. Automobiles will be furnished each contestant.

Make Perfect Scores In ROTC Training Corps Summer Camp

Hugh Bradshaw, West Monroe, son of Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Bradshaw, Herbert Peterson, Monroe, son of C. R. Peterson and Donald E. Hicks, Robert Gunter, Bobby Jackson, M. G. McNabb, Eugene J. Sievers, Jr., and Tommie B. Wilson, all fired an expert score on the range with the M1 Rifle at the Military Police Reserve Officers Training Corps Summer Camp, near Augusta, Ga Students at Northeast La. State where they are enrolled in the ROTC are taking six weeks of field training which will augment their college theoretical studies. Along with 500 other Cadets from 34 different colleges and universities, they are receiving practical training in Basic Military and Military Police subjects which cannot be taught at the college.

Camp life involves the practical application of theory learned while in school, such as traffic control, town patrolling and map reading. All training is out of doors and includes; learning how to fire various Military Police weapons such as the M1 Rifle, Carbine, Pistol, Submachine Gun and the Shot Gun. They will also spend one week on a bivouac living away from camp in a tent and participating in basic combat problems.

At the conclusion of the camp, August 1st, they will return to college for their fall semester and when they graduate they will be commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Military Police Reserve. Following their commissioning they will serve two years in the Army.

WALL ASSAILS POLICIES OF OTTO PASSMAN

Winding up his campaign for congress with an address in his hometown of West Monroe, Shady R. Wall yesterday hammered at Congressman Otto E. Passman and called for a "fight to win or get out" policy in Korea.

Wall, during his recent heavy schedule of campaigning in the fif h district, has persistently lambasted his incumbent opponent as a "Mississippi commando who tells the people of his district he stands for one thing and then does an about face when he gets to Washington."

The 30 - year - old Ouachita parish representative said Passman advocated economy in government "through his propaganda agency in Monroe" and when he gets back in Washington "he persists in supporting the programs which squander your money overseas.

"And another thing," Wall said, "he would have you believe these trips he's making to Korea are in the interest of economy. But, my friends," Wall said, "he is really being sent on these missions in order to give him something to campaign on."

According to Wall the congressman was sent on a foreign mission just before his last campaign and "just recently he was sent on an expensive trip to Korea." Wall said Passman's trips abroad were arranged by the Washington promoters of foreign spending.

Touching on local issue, Wall told his West Monroe listeners that if Passman had "been on the job in Washington we would have had a federal post office building in West Monroe." At the present time West Monroe is serviced by an independent post office in a leased building.

The speaker promised that if he were elected to congress he would secure a federally - owned building when the lease expires on the present location.

Wall and Passman have been feuding recently over who has the best attendance record in their respective legislative chambers. Passman has said that Wall did not vote on over 200 controversial bills in Baton Rouge. Passman claims he has been on the job over 98 per cent of the time in Washington.

Yesterday Wall hurled back at Passman charging that the congressman had been away from his duties "29 per cent of the time." Wall defended his own record by saying that he was absent only one day during the last session of the state legislature.

The congressional election will be held next Tuesday.

COTTON OPENS IN WINNSBORO

WINNSBORO, La., July 26 — (Special) — The first open boll of cotton was brought to the Franklin Sun office today. It was grown on the farm of Elmer Emfinger, Route 2, Winnsboro.

Emfinger said that the boll was picked from an 18 acre field which was planted April 15. The boll was found Thursday.

Last year Franklin parish harvested approximately 58,000 bales, it was reported. Reliable estimates by cotton men predicted that this year's yield would be about 50,000.

The low yield is caused partly by dry weather. Boll weevils and other cotton pests are reportedly light. In Franklin parish farmers have started irrigating to combat the drought.

On July 30 at 1:30 p.m. an irrigation tour will start from Gilbert, G. A. Luno, parish agricultural agent said. This tour will include seven irrigated farms

WHEN DO I FLY?

"When do I fly?" Midshipman Fred E. Lacey checks the schedule board to find his flight. He is waiting his turn to fly in an SNJ Texan Navy trainer at the Naval Auxiliary Air Station Cabaniss Field, an advanced training base for carrier pilots in Corpus Christi, Texas . The son of Mrs. Laurie C. Lacey, 100 Market street, Monroe, La., Lacey is a junior at the University of Mississippi. One of 1600 visiting midshipmen from the 52 colleges and universities with NROTC detachments, he is participating in a six-week summer cruise. Upon completion of three weeks indoctrination with the Naval Air Advanced Training Command he will go to Little Creek, Va. There he will receive varied instruction at the Navy's Amphibious Warfare school in preparation for an ensign's commission in the U. S. Navy upon graduation from college.

YAMBILEE QUEEN

Yambilee Queen, Margaret Ann Roberts of Lecompte, Louisiana, presents to Dr. Julian C. Miller, LSU horticulturist, an auto tag promoting the forthcoming sweet potato harvest festival in Opelousas. Miss Roberts, who was selected last October to reign over the Louisiana sweet potato industry, will relinquish her crown when her successor is named at the Yambilee in Opelousas October 7, 8, 9. The crate of golden Louisiana yams is part of the first harvest of the 1952 crop, now rolling to market.

SPARKMAN

from the wing of the party that calls itself the liberals, sized up the choice of Sparkman as "splendid. President Truman, in Kansas City, said the selection was "a peach.

Sparkman is a political veteran who made his start on the Washington scene as a House member in 1935, after 10 years of practicing law at Huntsville, Ala. He shifted to the Senate in 1946.

And his record indicates that the administration can rely on him, more than most Southerners, to go along with all phases of its program except civil rights legislation. Even on that, his attitude hasn't been as tough as that of most Southerners.

Sparkmans fellow Alabama senator, Lister Hill, put him in nomination at a listless, final convention session for which many bonetired delegates failed to show up.

Those who did managed to put on a 17-minute demonstration, parading around this big stockyards auditorium with a forest of "Sparkman for veep" signs waving aloft.

But it was pretty much mechanical — zombie-like persons going through the motions because it is expected of them although they were so weary from long overtime sessions they couldn't put on any blazing show of spirit.

Delegates had spent most of their energy in two marathon stretchouts in which they put up 11 men for the presidential nomination and then picked Stevenson from among them.

Stevenson was put over with a dramatic coup and accepted in the early hours today an honor he said he never sought.

He had lagged behind Kefauver on two ballots. But he had strength to call up later on. And the opposition collapsed before it when Averell Harriman of New York, the mutual security director, leaped out of the race and swung in behind Stevenson.

That started a stampede. Gov. Paul Dever of Massachusetts, a favorite son ,switched over to Stevenson. With a bandwagon under way, it was all over at the end of the third roll call.

President Truman put in an appearance for one of those typical, fighting speeches that took him to an upset victory in 1948.

Truman introduced Stevenson—a man who seemed a bit awed and overwhelmed by the nomination.

"I hope and pray, Stevenson said, "that we Democrats, win or lose, can campaign not as a crusade to exterminate the opposing party, as our opponents seem to prefer, but as a great opportunity to educate and elevate a people whose destiny is leadership, not alone of a rich, prosperous, contented country as in the past, but of a world in ferment.

For the outset of his campaign, Stevenson asked Chairman Frank McKinney and the staff of the Democratic National Committee to stay on for the time being.

In a personal appearance before the committee this afternoon, Stevenson said that he lacks an organization, has a limited acquaintance, and will be "utterly dependent on the committee.

A short time before, it was Sparkman for vice president in the last moments of the convention.

The delegates—those still in town and able to make it—handed the nomination to the senator after women in the party paid a complimentary gesture to Mrs. India Edwards of Maryland, vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and Judge Sarah Hughes of Dallas.

The names of the women were put in nomination as a complimentary gesture and promptly withdrawn so Sparkmans nomination could be unanimous.

Stevenson and Sparkman appeared on the convention rostrum together. With a joshing reference to the stockyards setting of the convention amphitheater, the governor told the delegates that in the past week they had inspected "some of the finest political livestock in the United States. Sparkman, he said was the "prize of them all and he presented his running mate "for your approbation.

Sparkman is a non-smoking, nondrinking man. But he does chew gum. And the Stevenson speech was so short he had to get rid of a stick of it hastily before he could hop into his own brisk acceptance address.

Convention Speaker Sam Rayburn looked around, decided the convention had run out of business, pronounced it adjourned.

DEMOS

make appearances there. Jonathan Daniels, national committeeman has invited Stevenson to open his campaign in North Carolina.

Democratic leaders are confident that once the South has heard Stevenson on its home grounds, it will go for him.

What reaction the evident attention to the South will bring in Northern big cities remains to be seen.

It is evident, however, that the Democratic party is swerving somewhat toward the conservative side after a long adventure in what many of its members have been pleased to call "liberalism."

Not that Stevenson doesn't support many of the "Fair Deal" proposals of the Truman administration. But he has s ressed that he is no "big government" man, no advocate of what he termed "socialization" of the nation.

The hard facts of the convention which ended today are that no one element of the party could claim sole responsibility for his nomination nor could any contend it had advance commitments from the Illinois governor.

The party's progressive elements gave their backing to Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee and to Averell Harriman of New York until Harriman was told to get out of the unequal contest by President Truman.

That much Truman had to do with it. But politicians believed the President recognized that, under the circumstances, the only man he could afford to support was Stevenson.

COFFEE

tial nominees."

Meanwhile, meetings in smoke-filled alleys and coffee shops continued. These huddles looked political, but one of the huddlers assured a reporter "There's nothing political about this deal."

In an effort to find out what was going on, a reporter attempted to sneak in on one of these meetings pose as "an expert adviser on anything." The reporter was immediately recognized as such and ejected.

That particular session was attended by Wayne Deacon; W. A. Bradley, J. R. Mouton, H. B. Cannon and Walter Fisher, all prominent merchants in West Monroe. All five of them whispered their discussion in the booth of a popular West Monroe coffee shop while they sipped black coffee. And it was apparent that something brewed besides a refill.

In one emotional outburst Mouton was overheard to say "It won't be long now." The others nodded and smiled.

As unwanted spectators focused more attention on the sinister booth, Simmie Wood walked over and entered the huddle. They seemed to confide in Wood, who was immediately suspected as being a part of whatever was being cooked up.

After Simmie emerged from the whispering session, the other five got up and left. Wayne Deacon turned around at the door and told Simmie "See you in fifteen minutes." After sixteen minutes had elapsed, the delegation returned to the coffee shop and disappeared into a screened off booth that had been arranged while they were gone.

Something's in the breeze. And, the mystery will be unveiled this week, according to one of the coffee fiends.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PLAN TO SELL OR TRADE YOUR CAR?

Chances are you'll get much more for it, if you invest the small cost of a body "clean-up" job and general check-up and fix-up of it's bad points.

The cost in comparison to the added amount you will receive for your car will more than pay you. Our skilled mechanics and fully equipped Service Department are ready to do the job.

Lovely Afternoon Reception Honors Mrs. Thomas F. Flournoy

Mr. And Mrs. Eugene Flournoy Entertain Recent Bride At Home Of Mr. And Mrs. E. N. Faulk

Mrs. Thomas Faulk Flournoy, of Cincinnati, Ohio, whose marriage was an event of May was recently honored at a lovely reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Flournoy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Faulk.

Mrs. Flournoy is the former Carolyn Trunk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trunk, of Avondale, suburb of Cincinnati, Ohio.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. John Salisbury and Mrs. W. E. Smith. The receiving line was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flournoy, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Faulk, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Simmons, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Flournoy. Extending receiving courtesies were Mrs. John Cade, Jr., of Alexandria, and Mrs. Flournoy Unglesby, of Baton Rouge.

Mrs. A. B. Hobson, Mrs. Floyd Taylor and Mrs. Francis Faulk received the guests in the dining room. Assisting in the serving courtesies were Mrs. C P. Boardman, Mrs. E. S. Girault, Mrs. Alma McGee, Mrs. John Fox, Mrs. George Gunby, Mrs. Louise Unglesby, Mrs. David Carter, Mrs. Felix Willey, Mrs. Edward Ellison and Mrs. Elmer Slagle.

The lovely honoree received the guests wearing her ankle-length wedding gown which was fashioned of white silk shantung with picture frame neckline and white flower corsage. Mrs. Flournoy chose for the occasion a lovely summer formal of white seersucker organdy while Mrs. Faulk received in an embroidered summer white floor-lenth gown complemented by a corsage of pink flowers. Mrs. T. E. Flournoy, grandmother, who also received was lovely in a black lace gown with which she wore a corsage of pink flowers.

Lovely arrangements of pink roses in two shades were used throughout the receiving rooms. Centering the refreshment table, which was overlaid with a white cloth, was an artistic arrangement of tuberoses and pink roses. At each end of the table were the crystal punch bowls presided over by Mrs. Grant Boardman, Mrs. Roy Johns, Mrs. Franklin Jones, Miss Sinclair Hayden, and Miss Kitty Fox.

Over 200 guests called to make the acquaintance of the lovely bride during the appointed hours.

Other courtesies extended Mrs. Flournoy during her visit in Monroe were the luncheon given by Mrs. Frances Faulk at La Casa Tea Room and Mrs Gladys Sperry at the Bayou DeSiard Country Club Another luncheon was given at the Lotus Club by Mrs. Elmer Slagle.

Mrs. John Cade, Jr., also entertained at a barbecue supper, at her home in Alexandria.

Mrs. Flournoy was graduated from the College of Applied Arts, University of Cincinnati, where she was affiliated with Delta Phi Delta.

Mr. Flournoy attended Principia College, Louisiana Institute of Technology, and received his degree in Electrical Engineering from Louisiana State University, where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha. He has served two years in the armed forces. Mr. Flournoy is an engineer with the Allis Chambers Mfg. Co. in Cincinnati.

Fishermans Club Of Collinston Enjoy Meeting

More than 100 men, women and children, were present and enjoyed the meeting of the Fisherman's Club on Thursday evening July 17th at the Educational Building in Collinston.

After a delicious "Pot Luck" supper, the group was entertained by Tony Norsworthy's band which played many beautiful spiritual songs. A quartet from Bastrop also entertained the group. The arrangement committee was Mrs. Forest Trippe, Mrs. Gordon Hightower, and Mrs. A. H. Harper.

A miniature glacier has been found in northeastern New Mexico. It is 30 feet thick, 24 feet wide and 200 feet long.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Miss Margaret Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dewitt Hunter, of Delhi, whose engagement and approaching marriage to Jerry Paul Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Marice Tucker, of Shreveport, is announced today. The nuptial vows will be exchanged in the North Central Baptist Church of Delhi on August 16 at six in the evening.

MISS MARY ELLEN BOIES IS BRIDE OF MURRAY EPINETTE, JR.

On Sunday, July 20th, at the Mangham Baptist Church, Miss Mary Ellen Boies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Boies, became the bride of Murray Epinette, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Epinette, Sr.

With only the immediate family present, a beautiful ceremony was solemnized. Prenuptial music was rendered by Mrs. C. W. Jones and "Because" and "I Love You Truly" were sung by Brother Segren. The bride wore a lovely pale blue imported organdy with fitted bodice, short sleeves and full skirt. The skirt was trimmed with white embroidered applique. Her hat was white with rhinestone trim, white shoes and white gloves. The corsage of the bride was a single white orchid with purple center.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's mother wore a lavender print nylon with white close fitting hat, white gloves and spectator pumps. Her corsage was pink carnations. The groom's mother was attired in a sheer black dress, small black hat, black shoes and white gloves and pink carnation corsage.

Only one attendant preceded the bride. She was Mrs. W. C. Boies, sister - in - law of the bride. Her costume for this occasion was a sheer gray with white trim, white shoes, gloves and hat with pink carnation corsage. The best man was Jimmy C. Boies.

Beautiful white gladiolus, magnolia limbs and green ferns decorated the church with four stands of white tapers. The bridal couple stood under an arch decorated with green fern and took the vows that made them man and wife. Each presented the other with a wedding ring, pledging faithful obedience to the vows they made.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for Galveston, Tex. and will be at home to their friends in Rayville after a week of honeymooning.

O. P. H. S. Cheerleaders Attend School At SMU

Ouachita Parish High School cheerleaders and their sponsor, Mrs. Howard May, have returned from Dallas, Texas where they attended a cheerleader school at S. M. U. July 6 through 11.

The daily schedule began at 8:30 a. m. with tumbling. Yell leading clinic was held from 10:00 till 11:30 a. m. The first few sessions exhausted the old familiar yells. From then on small groups of cheerleaders composed new yells which were presented to the group. The best ones went home with the students to be used this fall.

Lectures were held in one of the S. M. U.'s air-conditioned classrooms. The hour long talks touched on problems of cheerleading techniques, uniforms, pep rallies, use of megaphones, novelty yells, sportsmanship, crowd psychology and skirts and stunts for pep rallies.

Late afternoon was spent in another workshop on yells, songs and chats. Three staff members, Lawrence Herkimer, Teddy Montz, and Charlotte Demmer selected the best cheerleading group for each day. Ouachita placed second, third and first during the week and was honored by being chosen "1st for the week." Tyler, Texas has held this honor for the past four years.

Herkimer was cheerleader for four years in high school, four years at S. M. U. and led yells for one year at Illinois University, while taking his masters degree. Montz, a native of Houston, has been cheerleader for four years at Rice University. Miss Demmer from Baylor University, was picked as one of the best cheerleaders at the first state-wide clinic.

During their stay in Dallas, the Monroe group enjoyed a cruise on the Bonnie Barge on the White Lake.

The teaching staff is planning a cheerleading school at L. S. U. in Baton Rouge next summer.

MISS CATHLEEN TRICHEL IS BRIDE OF SAM E. DALE, JR.

Of interest to friends in this section is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Cathleen Trichel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Trichel, of Harrisonburg, and Sam E. Dale, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Dale, Sr., of Concordia parish, which was solemnized Friday, June 13.

The wedding was held at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Trichel, of Baton Rouge, with the Rev. Benjamin Patrick officiating in the double-ring ceremony.

For her wedding, the bride wore a navy blue dress with matching accesories. At her shoulder was a purple orchid.

As her only attendant, the bride chose her aunt, Mrs. S. E. Trichel, who wore a grey nylon batiste dress accented by a white lace hat and a corsage of red carnations.

The groom chose as his best man Raymond Peace of Sicily Island.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held. The bride's table was overlaid with a hand - crocheted cloth decorated with gladioli in pastel colors. Centering the table was the wedding cake. Mrs. B. J. Burch assisted in serving.

The couple left for a wedding trip to New Orleans, and for the remainder of the summer they will live at 6124 Jefferson highway in Baton Rouge. In August they will return to Sicily Island, where both are members of the high school faculty.

Mrs. Dale is a graduate of L. S. U. and was a member of Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary education fraternity. The groom is a graduate of Louisiana Tech and L. S. U. He served in the armed forces for four years and is now enrolled in the L. S. U. graduate school.

Martello-Hales

FERRIDAY, La., July 25. —Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Grump, of Clayton, announces the marriage of their nephew, Pfc. Frederick V. Martello, to Miss Joan Hales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hales of Ferriday, on July 18 in Fayette, Miss.

Pfc. Martello is now stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C. He attended Ferriday High school prior to going into the service and while at F. H. S. was a member of the varsity football team.

Feazel-Cox

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Betty Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Cox, of Farmerville, and Cpl. Lester H. Fe azel, son of Mr. G. B. Feazel, of West Monroe. The marriage was solemnized July 13 at the Homesville Baptist church.

The Cheniere Club Has July Meeting

The Cheniere Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. Molly Hubbard July 10th. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Portman. Mrs. H. V. Parsons lead the prayer. During the business session it was decided to send two delegates to the short course which will be held in Baton Rouge. Also a picnic was planned for August 8th at Bernstein park for members and their families. They voted to have a booth at the fair in October.

Reports were given by Mrs. C. C. Street, Mrs. Molly Hubbard, and Mrs. H. P. Carter. Refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. H. V. Parsons, Mrs. Webb Portman, Mrs. Will Davis, Mrs. W. B. Nelson, Mrs. C. C. Street, Mrs. D. K. Lowery, Mrs. C. C. Owens, Mrs. Bennie Hudnall, Mrs. Molly Hubbard, Mrs. Bill Calloway, Mrs. M. B. McDonald and Mrs. H. P. Carter.

Mrs. A. J. Wyly Speaks At Meeting Of Legion Auxiliary

During July Powell Martin Barrett Unit 37 celebrates Girls State, and at the meeting of the eighth, Mrs. A. J. Wyly, unit chairman of Girls State gave a resume of the organization and unit participation. Mrs. Wyly informed that "Girls State was organized as a national Americanism activity by the 1937 national convention. A national committee to direct the program was created by the 1946 national convention. Holding of the first Girls Nation with representatives from each Girl State, to be held in Washington, D. C., was authorized for 1947.

Louisiana first participated in the program in 1941, and the first delegate from the local unit was Lottie Mae Davis, Lake Providence high school student. The current delegates are Sydney McCall, Jimmie Bruton, Alene Rushing, Pat Bruton, from Lake Providence High, and Alverne Sandifer of Monticello high Their alternates are Louise McWilliams, Geneva Hackworth, Shirley Wilson, Virginia Legette, from Lake Providence High and Mary Jean French, of Monticello high.

A Girls State delegate is sent from the Polly Edward memorial fund. On display at the July meeting was the Polly Edwards memorial plaque, which will be hung at Lake Providence High from which Polly was graduated, along with her portrait.

Mrs. Wyly pointed out to the membership the character and purpose of Girls State and had arranged for as many local girls to attend as sponsoring organizations could be interested. Upon their return the delegates will appear before the unit and their sponsors and report on the detailed program of the event.

Ensign Luella Freeman Is Bride Of Joseph Dean Selig

U. S. Navy Hospital Chapel In Oakland, California Is Setting For Impressive Double-Ring Ceremony

The wedding of (Ens.) Luella Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Guy Hayes of Taccoa, Georgia to Joseph Dean Selig, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Dean Selig, Monroe, Louisiana was solemnized in a beautiful ceremony on Friday, July 4 at 4:30 p.m.

TheProtestant chaplain read the vows before a background of green and white gladiolas and other white flowers interspersed with white cathedral candles in tall bronze holders, forming a beautiful setting for the marriage rites.

A bit of sentiment was attached as they chose the 32nd wedding anniversary of the groom's parents for their wedding date.

The traditional wedding music was softly played by the organist during the ceremony.

In the absence of the bride's parents, she was given in marriage by a friend of long standing, Harold L. Sanders, M. D., U. S. Navy. Both having graduated at Emory University, Atlanta, Ga.

Serving the groom as best man was the bride's cousin, Richard Rudisill of Atlanta, Ga. The men wore dark trousers and white jackets with a green split carnation buttonier.

The bride's blonde beauty was never more radiant, when wearing her wedding dress of sheer nylon marquisette and lace over satin. The color was candlelight. The ankle length full skirt and bodice of lace with heart shaped neckline was worn with ballerina length veil of illusion attached to a Juliet cap of candlelight color satin, embroidered in seed pearls. Her flowers were fleur d'amour and stephanotis. The maid of honor and only attendant was U. S. Navy nurse Ellen Frame, who wore an aqua nylon net and lace trimmed ankle length dress. The bodice had a net stole. She carried a nosegay of yellow, pink and white carnations.

Immediately after the wedding more than a hundred guests called during the reception hour given in their honor by Mrs. Elizabeth Spitzer in Oakland, Calif. The happy couple stood with Mrs. Spitzer and received the well wishes of friends and relatives.

Their wedding gifts were on display in the spacious, beautifully decorated home.

On the dining table the centerpiece was pale pink carnations. and on the pale pink imported Italian cut work embroidered linen cloth with silver candelabras holding pale pink candles, was placed the bride's tiered wedding cake embossed in large pale pink frosted roses. Individual cakes decorated in tiny pink rose buds, also mints, nuts, and champagne was served by white clad attendants.

Mr. Joseph Dean Selig was born in Monroe, La. and attended city schools; graduating from Webb's High School in 1944 at Bell Buckle, Tenn. He attended Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn. two years before entering the U. S. Navy, serving two years in the pharmacy as Corpsman J. Dean Selig, Phm. 3, U. S. Navy Hospital, Charleston, S. C. After his discharge, he returned home and graduated from Northeast Junior College while Dean Rodney Cline was there. He entered Vanderbilt University the following fall term and received his B. S. degree June, 1950. Mr. Selig is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, the Tennessee N. U. chapter since 1947. He spent one school year at L. S. U. medical school in New Orleans, La.

Elizabeth Shields Is July Bride Of Leicester McGehee

FERRIDAY, La., July 26.— A marriage of interest was that of Miss Elizabeth Wade Shields to Leicester Reber McGehee, which was solemnized at the Trinity Episcopal church on Saturday July 19 at 7 p.m. in the evening with the Rev. Louis O'Vander Thomas officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Shields Sr. of Vidalia and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fielding M. McGehee of Selma, Miss.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Attending her as maid-of-honor and only attendant was her cousin, Miss Eva Shields, of Concord, N. H.

The groom was attended by his brother, Fielding M. McGehee, Jr., of Shreveport, as best man.

Mrs. Joseph Kuehnle, played organ selections of traditional wedding music before the bridal party entered the church and during the ceremony.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shields at "Arnaudlia" near Vidalia.

The couple left after the reception on a wedding trip and upon their return will make their home at "Tanglewood Farm" near Selma.

NEWS FROM THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

There is something irresistible about the appeal of a new book. It has a fresh new look and feel that a much read volume often lacks. Patrons of the Ouachita Parish Public Library are eager to know just what new titles have been added to the library collection during the previous week. Summer is a slack tune in the publishing world and fewer books are released than at other times, but there are always a few new ones added each week.

Last week most of the new books were non-fiction titles and represent a great variety of interests. "Principles of Electrical Engineering" by William Henry Timbie is a most valuable addition to the technical book section of the library. This book was given to the Ouachita Parish Public Library by the Brown Paper Mill in memory of one of their employees.

The American guide book series is a particularly valuable one and we are always glad when a new volume appears that fills in the few gaps in our collection. Last week we received "South Dakota". If you are planning to take a trip in this section, be sure to see it before you go.

People who are planning to adopt children are always interested in literature on this subject. The latest one in this series is "The adopted Family" by Florence Rondell. It is divided into two parts, one for the parents to read and one for the child to read. The book is simple enough for a seven or eight year old to understand.

Two very valuable books have been added to the garden section of the library. One of these is "Plant Propagation" by E. J. King. This book is a gold mine of information about ways to develop new varieties of plant life. "Effective Flowering Shrubs" by Michael Haworth-Booth is the other title. This book is very valuable for landscape gardeners and home owners who hope to beautify their homes with the aid of flowering shrubs.

A very interesting and unusual book is a new title called "Makers of Modern Journalism" which is a complete history of the newspaper industry in this country. It was given to the library in memory of the late John D. Ewing.

A very beautiful book which came as a gift to the Library from the Dupont industries is called "Dupont, the Autobiography of an American Enterprise". This book was put out by the Dupont people in celebration of their 150th anniversary. It traces the history of the company from the early days up to the present time. It is beautifully illustrated in colors and in black and white. It is a book in which businessmen will be especially interested.

One of the great indoor sports of the American people is reducing. Books on diet are always appearing and are widely read. The latest one is called "Reduce and Stay Reduced" and the author is Norman Joliffe. If this book really lives up to its title, it will be extremely valuable.

The Ouachita Parish Public Library is equipped to serve your reading needs and to help with any problem that books can solve. There are four branches of the library. The Monroe branch is located at 418 Jackson Street in Monroe, the West Monroe branch at 106 Cypress in West Monroe, and the Bookmobile serves the people who live outside the city limits of Monroe and West Monroe and the Carver branch located at 116 North 10th street, serves the colored people of the Parish.

Miss Connie Colleen Nolan Weds Harry Rollins Porter

Spencer Baptist Church Is Setting For Impressive July Ceremony

On Thursday, July 3, at six o'clock in the evening, Miss Connie Colleen Nolan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nolan of Spencer, La., became the bride of Harry Rollins Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kyle Porter of Mansfield. The cere - mony, characterized by its beauty and simplicity, was solemnized in the Spencer Baptist Church of Spencer with the Reverend G. Avery Lee, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ruston, officiating.

The impressive pledging of the vows in a double ring ceremony was performed before an altar decorated with floral arrangements of white gladioli and feverfew against a background of palm fronds interspersed with white wrought iron candelabra burning white tapers. White satin bows marked the pews for the families of the bride and groom.

As the guests were being seated, Miss Winona McCormick of Lin - ville played soft music, and accompanied Miss Patricia Ann Lee of Bernice, who sang "At Dawning" and "Because."

Miss Mary Katherine Dennis of Ruston, gowned in a ballerina length white organdy over pink taffeta and carrying a crescent shape bouquet of white pom mums and rosepink king asters with garlands of small ivy, was the maid of honor. The two little flower girls, Misses Patricia and Kay Nolan, of Shreveport, nieces of the bride, wore identical dresses of blue organdy with garlands of pink feathered carnations in their hair. They carried tiny white satin and maline baskets with blue agapanthus blossoms overflowing.

The candles were lighted by Miss Charlotte Holloway, Spencer, and Miss Mary Ann Day, of Dean, both wearing blue dresses with garlands of pink feathered carnations, ivy leaves and touches of silver and lace in their hair.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of imported white embroidered organdy. A close fitting lace cap, enhanced with white fleur d'armours and French carnations held her shoulder length veil. Her bouquet was a purple throated orchid surrounded by French carnations, fleur d'armours, green ivy garlands and white satin and silver glamour leaves arranged in cascade and surmounted on top of a satin covered Bible. The ivy leaves used in the arrangements are symbolic of long life.

Billy K. Porter served his brother as best man and Charles Lee Gandy of Homer and Preston Parks of Spencer were the ushers.

Mrs. Nolan attended her daughter's wedding gowned in a navy blue sheer. Mrs. Porter was attired in navy lace. Both wore corsages of vanda orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The guests were received by the bride and groom and their mothers.

The bride's table, covered by a white linen damask cloth, held a tiered wedding cake topped with white wedding bells and decorated with pink rose buds.

The wedding color tone was repeated in the floral arrangement along with white tapers in crystal holders. A crystal punch bowl was at the other end of the table.

On the mantle was a tall ar - rangement of white gladioli, white and rose pink king asters and crystal candelabrae holding white candles. Elsewhere in the reception room philodendron in wrought iron planters were banked.

Miss Charlotte Holloway and Miss Mary Ann Day served the wedding cake. Mrs. Dean Mc - Bride, cousin of the bride, presided over the punch bowl and Mrs. Elizabeth Roberson of Spencer registered guests in the bride's book.

After throwing her bouquet, the bride changed to a navy faille suit with white accessories, using the orchid from her bouquet as her corsage. The couple left for a short motor trip after which they will be at home at 507 South Trenton, Ruston, La.

Betty Joanne White Receives Scholarship

Each year the Baptist hospital awards a number of nursing scholarships to outstanding young ladies of central Louisiana, who wish to enter the nursing profession. The amount of scholarship covers approximately the first years expenses in Northwestern in Natchitoches. They receive clinical experiences at the hospital in Alexandria during the second and third years. They are also provided complete maintenance. At the end of the second year the student is eligible to take her examination for a registered nurse and begin her work.

The student may go an additional year to N. W. and receive her B. A. degree since all studies are on a collegiate level with full college credits given.

The scholarship was awarded this year to Miss Betty Joanne White of Route 1, Dodson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira James White. and to Miss Lillie Lorne Futrell of Dry Prong. This is a $500.00 scholarship. Miss White is a graduate of the Sikes High school.

Mrs. B. L. Hutto Celebrates Birthday At Surprise Party

Mrs. B. L. Hutto of Dodson, Rt. 2, who celebrated her 55th birthday on July 3, was given a lovely surprise party by her daughter, Mrs. James Hutto of Monroe whom she was visiting. It was a double celebration as it was her 35th wedding anniversary also. A picnic lunch was spread in the park. The lovely gifts were opened and admired by all. Pictures were taken and the party visited the zoo and other places of interest. All her children were present except Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hutto of the naval reserves, Norfolk, Va.

Enjoying this delightful occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hutto and Jeannette, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Riser, Ray and Sherill, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hutto and Bobbie, Shreveport; Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Hutto and Lamar, Dodson; Mr. and Mrs. James Hutto, Joan, Bettie and Lonnie, Mr. and Mrs. Farris Hancock, Monroe.

The French people contributed $450,000 for the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor and the people of the United States $350,000 for the pedestal.

Bridal Couple Exchange Vows Of Impressive Service At St. Margaret Catholic Church In Lake Charles

A lovely wedding of the summer season was that of Miss Norma Marie Pousson, of Lake Charles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Pousson, of Iota, when she became the bride of Billy G. Pettijohn, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Pettijohn, of Maplewood.

The marriage was solemnized at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, Saturday, July 19th at the St. Margaret Catholic church in Lake Charles. The Rev. George A. Dodin officiated at the all pink wedding.

The bridal couple exchanged the vows of the impressive ceremony before an altar which was decorated with baskets of pink Marconi daisies. Only members of the immediate families and close friends were present.

Mr. Jerry Crews at the organ, rendered a program of pre-nuptial selections preceding the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her wedding gown of misty pink, ballerina length dress of imported Chantilly lace over faille taffeta. The fitted bodice had a scalloped neck line with yoke of illusion net. The short sleeves and bouffant skirt hemlines were also scalloped. Her pumps were of pink satin and she wore mitts of pink imported Chantilly lace. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap. She carried a white prayer book topped with sweetheart roses with pink showers.

Mrs. Milton Swann, sister of the bride, of Lake Charles, served as matron of honor and only attendant. Her dress of pale pink, frosted net over taffeta and she wore pink linen pumps and pink net mitts, and a bandeau of netting. She carried a nosegay of pink Esther Reeds.

Mr. Paul Goodwin, of Maplewood, served the groom as best man. Ushers were James Dever, and William Underwood, of Lake Charles.

Mrs. Pousson, mother of the bride, chose for this occasion a silk print with black and white accessories. She was wearing a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother, Mrs. Pettijohn, was wearing a navy blue organdy with white and blue accessories. She also wore a corsage of white carnations.

Reception

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the home of Mrs. Lois Lyons.

The pink theme was further carried out on the bride's table which was overlaid with a pink cloth trimmed with satin ribbons and bows. At one end of the table was the pink wedding confection and placed at the opposite end was the punch bowl. Centering the table was a lovely arrangement of pink Marconi daisies with pink candles in graduated candelabra.

Mrs. James Dever presided at the cake service with Miss Angele Barkate at the punch service. Mrs. Milton Swann presided at the bride's book.

For their wedding trip through Arkansas and Missouri the lovely bride was wearing a dress of embossed satin cotton, halter neckline, long torso with rhinestone pins in midriff and with a brief bolero. Her accessories were of black patent and she wore a white straw hat. Upon their return they will be at 37 East End Ave. in Lake Charles.

The bride is a graduate of St. Francis in Iota, and Vincent Business college in Lake Charles. Mr. Pettijohn graduated from Sulphur High school and McNeese State College in Lake Charles.

Out- of - town guests attending the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. Hines, of Grayson, maternal grandparents of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Hines, Jr., of Winnfield.

Mrs. Connie Goodwin Entertains Club

The McClendon Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Connie Goodwin for the regular July meeting. The meeting was called to order by the president Mrs. Fred Riser. The roll was called and old and new business was discussed. The leaders reported on Consumer Education, Safety, Food Preservation, Food Preparation, Family Life and Recreation.

Refreshments were served to the following members: Mrs. Fred Riser, Mrs. Billy Smith, Mrs. B. C. Marshall, Mrs. O. O. Cloyd, Mrs. Henry Blazier, Mrs. Allen Mize, Mrs. Melvin Riser, Mrs. Elbert Moore, Mrs. Hendrix, Miss Dorothy Huntsman, Mrs. Joe Wellerman, Mrs. Minnie Jordan, Mrs. Lizzie Heckford, and two new members, Mrs. Gloria L. Bowie and Mrs. Mary Deggans, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Billy Frantom and Miss Barbara Cloyd were visitors.

The Home Shift

BY MILDRED SWIFT

Well — start the hose again. Be sure to soak each plant — don't sprinkle. The reasons for that you know. The weather remains hot and dry.

Between Seasons

Those early summer flowers that have quit blooming leave ugly gaps in the flower beds. You can fill in with zinnias, periwinkle or French Marigolds. It is not too late to plant them, if you'll provide plenty of moisture.

I was driving up Park avenue Wednesday and just had to stop and see what Louise Seymour had planted in that colorful bed on the right front of her house. It has been a mass of bloom since early spring. This is what I found: Bearded iris, (all nicely cut back), dwarf azaleas, snap dragons, Flora Bunda roses, petunias, coreopsis, feverfew, blue salvia, and chrysanthemums. All but the first two and last were in bloom. Drive by 1507 Park avenue and see this bed planned for continuous bloom.

AnEasily Made Trellis

We're always wanting a trellis for our climbing roses and other vines and we can't always get the man of the nouse interested. Mrs. James R. Tippitt 205 Flanagan, West Monroe just got busy and made one. She used three boards, (two by four); two upright set in the ground and one across the top. The ingenious builder took coat hangers, puling them out until they were almost square and hooked these together, fastening them to the two by fours with brads. Maybe I haven't made that too clear, but just drop by and see for yourself.

Our retired garden specialist, Miss Ferguson, said never paint trellises white. Use gray or green that blends in with the background. Then, white stains so quickly too, it just isn't white very long.

More Garden News

Enjoyed working with Mrs. L. H. Carter on Forsythe. She lives in the pretty pink brick house, the one that has all the trees in front. Mrs. Carter has a shade problem but she's treated it very wisely using susanquas, azaleas and coleus. Where she has filter sunlight the gardener planted trailing gardenias. This fall both pink and white dogwoods will be put out. The use of white dogwoods planted under the shade of her large trees is using that native tree as nature intended.

Have you noticed the outline of shrubbery beds used by Mrs. Archie Dickerson, 1200 Forsythe? They're just perfect for her house and setting. Note the special curve on the left of the drive. If Miss Nell can ever figure out a way I can get drawings in this column, I'll be able to show you on paper. It's best to just drive by and look for yourself, though.

Food News

Featured foods for August are pears, peaches and turkeys. Other plentiful foods are oranges and orange products, lemons and lemon products, stewing hens, fresh and frozen fish and cheese.

Sewing

A number of little misses will be wearing smocked dresses after the class Sue Ablington taught Thursday. Its nice to share your talent with others, like Sue with the smocking and the hat leaders with their artistic ability along that line. Do you have a special talent you'd like to share? Just call me and we'll have you teaching a class.

There's a slip cover class Tuesday and room for three more. Call 3-2251 if you want to enroll.

MISS BINNIE WHITE AND BILLY FARMER UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Miss Binnie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee White, became the bride of Mr. Billy Farmer, formerly of Hamburg but now of Bastrop, in a simple ceremony in the home of her parents on Friday night, July the eighteenth, at six-thirty. Before an improvised altar made lovely with flanking baskets of white gladiolas, Rev. Jack Midyett of First Methodist Church performed the ceremony in the presence of approximately thirty - five guests, relatives and close friends of the bride and groom. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Dennard, the sister and brother-in-law of the bride.

Miss White selected for her wedding gown a lovely model of pale brown lace and linen, with accessories of brown velvet, and her corsage was of yellow roses. The matron of honor wore a navy frock with navy velvet accessories, and her flowers were red split carnations.

The reception rooms of the White residence were beautifully decorated with arrangements of white bridal flowers, and the exquisitely appointed table bore a centerpiece of white asters and gladiolas. A tiered wedding cake was placed at one end of the table, and a punch bowl at the other, with Mrs. J. D. Buller of Ville Platte, an aunt of the bride, officiating. Guests were received by Mrs. Lee White, gowned in navy blue with a corsage of pink carnations, and Mrs. Farmer, mother of the groom, who elected to wear beige linen with flowers of palest pink.

The newlyweds left immediately after the festivities for a honeymoon in Hot Springs, Ark., and are now at home at 203 W. Walnut street, Bastrop. Mrs. Farmer is employed in the personnel office of International Paper company, and Mr. Farmer is presently employed by the Commercial Solvents Corporation at Sterlington.

Miss Evangeline Ruth West Weds Jefferson Thomas Hennessy

First Methodist Church Is Setting For Impressive Double-Ring Ceremony

At two o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday, July 5, the First Methodist Church of Monroe was the scene of a lovely wedding uniting Miss Evangeline Ruth West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel W. Pruett, of Arcadia, and Jefferson Thomas Hennessy, son of Mr. Leo J. Hennessy and Mrs. Lera B. Hennessy, of this city.

Dr. H. L. Johns, pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar which was decorated with baskets of Red Radiance Roses.

Mrs. Everett Zeagler, at the organ, played several pre - nuptial selections preceding the ceremony, and accompanied Miss Betty Spurlock as she sang "Because" and "I Love Thee Dear." During the ceremony "Claire de Lune" was softly played by Mrs. Zeagle who also played the processional from Wagner's "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn's recessional.

The bride given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. Robert O. Cannon, was lovely in her street length wedding gown of light gray tiered organdy embossed with white roses, with which she wore white and gray sandals. She wore a small white wreath hat with shoulder length veil, and carried a bouquet of garnet sweetheart roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Zelma Cox, of Ruston, served as maid of honor. She was wearing an orchid street length strapless gown under white organdy with small white lace hat and orchid veil. She wore white mesh sandals and carried an orchid nosegay bouquet of Esther Reeds. Bridesmaids were Miss Paula Sue Fuller, cousin of the bride, and Miss Kathleen Hennessy, sister of the groom. They wore identical dresses as the one worn by the maid of honor with Miss Fuller in a pink strapless with white organdy and a pink nosegay bouquet of Esther Reeds, and Miss Hennessy, a light blue strapless and white organdy and she carried a blue nosegay bouquet of Esther Reeds.

Robert Voorhees served the groom as best man. Groomsmen were J. D. Cameron and Rodney Cannon, cousin of the bride, and usher was J. C. Slavant.

Mrs. Pruet, mother of the bride, chose for this occasion a shell pink nylon linen dress with white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. Mrs. Hennessy, mother of the groom, was wearing a powder blue salina cloth with which she wore navy accessories. Her corsage was of yellow sweetheart roses.

Reception Follows

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the groom's mother on Oak St.

The bride's table, which was overlaid with a white lace cloth, was centered with the double wedding ring wedding cake embossed with pink and white roses. Surrounding the confection were small pink rosebuds and green fern which was also used around the punch bowl placed at the end of the table.

Greeting the guests were the bride's mother and the bride - groom's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Kate R. Bryant. Presiding at the punch service was Mrs. E. M. Primm, aunt of the bride. Miss Eleanor Wilder and Miss Mary Roberts assisted in the serving courtesies.

Miss Camille Primm, cousin of the bride, and Miss Lera Hennessy, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the bride's book which was placed on a table decorated with pink hibiscus.

For her wedding trip to points of interest in Florida, Mrs. Hennessy chose a navy, white and chartreuse linen suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Upon their return the couple will reside at 200 Downey Lane.

The bride is a graduate of the Arcadia High School and attended Northeast Junior College. Mr. Hennessy is a graduate of the Neville High School and Northwestern State College at Natchitoches where he received B. S. degree in physical education. At the present time he is teaching in the Ouachita Parish School system.

East Carroll Supervisor Attends Annual Meeting

Mrs. Bess T. Purdy, East Carroll county home management supervisor, with the Farmers Home Administration, recently attended the 43rd annual meeting and exhibit of the American Home Economics Association. This convention was held at Convention Hall, Atlantic City, New Jersey, June 24th through June 27th.

The general theme of the entire meeting was "Strengthening Fundamental Values in Family Life."

Approximately 2,000 women, representing numerous fields of home economics, attended the meeting. They were from many parts of the United States, Canada, and several other lands. Mrs. Purdy qualifies as a member of the association through her affiliation with the Farmers Home Administration in the capacity of a county home management supervisor.

During the meeting aside from attending daily general sessions, "eye openers," discussion groups, division meetings and exhibits, Mrs. Purdy also had the pleasure of attending several Farmers Home Administration meetings. Listed among the notable representatives of this organization at a special luncheon and meeting were Miss Gertrude Drinker, national home management specialist; Mr. Chester J. Tyson, Jr., state director of New Jersey; and Mr. M. B. Braswell, assistant administrator, who in an address to the group gave special emphasis on the importance of helping farm families to learn to develop for themselves a better living.

At the departmental meeting of the Farmers Home Administration a most interesting paper was delivered on, "The Effect of Basic Rural Trends on Fundamental Values of Farm Family Life," which was prepared by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John O'Grady, secretary of the National Conference of Catholic Charities and president of the national conference on family relations.

The general theme was emphasized throughout the entire meeting and Mrs. Purdy was impressed by the fact that all home economists have a common interest and a common goal.

Club Meets In Lake Providence

The East Carroll Parish Home Demonstration council meeting of July 18 included the annual election of officers. Mrs. E. H. Ragus was elected president for the 1952-53 club year; Mrs. C. L. Vining, vice-president; Mrs. H. E. McPherson, secretary; Mrs. W. F. Bonner, treasurer; Mrs. C. R. Brown reporter; Mrs. Sam Sandidge, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Troyce Dukes reported on the Home Demonstration meeting at Camp Grant Walker, highlight of which was a resume of Dr. Mary Mims trip to Europe.

Miss Eunyce Howard, parish home demonstration agent, listed the 4-H scholarship requirements and vote was taken to have present and future scholarships awarded on present standing rules.

Farm and Home Week, L. S. U. campus, Aug. 11 and 12, will be attended by parish club members, with registration with Miss Eunyce Howard by Aug. 1.

Program committee for the coming year will include Miss Eunyce Howard, Mrs. E. H. Johnston, Mrs. John Marak, Mrs. Sam Sandidge, Mr. J. F. Trapp, Mrs. E. H. Ragus and Mrs. C. R. Brown.

The council voted to replace the annual Tiny Tot show with a Home Demonstration Council Carnival, date to be chosen later.

The Home Demonstration Council Achievement Day will be held Thursday, Oct. 30, in the Municipal auditorium, serving foods raised in East Carroll; exhibitions will be by clubs of articles made by club members.

The Skillet Club

By UNCLE FRANK KOHLER

(Chief Skilleteer)

A Hole, A Fire, A Fish, And Dinner's On The Way

"Dinner out" in the North Woods—or at the shore, or in the back yard, or wherever you can build a fire and dig a hole, and have a fish. Or wherever the spirit moves. The cardinal requirement is a good - sized fish. For an evening meal on the lake shore we like a musky, one too large to cut up for lunch but too small to send in to the taxidermist. The menu: musky baked in a pit in the ground; mustard sauce; corn on the cob; sliced cucumbers and onions; roast potatoes; coffee, cherry pie and cheese. One of the boats goes ashore early in the afternoon to get this meal under way.

Skilliteer Clyde Leslie, one of the great guides of Hayward, Wis., who personally knows the address and habits of every musky over fifteen pounds in weight residing in Spider Lake, and knows how to cook them properly when caught, sends us, as a refresher course, his instructions. This can be followed for fresh or salt water fish — musky, lake trout, large white fish, pickerel, or salt water fish of corresponding size.

He cleans the fish and removes scales, ribs and backbone. He washes it well, then sprinkles the interior with salt and pepper, and lays several strips of thick - cut bacon therein. The fish is tightly wrapped in a layer of waxed paper, then about twenty layers of wet newspaper. The ensuing package is tied with string and thoroughly soaked in water.

The next step is to dig a hole large enough to accommodate the fish — about a foot deep, perhaps a foot wide. For convenience, a flat board slightly larger in dimension than fish may be used under the fish to facilitate its removal after cooking. This is not imperative, but if it is used, the hole must be big enough to allow for it. A fire is built over the hole and burned briskly for about two hours, until the pit has accumulated a fine supply of hot coals and embers and the surrounding ground is well heated, too. Then the coals are removed from the pit and kept right handy.

The fish, on the board, is placed in the hole and immediately covered with the hot coals. Additional fire may be built over the coals if desired to keep things hot for the fish. After forty - five minutes to an hour, depending on his size, the coals are removed and the fish lifted out on his board. When he is unwrapped, his skin sticks to the waxed paper layer, leaving as fine a bit of eating as you'll find in many a day.

One of the nice little tricks that we picked up in that region is a mustard sauce which is elegant, to say the least, served with musky boiled or baked this way. It is very simple — just buy a jar of sweet mustard pickle or chow - chow. You can experiment a little to find one flavored to your taste. Chop up the pickle finely, then just stir sweet cream in with the pickle and liquid — about half as much cream as you have pickle. Check the seasoning, adding a bit of salt and pepper, or lemon juice if you think it is indicated. That's all there is to it — but it's good.

We like to boil corn on the cob for this meal. Pick the tender young ears just as close to cooking time as you possibly can, then pop them into salted, boiling water to which 2 tablespoons of sugar have been added, and boil them about four minutes, depending on their size. A very efficient way to keep pace with your competitors in the consumption of corn on the cob is to soften a piece of butter and mix salt and pepper with it. Then one motion, spreading the butter, takes care of seasoning the corn and avoids the nuisance of having to shake the salt and pepper on each time you butter an additional delicious section.

This is a good spot for the sliced cucumbers and onions we described last week. Place them in a large glass jar and give them a good shaking before serving. This is one of the "at camp" preliminary preparations. The potatoes are roasted in their skins in the coals. If they are nice large ones, give them as much time as the fish. Plenty of coffee, and a fresh cherry pie and lots of good aged American cheese make a fitting finale.

Send in that favorite recipe for a life membership in The Skillet Club — put your name and address on it, please, and include a stamped addressed envelope. That covers initiation fees and dues for life.

Mrs. Leon Doles Is Honored At Pink And Blue Shower In Jones

In an extremely surprising manner Mrs. Leon Doles was honored with a stork shower at the July meeting of the McGinty Home Demonstration Club which was held in the home of Mrs. Hawkins Dillon in Jones with Mrs. David Doles, co-hostess.

The attractive Dillon home, so well designed for entertaining, was an ideal setting for this summer club meeting and attracted a large gathering. Throughout the entire house were artistic arrangements of summer flowers.

At the insistence of Mrs P. D. McKoin, Jr., a fellow club member, Mrs. Doles was asked to find the alarm clock which was causing such a disturbance by its continuous ringing. During her search the clock was found amidst a bassinet decorated in pink and blue and filled with an abundance of baby gifts.

Following the opening and displaying of gifts, club members enjoyed a salad plate of molded salmon salad, frozen fruit salad, stuffed tomato, celery tips, pickles, olives and ritz crackers from a colorful relish tray and iced tea that was served buffet style from the beautifully appointed dining room table that displayed artistic tal - ents.

McGinty Home Demonstration Club members sharing in the honoree's ultimate surprise and joy were Mesdames: George Howell, Shelby Wolfe, Fort Doles, P. D. McKoin, Jr., R. L. Lott, Julian Kinnard, Harry Crossley, E. B. Floyd, Jr., Joe Dailey, Jack McCarty, Bennie Haynes, George Armstrong, Tom Doles, Monroe Tubbs, W. F. Doles, Jr., Albert Tubbs, W. F. Doles, Sr., Garland Stell, Miss Marie Stell and the hostesses. Unable to attend but sending gifts were Mesdames: Norman Tilberry, R. L. Bradford and Miss Dot Dillon.

Ware-Goodwin

Invitations are being received announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Susan Ruth Goodwin, to Rev. James Cullen Ware, which will be celebrated in the First Baptist Church In Alexandria on August 9th at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Ware was a former school pupil in Dodson and is the son of Mr. Thomas Ware of Shreveport and Mrs. Ware of Columbia. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Monroe Goodwin of Alexandria.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Miss Geraldine Ward, whose engagement and approaching marriage to the Rev. Vernard T. Utley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mizell, formerly of West Monroe, is announced today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Ward, of Fairbanks. The marriage is to be an event of August 9th.

Gray Lady Activities

The Gray Ladies who work in the five Homes for Aged were quite happy over the presentation of four fans by the North Monroe Lions Club. This club also reconditioned three fans.

Mr. William Stewart and Mr. Roy Barr were accompanied by Mrs. J. G. Taliaferro, Gray Lady Chairman, and Mrs. Pete Embanato to the homes and presented the fans. It was a big event for the guests.

Plans are also underway for starting a sick loan closet. Anyone who has sickroom articles no longer being used can donate them by calling Mrs. Taliaferro, 8617, or Red Cross Office, 3-5141, and they will be picked up.

The St. Joseph guests surely missed Faye Weinberg while she and husband were vacationing in Mexico, and Vera Troy who spent three weeks on the West Coast, Vera took time to write each of her St. Joseph guests a card.

Tickets can be obtained from Mrs. Ethel Newport, Mrs. J. L. Griggs, and Mrs. C. D. Henderson.

Many expensive prizes have been donated by merchants of the Twin Cities for this occasion. The public is urged to attend for an evening of fun and relaxation.

Giraffes rival camels in their ability to go without water.

Presbyterian Women Attend Centennial Celebration Recently

Six women from local Presbyterian churches attended a centennial celebration held recently at Silliman college at Clinton, Louisiana.

Site of Presbyterian summer conferences for the Synod of Louisiana, the college was organized in 1852 as "Silliman Female Collegiate Institute." Since the closing of the college in 1931, the property, now owned by the Synod of Louisiana, has been used for summer conferences for all age groups.

The centennial celebration, held on the last day of the Louisiana Synodical Training school, was attended by Presbyterians from churches throughout the state. Local women participating in the event included: Mrs. C. K. Crandall, Mrs. C. A. Brown, Mrs. C. J. Bamford, Mrs. C. H. Martin, and Mrs. W. B. Matthews, all of the Presbyterian church of Monroe, and Mrs. J. L. Price of the Memorial Presbyterian church of West Monroe.

Included on the hundredth anniversary program of the college was a reception in the school's parlors, recreation of graduates of the institute, a history of the college, and the reception of greetings and monetary gifts from friends of Silliman.

Missionary Talks To Women Of The Church

The July meeting of the Women of the Covenant Presbyterian church was of outstanding interest since it featured as guest speaker Mrs. J. M. Sydensticker, missionary to Brazil for the past 33 years.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. D. Curtis Smith. Dr. O. M. Anderson of Bastrop Presbyterian church gave the invocation. Mrs. T. Michel, program chairman introduced the speaker. Mrs. Sydenstricker talked on all phases of mission work in Brazil.

A large number of women from Bastrop, Fairbanks, Ruston, the First Presbyterian church, Memorial church, College Place Baptist church, the Memorial Methodist church, availed themselves of this opportunity to hear Mrs. Sydensticker. Afterwards a social hour was enjoyed. Circle No. 2, of which Mrs. Ernest Holloway is chairman, served the refreshments.

The L. S. U. farm and home Agents Training: The agents have been roaming in the Ozarks. Three weeks (June 28 - July 19) were spent attending the southern regional school for extension workers, University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, Ark.

Extension agents from 24 states, ranging from New Jersey, Maryland, Iowa, Pennsylvania, New York, Nebraska, Indiana, California, Texas to Florida and the states between, were in attend - ance.

Also, in the group were extension workers from Puerto Rico, Nepal, India and Japan. Thirteen young people who are training for foreign mission took the training with extension workers. New techniques in working with people and in program planning were studied.

Farm and Home Short Course

One of our greatest weeks throughout the year is the farm and homemaker's week held at Louisiana State University. The dates for the short course this year are August 11-14th. The president, General Troy Middleton, and all of his co-workers invite you to be their guest at this time.

Every hour of the time you spend at L. S. U. short course has been planned to give the best in every field of thinking by specialist of extension and members of the L. S. U. faculty and research department. The dormitories are used by guests free of charge. You furnish your linens. Ouachita is urged to have a large delegation attend.

Gardening

Yes, its dry but now is the time to get your soil prepared for fall planting. Remove all green vegetation. Work up soil and make in ridges. Put 6-10 pounds of 4-12-4, or 8-8-8 or 5-10-5 to each 100 foot row and mix with soil thoroughly. Then wait for a rain or soak with water. After 10 days you are ready to plant.

What to plant is given in Louisiana home garden planting guide. Call 3-2251 if you need a copy.

Remember vegetables will be high in cost so to reduce your cost of living plant your own.

Brownville W. S. C. S. Has Monthly Meeting

Mrs. A. L. Robinson presided at the regular meeting of the Brownville W. S. C. S. during the absence of the president, Mrs. G. B. Wilson, who is recuperating from a major operation.

Mrs. Roy Pylant gave the devotional and the topic: "They Asked Me to Teach" was discussed. This topic deals with the selection of prayer - partners for the week of prayer services.

The purchasing of pews for the church was discussed. It was also decided to make a concentrated membership drive and attendance drive. The various reports were given, communications read and a report from the treasurer read which showed a small balance in the bank. Mrs. O. E. Leehy dismissed the group.

NEW! Greatest Home Permanent ever!

Procter & Gamble's

Lilt with "Naturalizer"!

New miracle ingredient, "Naturalizer," used after Lilt's Waving Lotion

MAKES WAVE LONGEST-LASTING POSSIBLE IN SHORTEST TIME POSSIBLE TODAY!

And now... Lilt wave is even more like Naturally Curly Hair!

NOW... in every LILT PACKAGE in every store!

"NATURALIZER" is in this envelope, marked FIXATIVE

"NATURALIZER" is used like a neutralizer, but is a vast improvement over regular neutralizers!

REFILL still only $1.25* *plus tax

Compare Lilt WITH THOSE NO-NEUTRALIZER WAVES!

SEE WHY LILT WAVES take 5 HOURS LESS TIME and LAST up to 3 TIMES LONGER!

(Two girls start at same time—3 o'clock Saturday afternoon)

LILT WITH "NATURALIZER"

1st step She started her Lilt at 3 o'clock. It took her only about an hour to finish the entire waving lotion step—including test curls!

First step finished—4:14 o'clock

2nd step She used "Naturalizer" to make her wave really permanent! Her wave is now finished . . .

Now her hair is set in pin curls for her hairdo!

LILT WAVE FINISHED—and hairdo styled too—IN LESS THAN 2 HOURS! 4:52 o'clock

Ready for a glamorous evening!

Pin curls dry fast (but hair wound on curlers does not). So, by 6:30, her Lilt is already brushed and combed into a smart, lovely hairdo!

And best of all, her Lilt wave is so permanent—so much like Naturally Curly Hair, it will last months and months!

LILT WAVES LAST up to 3 TIMES LONGER!

ALL NO-NEUTRALIZER WAVES

1st step She also started at 3 o'clock. Has wound curls and applied waving lotion; rinsed with water (or used towel to remove excess lotion).

First step finished—4:00 o'clock

2nd step (which you may not know about) She is now starting to WAIT 6 HOURS, with her hair on curlers. (With all No Neutralizer products, you need this slow drying on curlers.)

STILL WAITING! She's worried now. She has a date at seven!

2 HOURS GONE—5 MORE TO GO

NO DATE FOR HER TONIGHT. She still has HOURS TO WAIT!

10 O'CLOCK—SECOND STEP FINISHED . . .

7 hours after she started! And LOOK at that kinky, frizzy hair—because it dried on the curlers! Now she has to re-wet her hair and set it in pin curls!

But what she still does NOT know is—HER WAVE IS ONLY SEMI-PERMANENT! Won't last nearly as long as a Lilt.

Check - Up Time Again

CHECK-UP TIME AGAIN

Soon we're going to take up walking, standing and turning about. I want you to start thinking about your walk - with rythm, grace and poise as your aim. Here are two exercises - one for arch, and long tendon in back of leg - that will help the flow and smoothness of your walk if you practice faithfully, plus toning up your ankles and making them supple.

1. Sit on the floor with your back straight, head high, legs wide apart. Brace yourself with hands on floor behind hips. Point with your heel, so you feel the stretch all along back of leg. Then push down with ball of foot, arching foot sharply and spreading toss as wide as possible. Hold each position for a slow count of 3. Repeat 20 tmes.

2. The second exercise is fun because you do it to music. Use your favorite records, or the radio, and wear any kind of top and shorts that will expose your midriff so you can see yourself stretch it out. This one is called:

"PICKING APPLES" - or you can make it lilacs, or oranges, or whatever you please. The point is to stretch as high as you can, from your toes, right up through your knees, hips and torso, pulling your ribs up and sideways, as high as you can.

Raise your right arm; pull your ribs up and out to the right as far as you can, balancing on and stretching up from ball of your right foot. Pick your "apple" then swing down, and repeat strecth on the left side, keeping time to the music. Work on this until it becomes a rhythmic, dancing, lilting thing, alternating your swoops and stretches Do it as often as you can at first. Work up to 20 times.

Your Hair Finishes Your Portrait

Do you know how to use your hair? - to make it emphasize your best points, and play down your bad ones? Do you use your part as a pointer - aim it at your best feature or side (everyone has a better side) - away from bad features or side? For instance, use a diagonal part to point at a good eyebrow or cheekline, while skirting a cowlick. Don't emphasize a long nose by extending its line up through a center part.

And remember you have a back to your head. You see yourself in the mirror, chiefly face. The rest of the world gets around behind or beside you. Depend on your hand-mirror, or a triple mirror, to tell you if you're getting the good out of your hair. You can pull your whole body into harmonious balance with the proper hair style. Ideally, the head should be one-seventh the length of the whole body. Your hair can make or destroy the illusion of perfect proportion between head and body.

FOR A LONG, THIN BODY: either extreme height or extreme length emphasizes thinness. Soft fullness fairly low on neck accomplishes best rsults.

FOR A SHORT, THICK BODY: Hair short or piled softly high with full waves, is indicated. I'll forget the time I had convincing Shirley Temple that she must cut and thin her hair. Once it was closely, softly cropped, her whole picture came into "balance."

FOR A WIDE-HIPPED BODY: Hair should be built out somewhat - not too much or it will make shoulders look narrow by comparison.

FOR A LONG NECK: Dress hair fairly low, with attention to the back, especially behind the ears where the long thin look is hardest on a woman.

FOR A SHORT NECK: Brush hair high, leaving ears partly or all uncovered. Keep back of head neat.

On Completing The Classic Oval For Your Face

OVAL: All you want to do is keep the perfect contour. You can always do a middle part, and show the widow's peak you probably have. Don't flatten your head with a low side part - or narrow your forehead by skinning hair back, or throw away your oval with a big, square pompadour. Soft—short - or sculptured does it.

ROUND - Object: height, and distraction from the moon shape. Diagonal side part, irregular high waves, one side dipping, one side higher to break circle. No ringlets -no middle parts.

PEAR - Object: to creat top height and counterbalance heavy lower face. Part on an angle and brush high and wide, but don't expose top of ear. Keep hair behind ear softly raised.

SQUARE - Object: create curves to counteract squareness - height to lengthen face. Soft high waves, roundness on top, even a slight pompadour. Don't dress wide, don't middle - part.

OBLONG - Object: shortening and widening effect. Bring softly down from low side part on forehead, or use a bang. Think how Loretta Young's soft low sides cover ears, widen cheeks.

HEART - Object: for the short heart, height, and breaking of wide forehead. Think of Jennifer Jones' hair - often part ends over eye duct, and hair is done higher on one side than the other. Or soft little side bangs break the width, soft fullness behind ears fills out slight chin. Object for the long heart, less height - bangs are good, and softer, fuller, around ears and jaws.

DIAMOND - Object: to conceal narrow forehead, lengthen face. This is Claudette Colbert's type. Remember her short high bang, rounded, sometimes broken, or separted. Brush up for width above and back of ear.

MARQUIS - The long diamond: deep bang, and soft width all around over ears and onto cheek.

YOUR CHECK LIST

Here's your inventory list again. Check yourself - honestly, with objective fairness. Then add your marks into this week's total. See how close you come to 100 this time. . .or if it's any closer than last week.

1. Have you followed the basic principles of the course, diet exercise, rest?
2. Have you intelligently done your daily 1, 2, 3, beauty routine?
3. Are your teeth, hair, hands and clothing well groomed?
4. Can you do the exercises well? See muscular improvement?
5. Do you practice good posture constantly, and back it up with a daily deep-breathing session?
6. Can you relax completely to relieve tension - of mind and body? bad habits, tidying up your mind?
8. Are you widening the horizon of your interests, your firends, your hobbies and cultural pursuits?
9. Do you find your viewpoint, your effectiveness as a person improving with your physical appearance?
10. Have you found—or refound - a true, living, working faith?

REQUESTS PILE UP

NEW YORK (AP)—The department of health, swamped with requests for copies of birth records, warned residents planning trips abroad to apply for certificates three weeks in advance of procuring passports.

An average of 1,600 requests for certificates has been coming into the bureau weekly. The demand is so heavy it sometimes takes two to three weeks to issue certificates.

Girl Scout News

No one interested in children and youth could have failed to be impressed with the flag ceremony Thursday evening, marking the closing of the day camp season. The sun had sunk out of sight, but its light colored the sky with pink above the dark green pines. Gathered in a large circle were some sixty-five Girl Scout campers, their parents, brothers, sisters, and friends. Someone with a great deal of interest in figures counted 175 people in that group.

Into the circle marched five girls of the Pioneer unit, wearing the red sashes which indicated they were color bearers and guards. With everyone standing at attention, they ceremoniously lowered the flag and folded it. It was a scene that fairly made spectators break out in goose bumps.

The Eager Beaver unit led off, and all followed to the council ring where they joined the girls in a jolly campfire. There was a real fire for light, lighted by Earbara McCurry as the campers sang "Rise Up; O Flame, by thy light glowing, show to us beauty, vision, and joy."

Songs, games and folk dances made up the brief program, which was in charge of Elizabeth Leigh. Mrs. Farrell Adams, chairman of the day camp committee, was presented and thanked those whose efforts had made the camp possible, especially the Boy Scouts for lending their camp.

On behalf of all the campers, Yvonne Huckabee presented "Pop" Fearrington with a gift, while the Pioneer unit surprised Annis Klie, camp director, by presenting her with a gift.

Each girl whose parents were present introduced them. The Higgins family received an especially enthusiastic reception because Mrs. Higgins has taught the girls to make baskets.

Baskets, pottery bowls, blueprints, spatter prints, finger painting, and shadow boxes were on display in the dinning hall before dark, with each girl proudly pointing out her work. Of course, after campfire, every girl took hers home. That is, everything except the pottery. Our camp director will take it to the office to be fired and glazed. We know it will be hard for the girls to wait to see how pretty it will look.

The girls who have done something in pottery either at camp or at the office are to be permitted to work at the Girl Scout office Wednesday and Thursday mornings of this week. Some have unfinished work there; others will be able to finish a small object during the two sessions.

If the parents of campers would like to see the day camp pictures Leon Noland took, come by the office this week. They'll be on display on the bulletin board. They're good. too.

Well, it was fun. Now we'll plan for next summer and hope to see all of this year's campers and many more.

Miss Betty Jean Hogue Weds George Alfred Muller

First Methodist Church Of Gulfport, Miss. Is Setting For July Wedding

Miss Betty Jean Hogue, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Hogue of Gulfport, Miss., and J. G. Hogue of Biloxi, Miss., became the bride of George Alfred Muller, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Muller of Sterlington, on July 13, at the First Methodist Church of Gulfport. Reverend Clyde Gunn officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The marriage vows were said against a background of potted palms and woodwardia fern interspersed with baskets of pink and white flowers and seven - branched candelabra.

A program of nuptial music was rendered on the organ before and during the ceremony by Bill Huckaby of Baton Rouge. Miss Estell Hawkins of Jackson offered two solos, and after the vows were said, Miss Hawkins sang the benediction, "My Pledge."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The lace bodice featured a scalloped V neckline which dropped over the shoulders, and the long lace sleeves ended in calla points over the hands. The gathered tulle overskirt formed a short peplum dropping to deep points on the sides and in the back while the bottom skirt formed the short train. Her double fingertip length veil was of imported French tulle topped with a lace Juliet cap outlined in handmade satin leaves and surrounded with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of fleur d armour and tuberoses centered with three white orchids and outlined with handmade pearl leaves.

Mrs. Hogue, mother of the bride, chose for the occasion a pink lace dress with white orchid corsage, while Mrs. Muller, the bridegroom's mother, wore gray lace and a white orchid corsage.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids wore identical strapless net dresses with matching stoles in shades of orchid. Their bouquets were shaded pink, lavender, and orchid asters. Attendants to the bride included: Mrs. Jack Bourgeois, sister of the bride, matron of honor, Miss Doris Klein, Catherine Arrigo, Jean Thompson, Irma Kenney, Catherine Clower, and Mrs. Bob Bailey, bridesmaids. Miss Micki Beese acted as junior bridesmaid.

Attendants to the groom included: A. G. Muller, father of the groom, best man, Johnny Mullin, John Dupaquier, George Nooker, Bob Bailey, Karl Oliver, and Bob Bittner, groomsmen.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride on Gulf Shore Manor in Mississippi City. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with a pink and white four-tiered cake topped with a miniature arrangement of white fleur d armour. Pink and white fleur d armour were placed around the base of the cake. Crystal candelabra holding pink candles and pale pink carnations were placed on either side of the cake, and pale pink and white mints furthered the decorations. Profusions of pink and white flowers were placed about the receiving rooms.

Mrs. Lillian Phillips served the cake after the first piece was cut by the bride and groom. The punch bowls were presided over by Mrs. C. H. Tyrone of Carthage, Miss., aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Blaine Alleman. Tea girls included: Miss Marijo Stuart, Betty Mae Rhodes, Beverly Tyrone, Bernice Miller, and Mrs. J. L. Emerich, Jr. Miss Gertrude Schultz presided at the bride's register.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Muller left for a wedding trip to New York. For traveling, Mrs. Muller wore a champagne colored two piece dress of silk pique with pink accessories. She wore a corsage of white purple - throated orchids.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Muller, Sterlington, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Mullin, Hattiesburg; Mrs. Frank Harrison, Jr., Jackson; Mrs. Julia C. McCoy, Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Plumb, Biloxi; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Richards, Biloxi; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clark, Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter, Jackson; Mrs. Josie Gautier, Gautier; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bourgeois, New Orleans; Miss Barbara Bourgeois, New Orleans; John Dupaquier, Bay St. Louis; Bob Bittner, Baton Rouge; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kenney, Bay St. Louis; Miss Irma Kenney, Bay St. Louis; Miss Ilda Schriefer, Baton Rouge; Bill Huckaby, Baton Rouge; George Booker, Baton Rouge; Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Liddle, Baton Rouge; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Ross, Jackson; Mrs. C. H. Tyrone, Carthage; Mr. and Mrs. Whit Guice, Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Derise, Jackson; Miss Estell Hawkins, Jackson; Miss Beverly Tyrone, Carthage.

A. What should U. S. Policy be with respect to the following: The United Nations? A strong United Nations, free and unbiased information and education is the most plausible approach to peace. We must make it work. Our foreign policy should be pro-American and at the same time co-operative with the needs and tolerant of the views of other Nations without abandoning our own ideals of national and racial dignity. A spiritual and moral rehabilitation must be spearheaded by the United States of America. World leadership is a divine heritage not to be subjected to the bantering of opportunistic politicians. Character, purpose, and statesmanship are required. Aid to underdeveloped countries. Genuine friendship and respect cannot be bought. Over-indulgence can destroy principle, ideals and self-respect. On the other hand, sound economic aid and political support are absolutely essential to rehabilitation and self-reliance. We should devise and follow a carefully studied policy of aid to those Countries most essential and amenable to world peace and economic rehabilitation. The limitations of our own National economy make it imperative that we use the utmost care and sagacity in our foreign aid policy. I am of the opinion that we have perhaps been over-indulgent, even profligate, in our anxiety to placate some European countries, while we were actually neglecting our "good neighbor policy in the Western Hemisphere. Security and peace can best be achieved by building up the economic potential and defense strength of the Western Hemisphere with full confidence and co-operation of the American Nations.

B. What steps should Congress take to halt inflation? Eliminate as rapidly as possible government interference and restriction on business. Encourage production, competition and free trade. Reduce taxes. High taxes and excess cost of government supervision and red tape are adding irreducibly to the never ending spiral of increased costs which must ultimately be passed on to the consuming public.

C. Where can federal expenditure best be cut? Re-evalue foreign aid. Closer business supervision of expenditures of armed services; eliminating competitive bidding. Better utilization of man power and special talents by the armed services. Reduction of federal employes with a more business like approach to administration of government functions and better distribution of employe work-loads. A more realistic appraisal of pay scales with a view of work done or accomplished, rather than on an arbitrary and largely theoretical pay rating system. Eliminate present system of basing executive pay on the number of employes supervised rather than on efficiency and accomplishment. Make relief rolls public and purge and punish "gold brickers and cheats. Eliminate overlapping functions of government agencies. Subject all government expenditures to review by the general accounting office.

D. In what pieces of legislation are you especially interested? For: Constitutional amendment to limit income tax; national defense; the strengthening of the United Nations; limitation of authority of chief executive to order American troops abroad on so-called "police action except with the authority of Congress; a more comprehensive definition and tightening of our laws on subversive activities; abolish electorial college; nomination and election of president and vice president by majority popular vote (Lodge - Gossett Amendment); farm credit: agricultural research; flood control; soil conservation: irrigation and reclamation; rural electrification and telephones; farmers home administration; school lunch program; education. Opposed to: Subsidies, except where absolutely necessary to bolster or develop through private enterprise an industry essential to the national economy and national defense; regimentation, government regulation or restraint of private industry; seizure powers of the president; socialized medicine; centralized government.

Otto E. Passman
Monroe, La., Age 52

A. Education: High school; two years of law; commercial business course; course in economics.

B. Occupation: Owner of Passman Equipment Company, Delta Furniture Company and Commercial Equipment Company, manufacturers and distributors.

C. What particular training and experience have you had that would qualify you for this office? Thirty years business experience, merchandising, managing and manufacturing. I have been very active in civic, fraternal and veterans affairs over a period of many years.

Candidates Stand On Issues

A. What should U. S. policy be with respect to the following: The United Nations? Should be kept intact. My considered judgment is that it will eventually develop into a peace organization that will be respected by all the nations of the world and it should be the instrument to eliminate future wars. Aid to underdeveloped countries? The United States should extend technical aid and furnish technical advisors, especially in the fields of agriculture and soil conservation.

B. What steps should Congress take to halt inflation? This question is broad. Every effort should be made to eliminate non-essential federal expenditures. A close guard should be placed around military procurement, and this is important because military appropriation is the largest single item in the federal budget. Ways and means should be established to prevent the military from buying in excess of its needs and all purchases should be made on a bid basis. This will eliminate the situation wherein the military pays above market prices for its needs.

C. Where can federal expenditures best be cut? Non-essential expenditures can be eliminated by placing more businessmen in Congress and in charge of federal procurement. A careful adjustment of the social welfare program in such a way as to provide assistance to the needy and aged, but to eliminate contributions to able bodied persons so that they may work and contribute towards the maintenance of sound economy.

D. In what pieces of legislation are you especially interested? A minimum of fifteen per cent tax reduction in all brackets; an absolute ceiling on the number of civilian federal employes. A systematic approach to a balanced budget. If at all possible apply a minimum of ten per cent of our revenues to the retirement of the public debt.

William H. Ricks
Monroe, La., Age 36

A. Education: High School, Jr. college; business school.

B. Occupation: Office supervisor.

C. What particular training and experience have you had that would qualify you for this office? My years of sincere study and observation relative to the political affairs of our country. It is my opinion that only by direct action upon the part of each voter will we succeed in preserving our great heritage.

Candidates Stand on Issues

A. What should U. S. policy be with respect to the following: The United Nations? The U. S. should adopt a policy of leadership based upon trust, understanding and toleration in an effort to make this great organization successful. Aid to underdeveloped countries? We should aid foreign nations only after they have made their own maximum effort. Limit aid to the extent that such nations be encouraged to become self-supporting.

B. What steps should Congress take to halt inflation? The federal government itself is the greatest single contributing factor toward inflation. Government spending must be reduced to the absolute minimum.

C. Where can Federal Expenditure best be cut? Reduce domestic spending to a minimum. Reduce foreign aid to the extent stated above. Eliminate dictatorial bureaus which breed waste, graft and corruption. Halt unfair government competition with industry.

D. In what pieces of Legislation are you especially interested? I have no special or "pet' legislation but will judge all legislation upon its respective merits.

Jasper B. Smith
Republican

Education: Attended and graduated from Willkie Grade School at Elwood, Indiana. High School at Elwood, Indiana. Graduated from Trades Training Institute (branch of Miss. State College) at Prairie, Miss., in Office Management Course. Graduated from BMI at Monroe in Junior Accounting and Advanced Accounting.

Occupation: Night Auditor for the Anderson Hotel in Anderson, Indiana at this time. Retired Army Veteran with 7½ years of military service.

What particular training and experience have you had that would qualify you for this office? Used to be a Current Event speaker in the Army; a feature writer on school paper; public relations conduct with numerous civilians and military persons too numerous to mention here. Main interest at this time is to strengthen the two-party system in Louisiana.

Candidate's Stand On Issues

A. What should U. S. Policy be with respect to the following:

The United Nations? The United Nations should take over the duties entirely of giving aid to so-called underdeveloped countries.

Aid to underdeveloped countries? Our Nation should not directly give any aid to an underdeveloped Nation; United Nations was organized for this so now is the time to let the United Nations take over and do the job.

B. What steps should Congress take to halt Inflation? Remove all price and wage controls at the Federal level leaving the job to the State to impose any price and wage controls on any item or issue that is necessary within any State. I believe that expenses and income at the Federal level should be on a pay-as-you-go basis. Eliminate the States paying money to Federal Government and Federal Government then returning it to the State. Let this money stay in the State without Federal intervention. I believe this would have a great tendency to halt inflation. I believe all so--called Independent Agencies in our Federal Government should either be placed within one of our over-all Cabinet Departments or terminated.

C. Where can Federal expenditure best be cut? By terminating agencies like the Indian Bureau; all Federal Parks should be terminated and they in return should be turned over to the Federal Reservations System; some of the branches of services should be consolidated and all military persons should wear the same uniform saving about $10 million per year.

D. In what pieces of Legislation are you especially interested? Statehood for Hawaii and Alaska; the return of at least a portion of the District of Columbia from the State in which they came; Tidelands situation. Tidelands should be returned to States with a border as set forth by longitude and latitude lines, not by mileage from the seashore as that is hard to do. Direct Primary for President and Vice-President in each State. State Legislature should take effective steps to include in each Congressional District of Louisiana the same number of citizens as is possible under the 1950 Federal Census.

Shady Wall — Age 29
West Monroe, La.

Education: Undergraduate and two years Law School.

Occupation: Real Estate, oil and gas leases.

What particular training and experience have you had that would qualify you for this office? My work all through life, my education, and service in State Legislature.

Candidate's Stand On Issues

A. What should U. S. policy be with respect to the following:

The United Nations? One of caution.

Aid to Underdeveloped countries? We should aid such countries but should be done by encouraging private enterprise to take the lead.

B. What steps should congress take to halt inflation? First step Congress should recognize inflation and effect of free Federal spending.

C. Where can federal expenditure best be cut? On foreign aid and on top heavy bureaus in Washington.

D. In what pieces of legislation are you especially interested? For: Reduction of taxes, particularly Income Tax Against: Excessive foreign spending.

H. O. Womack
Monroe. La.

Age, 52.

Address, 500 Louisville Avenue, Monroe.

Education: Elementary education in Louisiana schools. Accounting and shorthand, (Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Tex.), two years Ouachita College, Arkadelphia, Ark., two home study courses in accounting.

Occupation: Carpenter and contracting. Own cafe, 500 Louisville avenue.

Qualifications: teaching, accounting, sawmilling and farming. I am thoroughly familiar with all phases of farming and lumber industry. I also know construction costs.

A. What should U. S. policy be with respect to the following:

The United Nations: There seems to be too much "horse trading", and not enough honesty.

Aid to underdeveloped countries: We should know that such countries are trying to help themselves. There is no point in pouring millions of dollars into a situation that is not accomplishing something.

B. What steps should Congress take to halt inflation? I do not know. Seems that every time they touch it they make it worse.

C. Where can federal expenditure best be cut? Cut out overlapping duties of different departments and eliminate cost plus jobs. There is always an awful lot of waste on all cost plus contracts.

It is estimated that fire destroys over 460 million cubic feet of timber in the United States every year.

LOVELY JUNE BRIDE

Mrs. Sam E. Dale, Jr., before her marriage in Baton Rouge, June 13, was Cathleen Trichel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Trichel, of Harrisonburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Dale, Sr., of Concordia parish.

FERGUS FALLS, Minn.(AP)—A sly mother fox was a good provider for her five young. Here's what diggers found in her den: the remains of five mallard ducks, one small pig, three jack rabbits, one weasel, one muskrat, one woodchuck and several pheasants.

CAMELLIA GARDEN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. CARL STEVENSON

The Camellia Garden Club held its regular monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Carl Stevenson, with Mrs. Jack McLemore as co-hostess.

Mrs. Ola Mae Passman introduced Miss Juanita Porter who gave a very interesting talk on "Making Corsages." Miss Porter discussed and demonstrated the wiring and taping of different types of flowers. She also detailed the construction of the glamelia, which is made of gladioli blossoms and looks like a camellia and is a very beautiful and popular corsage.

After the program delicious refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. Dorothy Rhinehart, Mrs. Juanita Taylor, Miss Juanita Porter, Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mrs. W. A. Cornett, Mrs. E. N. Craven, Mrs. J. R. Freeman, Mrs. W. M. Hochsteter, Mrs Cecil Jones, Mrs. J. C. Leath, Mrs. J. C. Magee, Mrs. Jack McLemore, Mrs. Ola Passman, Mrs. John Paylor, Mrs. H. T. Poulan, Mrs. J. B. Renaud, Mrs. Carl Stevenson, Mrs. G. L. Thompson, and Mrs. Earl Vigg.

BAYOU DESIARD GARDEN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. CARL SLAKTER

The Bayou DeSiard Garden club held its regular July meeting at the Rendezvous with Mrs. Carl Slakter as hostess. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. H. W. Tolson and "A Gardeners' prayer" was read in unison. Mrs. R. C. Holler read the horticultural report for the month.

A short business session then followed. Mrs. Doin D'Masterson was elected as a new member and Mrs. Hamilton Chapman was appointed to fill the office of treasurer, due to the resignation of Mrs. Joe Haggerty. Mrs. Slakter was in charge of the program which was on flower arrangements. At this time Mrs. George Reitye, a former member was welcomed as a guest.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. R. D. Farr, Mrs. R. T. Faar, Mrs. Joe Haggerty, Mrs. R. C. Holler, Mrs. H. H. Petty, Mrs. Jack Rushing, Mrs. Carl Thompson, Mrs. H. W. Tolson, Mrs. Carter Ackel, and the hostess.

MISS SALLY PATRICIA ELLIOTT ENGAGED TO JAMES E. FERGUSON

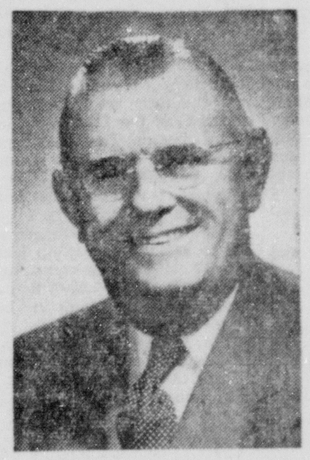
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harold Elliott announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sally Patricia, to James Edward Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edward Ferguson, of West Monroe.

The wedding will be solemnized August 29th in the chapel of the First Baptist Church of West Monroe with the Rev. Jaroy Weber officiating.

The bride is a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School and is at present employed by the Ouachita Coca-Cola Bottling Company.

The bridegroom, also, is a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School. In September he will return to Baylor University, Waco, Texas, and continue his studies for the ministry. The bride will enter Baylor along with him.

FOR CONGRESS



Charles E. McKenzie

FAIR -ABLE

REMEMBER--?

Remember back in 1943 when Charlie McKenzie, then our new representative, found out that the New Deal was not all sweetness and light?

It's the popular thing to do, now. But it took courage back then for Charlie to blast at the Big Boys in Washington.

On July 25, 1943, he publicly protested government "incompetency, inefficiency and confusion . . . a red light danger signal for democracy as we in The South understand it."

Nine years later we're still finding out how terribly right Charlie McKenzie was. And he hasn't changed his mind, either.

MASSEY OFFERS BIG DISCOUNT

Center On Jackson Street Handles Famous Heaters, Radios

Massey's Service Center, located at 801 Jackson street, is now offering the Coleman floor furnace and Coleman wall heater at a 15 per cent discount.

The special sale of these heaters, which are considered among the finest, is being offered at this time in order that persons desiring them can have the heaters installed before weather conditions demand the use of them. This announcement was made today by Ben Parnell, store manager.

Massey's is the largest Coleman dealer in north Louisiana selling and servicing these appliances in an area of approximately 40 miles radius of Monroe. This is maintained by five service trucks and eight service and installation men. The local store is also the oldest Kelvinator dealer in the northern part of the state, having handled the franchise continuously for the past 14 years.

Offering 24-hour service, Massey's is also the local dealer for Philco air conditioning units, Philco radio and television sets, Hunter fans, Zenith radio and television sets, Maytag and Thor automatic and wringer washers, Motorola auto radios and distributor for B. E. Goodrich tires and batteries.

Parnell also stated that the center services all merchandise which they sell.

TO DISPENSE WITH DEPUTY

FERRIDAY, July 26.—(Special)—As of August 1, the Concordia parish police jury will dispense with the services if its deputy hired especially to keep the hogs from rooting up the backwater levee in the Black river section of the parish. Residents from that area said that about the only destructive element to the levee at this time is the water wash, or erosion.

SCHOOL BOARD'S RACE EXCITING

FERRIDAY, July 26.—(Special)—Probably the race for school board members from the seventh ward which embraces the Ferriday district, will hold the spotlight in local interest in Tuesday's election.

Five persons are running for the board, which will include two members this year because of an increase in representation revealed by the 1950 census.

Contestants for the office include the incumbent, Henry Godchaux, Mrs. Vina Pankey, Leo Purvis, H. A. Martin, and Lane Crews. W. E. Person, Jr., has withdrawn from the race.

The Clayton ward will also have a contest for the board next Tuesday with W. D. Wactor, incumbent being opposed by J. C. Breland and George Loomis.

Mrs. Robert Graham is unopposed for a member of the board from the third ward, and Mrs. Lucille Shiele, unopposed for the fifth ward has already received her commission.

The only general race in Concordia parish is for United States congressman, with the incumbent, Otto Passman being opposed by Shady Wall, Charlie E. McKenzie, former congressman and M. R. Womack.

STARTS WEDNESDAY AT THE TEM

Van Johnson is given plenty of headaches by the activities of his irascible shipboard companion, Paul Douglas, in "When in Rome," M-G-M's unusual comedy-drama of two ill-assorted traveling companions, coming to the Tem screen this week. The new picture, filmed in Italy, was produced and directed by Clarence Brown.

WILL IRRIGATE FARM FOR TECH

14 Acre Pond Is Now Being Completed At Ruston

RUSTON, July 26 —(Special) — Water for irrigation of more than 200 acres at Louisiana Tech's farm will be provided with the completion of a 14-acre pond now under construction, according to M. Hayne Folk, Jr., dean of the School of Agriculture and Forestry.

Located in the southeast-central portion of the college's 329-acre farm the pond "will utilize approximately six acres of swamp as well as clay hillsides that have been comparatively useless in the past even for grazing purposes," Dean Folk said.

With the addition of the pond, this wasteland area will be turned into a source of water to irrigate the surrounding acreage and turn it into a productive pasture area for the college's herd of dairy cows.

"During the drouth seasons, such as we have had here in recent months, the lack of an adequate water supply to irrigate this land has put us in the position of being fortunate to put one cow per acre on this pasture ground," he pointed out.

"Now, however with the addition of the pond, we can put from two to three cows here per acre with little trouble from the standpoint of adequate pasture."

The pond will be supplied with water from numerous springs located in the center of the dense swamp acreage and also from drainage water flowing off an estimated 250 acres surrounding the pond.

In addition to its use as a source for irrigation water, the pond will provide classes with a natural laboratory for studying irrigation, drainage and terracing, wildlife management, and will also be stocked with fish for recreation fishing.

At present, workmen are constructing a giant dam which will stretch 600 feet across the east end of the new pond. Measuring 95 feet in width at the center, the dam will taper at each end to a width varying from 12 to 14 feet, with the spillway located on the dam's north end.

To build the dam, 15,000 cubic yards of earth will be required, not including another 800 yards of red clay that was used to fill in the center core ditch.

At its deepest point, the pond will be 15 feet deep next to the dam. With sufficient rain, it is expected that the pond will fill during the coming winter months.

A cross between cattle and bison developed by the Canadian government is called cattalo.

DOG WARNS OF FIRE

CENTRALIA, Ill. (AP)—A Southern Illinois couple wouldn't part now with a dog they once tried to give away and couldn't.

The Louis Troys at Pinckneyville credit Fritzie, a 3-year-old with Spitz and other ancestry, with saving their grocery store and perhaps their lives. A night fire broke out in a mechanical cooler near Fritzie's sleeping spot. He went to their bed and they said Fritzie barked until they got up and investigated. Neighbors helped carry the fire safely outside.

The railroad trestle across Great Salt Lake is 30 miles long.

Dorothy Dix

DEAR MISS DIX: I have run into a very difficult problem with my boy friend. I am 19 and have known this boy for over a year. When we began to go steady he asked me to stop smoking and became very angry when I didn't. I couldn't stand arguing so I told him I would stop, only to find that it was impossible. I then began smoking behind his back. I knew this was not right so I told him what I had been doing. We have been arguing constantly now and he says he will have to give me up unless I stop smoking. I feel if he really loved me he wouldn't get so upset over a little thing.

GRETA

ANSWER: This may seem like a trivial matter to you, but it is over just such seemingly small items that many marriages break up. Since your friend feels so definite on this point, it is up to you to make the concession and break the habit. It can be done. To make a happy marriage is worth the exercise of a little will power, don't you think?

LONELY DIVORCEE

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a schoolteacher, 35 years old and divorced. Since my religion precludes re-marriage, I'm very lonely on week ends when other people are going places. Church work occupies quite a bit of my time, but there is still much left for loneliness. Wouldn't it be a good idea for women in my circumstances to band together in a group to solve this problem? I heard some time ago of an organization called Divorcees Anonymous, and wonder if you know anything about it.

M. R.

ANSWER: I have never heard of a group such as you mention, but agree that it would be a fine idea. Why not scout around yourself and see if you can't find enough women in similar positions to form such a group?

DEAR MISS DIX: I am getting married shortly and my future wife lives in another state. Since we're being married in her home town, I wondered if it would be proper to send invitations to my relatives here, adding a note to the effect that we realize they won't be able to make the journey for the wedding. The distance is great, and I wouldn't want them to feel obligated to make it.

A. D.

ANSWER: A note such as you suggest might also be taken to mean that you don't want them to make the trip. Better omit it. You will probably have a chance to discuss the problem with your relatives personally, in which case you can explain that their absence will not cause hurt feelings, though you will be delighted if they can make the trip. It really isn't too long a journey in these days of rapid transportation and perhaps some of them will be glad to make the effort.

DEAR MISS DIX: A year and a half ago my husband and I came to this country from Europe. I am now 22 and have been married five years; I have a daughter 4. My husband is quite a bit older than I, and I am not very happy with him. He is a very sick person and, in the months he has been ill, I have found someone for whom I care more. Do I have a right to ask for a divorce now or should I wait until he is better?

L. Y.

ANSWER: Among the American customs it will be well for you to learn is that one does not desert a sick husband—or any other member of the family in trouble. Also, Hollywood publicity to the contrary, one does not trade husbands as casually as you are planning.

The mere fact that a husband is ill does not provide adequate reason for divorce in any of these United States—even the most liberal.

Why Grow Old?

Archery And Swimming Great For Posture

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

In this season of summer sports do not forget archery. For some reason this activity is by-passed by most people when thinking in terms of outdoor exercise. It is one of the very best sports in fun and benefit. This sport, like swimming, is universal in it's appeal to varying ages.

I have known whole families who competed among themselves in their own yards. They had the happiest time outdoors with their archery and it also led to a fascinating hobby for some members of the group who like to make their own bows. They made them for future use and to keep as collector's items. Some of them were beautiful.

This exercise with a towel is great for posture improvement.

Some sports are more conducive to good posture than others. Archery is in this group. It straightens the spine, strengthens the back muscles and stretches the chest muscles. This adds up to a fine exercise for correcting round shoulders.

Swim For Posture

Certain swim strokes do the same thing. You couldn't have a better corrective exercise for round shoulders than the breast stroke. This also builds strong back muscles. Why not indulge in the breast stroke this summer? When you go swimming spend part of the time you swim on improving posture. This is an easy way.

If you want an exercise to do on land, follow these directions. Stand erect. Arms hang at sides. Grasp a towel, one end in each hand, behind your back. Keep a firm hold on the towel ends as you raise your arms backward—upward as far as you can. Hold while you count slowly to five. Return arms to position at the sides. Continue doing this slowly. Do not allow your arms to rise.

If you would like to have my leaflet No. 7 "Don't Have Round Shoulders And Flat Bust—Reverse," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

GREETS NEON SIGN

NEW YORK (AP)— Theater owners and advertisers in the Times Square area saluted a giant new neon sign recently by darkening their marquees and "spectaculars" for three minutes to give it an unrivaled Broadway showning.

The brownout occurred as the new display, advertising a brand of whiskey and containing more than two miles of neon tubing and 20,000 incandescent lamps, was turned on for the first time. The gesture tok carefull timing and cooperation by more than 100 electricians.

SUSPECTED OF THEFT

A 17-year-old Negro boy was arrested by Monroe city police yesterday on charges of theft of a pair of trousers valued at $2.98 from W. T. Grant Store on DeSiard, T. J. Benjamin, 17, 1015½ Adam street, was arrested at 3:31 p.m. and lodged in the city jail.

OTTO E. PASSMAN

Earnestly Solicits Your Vote And Active Support In The Coming Election —Tuesday,—July 29th. For Re-Election To

CONGRESS

This is the last opportunity I will have to ask you for your vote and active support in the congressional election to be held Tuesday, July 29th.

I promsed you in the beginning that I would conduct a clean, truthful, ethical campaign and refrain from discussing any matter that would not serve a useful purpose. I have kept that promise and hope that I have justified your vote and active support.

I say with humility that I have a record which has brought credit to our district, state and nation and if you will return me to the congress, I promise to handle myself in the future as I have in the past — with dignity, honor and forthright representation. I shall never be guilty of misrepresenting facts to you or making promises for political gain, which cannot be fulfilled.

Congressman Clarence Cannon, who has been a member of congress for thirty years and who is known as one of the most conservative and economy minded members of congress, expressed his sentiments in the following letter. His letter contains a more impressive message than I could possibly convey.

Sincerely Your Friend And Congressman

OTTO E. PASSMAN

CLARENCE CANNON
REPRESENTATIVE FROM MISSOURI
NINTH DISTRICT

CHAIRMAN:
COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS

MAJORITY STEERING COMMITTEE
JOINT COMMITTEE ON REDUCTION OF NONESSENTIAL FEDERAL EXPENDITURES
JOINT COMMITTEE ON LEGISLATIVE BUDGET
JOINT COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN ECONOMIC COOPERATION

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

May 10, 1952

The Honorable Otto E. Passman
Member of Congress
1018 House Office Building
Washington, D. C.

My dear Otto:

Now that you have returned from your important assignment to Japan and Korea in the interest of peace and economy, I cannot restrain from expressing my deep appreciation for the service you are rendering our country.

As Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations during the war and subsequent years I have had opportunity to observe at close range the work of many Congressmen from all sections of the country. In the last quarter of a century especially I have seen many able and patriotic men come and go, but I want you to know, Otto, that I have never seen any Member of Congress in all my years here who has been more energetic, more helpful and more conscientious or who has contributed more effectively or in greater measure to the welfare of the nation as a whole and the progress and prosperity of the South in particular.

After observing closely your activities as a Member of the 80th Congress, I requested that you be assigned to the Appropriations Committee. On the Committee your capacity for work and your untiring efforts to effect economy in government further prompted me to select you as a member of the Executive Central Committee, although in doing so it was necessary to overlook seniority. It was a signal honor to be chosen for such an important Committee over members who have served for twenty-five years or longer, and in that position you rendered exceptional service to the Committee, to the Congress and to the country. The advantages of your experience as a prudent businessman and a prudent administrator have been manifested time and time again.

Otto, in my considered judgment, this whole country owes you a debt of gratitude for your outstanding work in Congress, and I know of no man whose service is more needed in Washington during the critical period just ahead of us in the next Congress. The country cannot well afford to lose your services and your experience as a seasoned legislator in the coming session. It is my fervent hope that you will be returned to Congress. Your seniority in the Congress and on the Appropriations Committee will enable you to render even greater service in the future.

With kindest personal regards and my warmest esteem, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Clarence Cannon, Chairman
Appropriations Committee
House of Representatives

A HAPPY NOTE OR TWO

By J. Paul Hewitt

Many parents have asked us whether or not it's wise to enroll their children in music classes . . . rather than giving them individual attention from a selected teacher. We say that for the young beginner, there are many advantages to class study. For instance, in a music class a child can see others around him learning to play tunes and accomplishing things with music. He's thus stimulated into learning and competing with them. He gets help from observing and listening to his classmates and this is all to his advantage. He learns how to work with the group which is a social advantage too.

The pupil receives training in music appreciation, ear training and theory . . . which might be missed in individual lessons concerned mainly with technique. Then too . . . the fees are usually nominal, which is easy on pop's pocketbook. We heartily recommend class study for the young beginner . . . with a follow-up of private instruction if interest warrants it. Come in and talk to us about music for your youngster.

We have convenient budget terms on every piano we sell. Now it's possible for every family to own a piano . . . to profit from the study and pleasure of music. Come in and look over our wide selection of top-name pianos . . . Now better than ever at HEWITT INC. 216 Grammont. Phone: 2-1491 . . . We have the special Cable piano to give you the most in musical pleasure . . . To add grace and charm to your home. See it today.

F. L. Hearne, pastor.
J. O. Fleming, church school superintendent
In the reception room of one of our colleges for women there stood a marble group, representing one of the wise virgins turning away from one of the foolish ones, who was pleading for some of her oil.
Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, when he saw it, shook his head, and said, "She ought to have let her have some." It was the natural reaction of a kind heart.
But, in fact, the oil in the parable represents what cannot be given. The precious oil of experience of life, with God is something each must gain for himself. "I cannot give you the gold of truth," said Ruskin to a company of students; "I can only tell you where to dig."

Sunday School, 10:00.
Priesthood, 6:45.
Sacrament Meeting, 7:30.
Food for thought: Because one man is more talented than another, he should not use that talent to take advantage of his brother and then expect that God will approve of his actions, for he will not do it. He never did, nor ever will. We should operate for one another's interest, having sympathetic feelings for each other. We are supposed to be brethren in the church and kingdom of God, knit together by the indissoluble ties of the everlasting gospel, not for time only but for eternity. Hence all our operations should be for that end, founded on the principles of righteousness and friendship.

DRAFT CHINESE LABOR

HONG KONG (AP)—The Chinese Communists have drafted 200,000 peasants as forced labor to build a 100 - mile railway along the Fukien province coast opposite Nationalist Formosa, say news dispatches from Canton.

Bible Comment

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.

The story of Samuel, in the two great Books of the Old Testament that bear his name, presents, as I have suggested, some striking contrasts and interesting questions. And an outstanding question at the end of the story is whether Samuel succeeded, or failed.

That he succeeded, in so far as his personal life and integrity are concerned, seems clear. No stain is upon his acts or motives. Even in that blood-stained scene in which he hewed Agag in peices before the altar (I Samuel 15:32), it was the execution of a perpetrator of atrocities, and it reveals the seemingly gentle Samuel in the character of a strong realist, scorning to put upon a subordinate the act of retribution that he deemed necessary. He made the bloody act an act of religion, and it will always be a question whether religion should be associated with violence. But are not modern executions by hanging, or firing squad, also marked by the attendance of chaplains, or confessors?

It seems clear, also, that Samuel restored a large measure of integrity to the religious life of Israel. The Ark of the Covenant was restored, when its enemies found it too dangerous to keep (I Samuel 5:) and its restoration became again a symbol of a restoration of religious integrity. Samuel's leadership, for the time at least, seemed constructively sure and effective. Wherein, then, if he failed at all, did Samuel fail?

He failed, sad to say, in his sons, just as Eli had failed. There lacks evidence that the sons of Samuel were as degraded and licentious as the sons of Eli, but the evidence is clear (I Samuel 8:1-3) that they did not honor their father by walking in his ways, and they took bribes and perverted justice. That was failure enough.

It is evident that trouble began in that day when Israel rejected Samuel, the trouble that issued in the tragic death of King Saul upon the battlefield, and another crucial defeat for Israel (I Samuel 31).

The narrative itself is confusing. Samuel acclaims Saul as the choice of the people and the divinely annointed king, but in strangely constrasting words (I Samuel 8:10-18), he gives a dark and depressing picture of what is in store for the people in their turning from him, and impliedly from God, to their trust in a king. Once it was clear that the people were determined to have a king, did Samuel change his own attitude, and seek to surround the new monarchy with all the sanctions of religion? I cannot resolve the discrepancy, but the whole passages and incidents have very interesting bearing on the question of the divine right of kings.

A great philosopher when he was asked to appraise the character and career of a certain man, replied, and declined, saying, "I do not know his end." It was a wise judgment, and concerning Samuel it may be said at least his end showed a diminishing greatness, perhaps partly due to old age. It is in his whole career, with the full strength of his manhood and leadership in mind that he may best be remembered. He never failed in his integrity as judge and prophet, though he failed to achieve all that he had sought to do as a true patriot in Israel.

Calvary Baptists To Worship In School

Calvary Baptist Church of Monroe, recently destroyed by fire, is now holding regular services at the Barkdull Faulk Grammar School on Jackson Street. The pastor, Rev. D. W. Nix, and the members of the church wish to express their appreciation to the city school board and to the principal of the school, Miss May Coker, for permitting us the use of this building until the time when a new church is completed for Calvary.

The burned rubbish of the church is being cleared away and plans are being made to begin building immediately. Many churches and individuals have offered contributions to the building fund to assist Calvary in beginning a new structure. If plans go as scheduled, there may be a new church at Calvary by the first of the year.

REVIVAL LEADER

Rev. James Thorn, (above) pastor of McClendon Baptist Church, West Monroe, will preach at a revival in Pleasant Hill Baptist Church in Baskin starting today and ending August 1. The public is cordially invited to attend, states the pastor, Rev. P. M. Gaddis.

4-H Short Course For Girls Arranged

FERRIDAY, July 26.—(Special)—The northeast district 4-H short course for girls will be held at Louisiana Tech in Ruston next Monday, July 28 according to Miss Inez Calloway, home demonstration agent.

This will be in place of the annual short course usually held at Louisiana State University, which was called off this year because of polio in East Baton Rouge parish.

Contests will be held in bread making, baking, cherry pie, clothing, general demonstration teams, dairy foods, food preservation, canning, home improvements and public speaking.

Other contests for girls will be held September 9 at Camp Grant Walker and at Chambers.

Those going from Concordia parish will be Billie Long, Ada Maude Brasher, and Earline Dollar, clothing; Laverne McNeely, good grooming, and Catherine Eames, baking.

ADVICE SAVES HUBBY

CENTRALIA, Ill (AP)— "I think it's ime to get up. It's pretty bad," Mrs. Oscar McClay told her husband. A windy rain storm raged 'round their Southern Illinois farm home.

McClay said he had just left his bed when the top of their house blew off, showering bricks on his bed. He admitted he might have been killed if he had not acted on his wife's advice.

Mormon Leaders Hold Union Parish Meeting

Conference was held by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints Sunday when the Level Hill Branch (out from Farmerville) played host to the north Louisiana district.

Inspiring talks were given by district leaders during the morning session, followed by a delicious dinner prepared by the relief society and served picnic style under the shade trees.

Highlight of the meetings came in the afternoon meeting when district president, Milton J. Belisle, gave his instructions in a most forceful and inspiring manner. There are those who might be interested in knowing that Elder Belisle was recently elected as a state representative from Sabine parish.

Prior to these faith - promoting meetings, a district dance was held in Farmerville on Saturday night. Mr. M. Hatcher of Monroe and his musicians furnished the dance music for the occasion. "Mormon" dances are always opened and closed with prayer and no smoking or drinking is permitted. Many people who are not members of the church attend to partake of the wholesome atmosphere and clean entertainment.

SCRAP DRIVE PLANNED

AMSTERDAM (AP)— A Dutch scrap - collecting campaign, intended to raise the national scrap-output will start shortly.

The Dutch scrap - output must be stepped up to feed a new steel plant to be opened soon in the little Dutch town of Ijmuiden — gateway to Amsterdam harbour.

Bible Words to Live by

JOHN 11:25-26—"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die . . ."

When the history of the ages is finally written, these words may turn out to be the greatest words ever spoken. The Lord Christ has already claimed that He is the way to God—"I am the way . . .", that through Him salvation comes—"I am the door . . .", that He is the spiritual nourishment for the believer—"I am the bread . . ."; and that He illumines our pathway and keeps us from falling—"I am the light . . ."

Now comes the supreme claim—"I am the resurrection and the life." Most men do not want to die. Death lurks in the background of all our thinking and overshadows all our days. You do not want to die? Then come to Christ, take Him, love Him, live Him, and you will taste a quality of life which you know in your heart of hearts can never end. It is everlasting. You now are immortal.

This is my favorite word from Scripture because it deals with man's last question, What about death?

GOSH-I DIDN'T EXPECT THE LOST CITY TO LOOK LIKE THIS!

ME, NEITHER, SPUD...IT SEEMS DESERTED!

I DON'T BELIEVE ANYONE HAS BEEN HERE FOR YEARS, BUT WE SHOULD CONTINUE OUR INVESTIGATION WITH CAUTION!

LET'S SEE WHAT'S IN THE BUILDING WITH THE DOME!

VERY WELL, SPUD...

IF THERE AREN'T ANY PEOPLE HERE, WHY DO THE TREES AND BUSHES LOOK SO WELL KEPT?

HERE'S YOUR ANSWER, TIM! THE BUSHES ARE MADE OF SOMETHING LIKE WAX!

THIS IS A STRANGE AND AMAZING CITY, LADS!...

...NO DOUBT WE WILL HAVE MANY STARTLING SURPRISES BEFORE WE COMPLETE OUR INVESTIGATION OF THE LOST CITY!

HERE'S THE DOOR! IT-IT LOOKS LIKE GOLD!

IT ISN'T GOLD, TIM, BUT A STRANGE METAL I HAVE NEVER SEEN BEFORE!

GEE- IT'S OPENING! ALL THE DOORS MUST BE AUTOMATIC!

MORE SCIENTIFIC STUFF!

I HAVE AN IDEA THIS IS A CONTROL ROOM!

A CONTROL ROOM FOR WHAT, MR. LUNDY?

I'M NOT TOO SURE, TIM... SAY, WHERE IS SPUD?

I-I DON'T KNOW... SPUD! SPUD, WHERE ARE YOU?

HERE I AM, FELLAS! COME UPSTAIRS AND SEE WHAT I'VE FOUND!

NO MAIL, MAJOR CANYON!

I CHECKED THE RED CROSS, TRAVELERS' AID AND ALL THE OTHER AGENCIES, MAJOR...NO TRACE...

THANKS, PADRE!

NO RADIO MESSAGES FOR YOU IN THE PAST FEW WEEKS, MAJOR!

WE DON'T ATTEMPT TO KEEP A RECORD OF INCOMING CALLS, MAJOR!

MAJOR, YOU LOOK AS IF THE ALEUTIANS HAD WILLIWAWED YOU PLUMB LOOSE AT THE SEAMS! WOULD YOU CARE TO JOIN ME IN STRIKING A BLOW FOR LIBERTY?

...THANKS

NOW, THE WAY I LOOK AT IT, A MAN'S A FOOL TO NEGLECT THE PROPER CARE OF HIS THROAT! THIS TUNDRA DUST CAN STRANGLE YOU!

MAJOR KENYON!

COULD THAT BE CANYON?

MIGHT BE, SIR...

PHONE CALL FROM THE STATES—IT'S A MRS. WILSON—OR ULSMAN—OR OL---

I TOLD YOU, ED, THERE ARE AS MANY RISKS IN THIS ALASKA DEPARTMENT AS IN A SHOOTING WAR IN KOREA!

MOON MULLINS

by Frank Willard

YOUNG MAN, YOU SAVED MY WIFE'S LIFE. WHAT CAN I DO FOR YOU?

FORGET IT, MISTER. I GOT SOME PRIDE.

BUT YOU AIN'T GOT A AUTOMOBILE, MOON!

I HAVE A COUPLE OF CARS AT HOME THAT I DON'T USE. YOU CAN HAVE EITHER ONE FOR, SAY $3.

AND JEST TO SHOW YOU TH' KINDA GUY I AM, MISTER, I'LL PAY YOU TH' DOUGH IN ADVANCE.

YOU CAN TAKE YOUR CHOICE OF THIS CAR OR ANOTHER ONE I HAVE OUT IN THE ALLEY.

I'LL TAKE TH' ONE IN TH' ALLEY.

PRETTY SWELL, HUH? HOW MANY MILES WILL IT GO ON A GALLON?

I DON'T THINK IT'LL GO A MILE, KAYO.

IT'S GOT A SHORT CIRCUIT.

HE SHOULDA KNEW TO PUT ONE IN THAT WAS LONG ENOUGH IN TH' FIRST PLACE.

DON'TCHA HEAR THAT COP HOLLERIN' AT YA TO STOP, MOON?

NOT AFTER ALL TH' TROUBLE I'VE HAD GETTIN' THIS BUCKET OF BOLTS STARTED.

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.; Copyright, 1952, by News Syndicate Co., Inc.

SCREEECH!

WOT IN—☆?!

CRASH!

THEY AIN'T ANY USE IN YOU TRYIN' TO HIDE UNDER THERE, MOON. TH' COP KNOWS WHERE YOU'RE AT.

I HOPE YOU DIDN'T HURT THAT BRAVE BOY'S FEELINGS BY GIVING HIM THAT CAR, CURLY.

MY DEAR, I AM ALWAYS TACTFUL. I CHARGED HIM THREE DOLLARS FOR IT, SO HE WON'T FEEL LIKE AN OBJECT OF CHARITY.

WELL, LITTLE MAN, HAS YOUR BROTHER DECIDED WHICH CAR HE WANTS?

HE WANTS HIS THREE BUCKS BACK.

SMILIN' JACK

SABLE, I DON'T LIKE YOUR GOING FOR PORTRAIT SITTINGS AT NIDNEY'S STUDIO...

...EVEN IF HE DOES THINK YOU HAVE HAIR LIKE A GOLDEN SUNSET AND FEATURES OF A GODDESS!

BUT, JACK— WHY SHOULD YOU WANT TO STOP ME FROM SITTING FOR A PORTRAIT?

...I HAVEN'T STOPPED YOU FROM SITTING FOR HOURS IN A PLANE WITH PANDORA!

THAT'S DIFFERENT! I HAVE TO TEACH PANDORA TO FLY TO PAY BILLS!

WELL— THEN YOU SHOULD BE HAPPY THAT I CAN OCCUPY MY TIME PLEASANTLY WHEN YOU'RE FLITTING!

OH, ALL RIGHT! GOOD-BY!! I'M SCHEDULED TO GIVE PANDORA ANOTHER FLYING LESSON NOW---

JACK, ISN'T IT NICE THAT NIDNEY IS PAINTING YOUR WIFE? THEY CAN BE COMPANY FOR EACH OTHER WHILE WE FLY!

PANDORA... HOW MANY TIMES MUST I TELL YOU TO KEEP YOUR AIR SPEED UP IN THESE SHARP TURNS, DOPEY!

SABLE, TILT YOUR CHIN UP A BIT!

OKAY! SAY, NIDNEY, DO YOU WORRY ANY ABOUT PANDORA PRACTICING LANDINGS IN LAKE OKEECHOBEE?

NO... WHY?

IF SHE SHOULD HAPPEN TO TURN TH' PLANE OVER IN TH' MIDDLE OF TH' LAKE...

...WELL, JACK'S A GOOD SWIMMER, BUT HE MIGHT NOT BE ABLE TO SAVE BOTH PANDORA AN' HIMSELF!

OH, DON'T WORRY ABOUT PANDORA. SHE'S A CHAMPION SWIMMER!

WHAT? JACK AND PANDORA BOTH TOLD ME THAT JACK SAVED HER LIFE BECAUSE PANDORA COULDN'T SWIM!

AS POLICE PURSUE TWO ESCAPED CONVICTS...

THE DOGS ARE HEADING TOWARDS THOSE HEDGES. CAREFUL--BOTH CONS ARE ARMED AND THEY'RE KILLERS!

WHERE'D THEY GO?

I DUNNO. KEEP LOW. MAYBE WE CAN HIDE INSIDE THIS PLACE.

INSIDE, MANDRAKE AND DR. BOYD EXPERIMENT WITH THE EERIE DOORWAY!

GONE! CAN YOU STILL FEEL THE WEIGHT OF THE BARREL AT THE END OF THE ROPE!

YES, I'LL TRY PULLING IT BACK.

HERE IT COMES. AT LEAST WE KNOW THAT WHAT GOES IN CAN RETURN.

WHAT KIND OF PLACE-- OR WORLD IS IT? CAN PEOPLE LIVE THERE? DOES IT HAVE CREATURES OF ITS OWN?

TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

THEN A STRANGE THING HAPPENED. TARZAN TRAILED FRESH PRINTS PAST THE HIDDEN CARNIVORE -- AND, INSTANTLY, A MAMMOTH PAW SMASHED AGAINST HIS HEAD!

THE JUNGLE LORD STAGGERED UNDER THE BLOW, INSTINCTIVELY CLUTCHING A LOW VINE --

AND, WITH A HERCULEAN EFFORT, PULLED HIMSELF TO SAFETY -- JUST AS THE CAT'S TALONS RAKED HIS LEG!

THERE, CONFINED IN THE GREAT TREE, THE APE-MAN COLLAPSED. NUMA ROARED IN FRUSTRATION, BUT SOON SLUNK AWAY.

... MUCH LATER TARZAN AWOKE, HEAD THROBBING. HE KNEW NOW THAT WAMBA'S "GHOST" WAS AN ALBINO, BUT HOW HAD IT TRICKED HIM? HE FOLLOWED THE SPOOR CAUTIOUSLY, YET THIS SNOWY TERROR HAD STRUCK FROM BEHIND!
